Contemporary Perspectives on Research in Assessment and Evaluation in Early Childhood Education Olivia Saracho, 2015-08-01 Researchers educators professional organizations administrators parents and policy makers have increased their involvement in the assessment and evaluation of early childhood education programs This interest has developed swiftly during the last decades The National Association for the Education of Young Children NAEYC and the National Association of Early Childhood Specialists in State Departments of Education NAECS SDE developed a position statement titled Early childhood curriculum assessment and program evaluation Building an effective accountable system in programs for children birth through age 8 to address related trends issues guiding principles and values Appropriate and well designed evaluations need to address several audiences including researchers educators policy makers children and parents They need to encourage the implementation of a strong foundation that improves the quality of the children's education Child assessment and program evaluation can lead to effective results and better accountability for preschool kindergarten and primary school programs The purpose of this volume is to share a collection of research strands on contemporary perspectives on research in assessment and evaluation in early childhood education It provides a review and critical analysis of the literature on assessment and evaluation of programs children teachers and settings The volume begins with a brief introductory chapter that presents the reader with a map of the area laying out the issues and alternatives and linking these to the chapters that follow It addresses several areas including 1 understanding assessment and evaluation with young children 2 schools and assessment implications 3 teacher evaluation and professional development 4 social relationships and assessment 5 content areas in early education assessment 6 technology and assessment and 7 conclusion with future research directions in assessment and evaluation in early childhood education The volume is of interest to researchers educators policy makers university faculty graduate students and general readers who are interested in research on assessment and evaluation in early childhood education The chapters are authored by established scholars in the field

Pedagogical Documentation in Early Childhood Susan Stacey, 2015-06-16 An inspiring step by step guide to documenting children's ideas questions and learning in a way that enhances teacher's thinking and understanding STEM in Early Childhood Education Lynn E. Cohen, Sandra Waite-Stupiansky, 2019-07-12 Bringing together a diverse cohort of experts STEM in Early Childhood Education explores the ways STEM can be integrated into early childhood curricula highlighting recent research and innovations in the field and implications for both practice and policy Based on the argument that high quality STEM education needs to start early this book emphasizes that early childhood education must include science technology engineering and mathematics in developmentally appropriate ways based on the latest research and theories Experienced chapter authors address the theoretical underpinnings of teaching STEM in the early years while contextualizing these ideas for the real world using illustrative examples from the classroom This cutting edge collection also looks beyond the classroom to how STEM learning can be facilitated in museums nature based learning outdoors and after school programs STEM in Early Childhood Education is an excellent resource for aspiring and veteran educators alike exploring the latest research providing inspiration and advancing best practices for teaching STEM in the early years

Inquiry-Based Early Learning Environments Susan Stacey, 2018-09-18 What does it mean to inquire Grownups would say it means to question to search for information or to finding out about a topic of interest For children in an early childhood classroom the definition is no different From the time of their birth children want to know how the world works and actively seek out information How educators respond to their quest is what this book is all about Inquiry Based Early Learning Environment takes an in depth look at children's inquiry What does inquiry look like in early childhood settings How does the environment affect children's inquiries and teachers thought processes Inquiry Based Early Learning Environment examines inquiry in all its facets including environments that support relationships that create a culture of risk taking in our thinking that support teachers as well as children that include families that use documentation as a way of thinking about our work and of course the physical environment and all the objects and spaces within it Throughout stories about environments and approaches to inquiry from around the world are included as examples Re-imagining the Art School Neil

Mulholland,2019-08-22 This book proposes paragogic methods to re imagine the art academy While art schooling was revolutionised in the early 20th century by the Bauhaus the author argues that many art schools are unwittingly recycling the same modernist pedagogical fashions Stagnating in such traditions today s art schools are blind to recent advances in the scholarship of teaching and learning As discipline based education research in art eternally battles the perceived threat of epistemicide transformative educational practices are rapidly overcoming the perennialism of the art school The author develops critical case studies of open source and peer to peer methods for re imagining the art academy para academia and andragogy paralogy This innovative book will be of interest and value to students and scholars of the art school as well as how the art academy can be reimagined and rebuilt Formación estética de pies a cabeza Maritza López de la
