the Hebrew words rendered as remember covenant walk gates love cleanliness holiness glory wisdom and fear The original language allows various parts to click together like well constructed puzzle pieces With Hebrew in mind interpreters see new details they didn't realize were missing before They make new connections They immerse themselves in scripture more fully That's where this book comes in Learning a language is like learning a worldview Those who learn biblical Hebrew can better understand not only what biblical authors wrote but also how they thought Unfortunately those insights come only after years of study This book is about getting right to the important exciting insights It's an opportunity to be transformed by the renewing of our minds as we better understand how biblical authors used their language to express their experience of God and the world If you are just beginning to study Hebrew and want the insights and motivation to continue or if you have no intention of learning biblical Hebrew but want to better understand the Bible this book is for you

Greene, 2025-07-15 Sloshed Hammered Doing carpet time Sipping godka Videos showing people falling down shaking and spontaneously laughing all in church If one has not grown up in the Charismatic or Pentecostal tradition the concept of being drunk in the Spirit likely seems baffling Yet in recent decades the idea of spiritual intoxication has gained traction What should we think about such odd looking manifestations Does the Bible speak of anything like this How should we discern such things In this book readers will find a sustained analysis of passages from the Bible dealing with these very topics Readers may be shocked at how trances ecstatic episodes and altered states of consciousness are indeed found within the pages of sacred Scripture some of them hidden in one's own cherished stories

Beliles, Jerry Newcombe, 2014-10-21 A religious historian argues that historical revisionism has distorted the religious views of Thomas Jefferson making him appear far more skeptical than he was Thomas Jefferson and the founding fathers intended a strict separation of church and state right He would have been very upset to find out about a child praying in a public school or a government building used for religious purposes correct Actually the history on this has been very distorted The standard accepted story on the faith of Thomas Jefferson or the lack thereof is not accurate While he did harbor some doubts about orthodox Christianity by the end of his life he was actually quite active in supporting the church in America Meanwhile in his name today because of a misunderstanding about the separation of church and state a phrase that comes from an obscure letter he wrote religious expression is being curtailed all over the place in modern America And he would absolutely object to that as seen in his own actions and writings While Jefferson may seem to be the patron saint of the ACLU his words and actions showed that he would totally disagree with the idea of driving God out of the public square Doubting Thomas documents that In short it's time to set the record straight
