The Third Hole A Gender Swap Story:

Gender Stories Sonja K. Foss, Mary E. Domenico, Karen A. Foss, 2012-06-06 Essential for anyone who seeks to understand the contemporary gender landscape Gender Stories defines gender as the socially constructed meanings that are assigned to bodies The book helps readers navigate issues of gender by introducing them to the ubiquitous gender binary the problems with much of the research on gender differences and the variety of gender stories in popular culture At the heart of the book is a description of the process of becoming a gendered person through crafting and performing gender stories Because each gender performance is unique a virtually unlimited number of genders exists not just two as the gender binary would have us believe The same multiplicity that characterizes the gender landscape characterizes the individual who typically changes gender multiple times a day and across the lifespan In Gender Stories personal gender performances are framed within a philosophy of choice Readers are encouraged to become more conscious of the choices they have in constructing their gender identities and to allow others the same choice by respecting their gender performances Readers will easily find a place for themselves in the book regardless of their views on gender because one perspective on gender is not presented as the right one Gender Stories affirms and legitimizes diverse perspectives as providing more comprehensive knowledge about gender for everyone Time ,2000-02

Martyrdom Ihab Saloul, Jan Willem Henten, 2025-10-01 The phenomenon of martyrdom is more than 2000 years old but as contemporary events show still very much alive Martyrdom Canonisation Contestation and Afterlives examines the canonisation contestation and afterlives of martyrdom and connects these with cross cultural acts and practices of remembrance Martyrdom appeals to the imagination of many because it is a highly ambiguous spectacle with thrilling deadly consequences Imagination is thus a vital catalyst for martyrdom for martyrs become martyrs only because others remember and honour them as such This memorialisation occurs through rituals and documents that incorporate and re interpret traditions deriving from canonical texts The canonisation of martyrdom generally occurs in one of two ways First through ritual commemoration by communities of inside readers listeners viewers and participants who create and recycle texts re interpreting them until the martyrs ultimately receive a canonical status or second through commemoration as a means of contestation by competing communities who perceive these same people as traitors or terrorists By adopting an interdisciplinary orientation and a cross cultural approach this book goes beyond both the insider admiration of martyrs and the partisan rejection of martyrdoms and concisely synthesises key interpretive questions and themes that broach the canonised unstable and contested representations of martyrdom as well as their analytical connections divergences and afterlives in the present Rehumanizing Assessment Tom Schimmer, Natalie
