"These from the Land of Sinim." Robert Hart, 1903 The Boxers, China, and the World Robert A. Bickers, R. G. Tiedemann, 2007 In 1900 China chose to take on imperialism by fighting a war with the world on the parched north China plain This multi disciplinary volume explores the causes behind what is now known as the Boxer war examining its particular cruelties and its impact on China foreign imperialism in China and on the foreign imagination The Boxers have often been represented as a force from China s past resisting an enforced modernity Here expert contributors argue that this rebellion was instead a wholly modern resistance to globalizing power representing new trends in modern China and in international relations This volume will appeal to readers interested in modern Chinese East Asian and European history as well as the history of imperialism colonialism warfare missionary work and Christianity Government, Imperialism and

Nationalism in China Chihyun Chang, 2013-08-06 The Chinese Maritime Customs Service which was led by British staff is often seen as one of the key agents of Western imperialism in China the customs revenue being one of the major sources of Chinese government income but a source much of which was pledged to Western banks as the collateral for and interests payments on massive loans This book however based on extensive original research considers the lower level staff of the Chinese Maritime Customs Service and shows how the Chinese government struggling to master Western expertise in many areas pursued a deliberate policy of encouraging lower level staff to learn from their Western superiors with a view to eventually supplanting them a policy which was successfully carried out The book thereby demonstrates that Chinese engagement with Western imperialists was in fact an essential part of Chinese national state building and that what looked like a key branch of Chinese government delegated to foreigners was in fact very much under Chinese government control
