Those who Leave and Those who Stay Elena Ferrante, 2014 Set in the late 1960s and the 1970s Those Who Leave and Those Who Stay continues the story of the feisty and rebellious Lina and her lifelong friend the brilliant and bookish Elena Lina after separating from her husband is living with her young son in a new neighbourhood of Naples and working at a local factory Elena has left Naples earned a degree from an elite college and published a novel all of which has opened the doors to a world of learned and fascinating interlocutors The era with its dramatic changes in sexual politics and social costumes with its seemingly limitless number of new possibilities is rendered with breathtaking vigour This third Neapolitan Novel is not only a moving story of friendship but also a searing portrait of a rapidly changing world Since the publication of My Brilliant Friend the first of the Neapolitan Novels Elena Ferrante's fame as one of today's most compelling insightful and stylish authors has grown She has gained admirers among authors artists and critics But her most resounding success has undoubtedly been with readers who have discovered in Ferrante a writer who speaks with great power and beauty of the mysteries of belonging human relationships love family and friendship Those who Leave and Those who Stay Elena Ferrante, 2014 Since the publication of My Brilliant Friend the first of the Neapolitan novels Elena Ferrante's fame as one of our most compelling insightful and stylish contemporary authors has grown enormously She has gained admirers among authors Jhumpa Lahiri Elizabeth Strout Claire Messud to name a few and critics James Wood John Freeman Eugenia Williamson for example But her most resounding success has undoubtedly been with readers who have discovered in Ferrante a writer who speaks with great power and beauty of the mysteries of belonging human relationships love family and friendship In this third Neapolitan novel Elena and Lila the two girls whom readers first met in My Brilliant Friend have become women Lila married at sixteen and has a young son she has left her husband and the comforts of her marriage brought and now works as a common laborer Elena has left the neighborhood earned her college degree and published a successful novel all of which has opened the doors to a world of learned interlocutors and richly furnished salons Both women are pushing against the walls of a prison that would have seen them living a life of mystery ignorance and submission They are afloat on the great sea of opportunities that opened up during the nineteen seventies Yet they are still very much bound to see each other by a strong unbreakable bond Those who leave and those who stay: Individual migration in

Myanmar during a time of crisis Myanmar Agriculture Policy Support Activity, 2025-04-01 Drawing on data from five rounds of the Myanmar Household Welfare Survey MHWS collected between December 2021 and June 2023 with more than 12 000 respondents per round this report analyzes individual migration migration in which one or a few household members leave the household To complement this analysis we utilize data from the Myanmar Migration Assessment carried out in June and July 2023 in a sub sample of MHWS households with household members who have migrated since 2013 Over the year and a half period from December 2021 to June 2023 an estimated 6 451 394 household members 15 and older 11.8 percent of the population and 19.9 percent of the adult population left their households Kayah had the highest percentage of migrants followed by Kachin Kayah and Mon with migration rates over 25 percent of the adult population Significantly more men migrated than women Over the period more individuals left for work within Myanmar than for overseas work or for other reasons including marriage education or to join family Using the Myanmar Migration Assessment sub sample of 5 455 of individuals who have migrated since 2013 we analyze the migration process and destination characteristics Most migrants in our sample only migrated once 91 percent Between 2021 and 2022 there was a huge jump in migration from 10 percent of the sample to 24 percent Further migration was already 23 percent of our sample in June 2023 Therefore individual migration is likely to be much higher in 2023 than 2022 Between 2021 and 2023 most of the individual migration was internal 79 percent versus 21 percent overseas Internal migration and migration abroad are increasing at the same rate Most internal migration was to Yangon followed by Mandalay and Shan Around 27 percent of all individuals migrated to Yangon over the whole period Migration to Mandalay decreased from 2010 to 2023 while migration to Shan increased Migration abroad is mainly to Thailand and Malaysia Most individuals migrated to find better employment Employment was the most important driver of migration across all years all destinations all age groups and for men and women In 2021 2023 34 percent of individuals left their homes to find more work opportunities 18 percent left their home to find a higher paid job and 7 percent left to find better working conditions At the same time an increasing number of individuals migrated for education as well In 2021 2023 12 percent of migrants were household heads most other migrants were either sons or daughters of the head While between 2013 and 2016 only 44 percent of migrants had children when they migrated in 2021 2023 91 percent of migrants had children before they migrated Overall most migrants regardless of their primary reason for migrating had friends or relatives who had migrated to their destination before them this includes 55 percent of internal migrants and 58 percent of migrants abroad Most migrants participated in most or all of the decisions to migrate This was true for 85 percent of migrants that went abroad and 79 percent of migrants that remained within Myanmar In Mandalay and Shan fewer migrants fully participated in the decision to migrate

The Four Volumes: My Brilliant Friend Elena Ferrante, 2025-10-07 A deluxe cloth hardcover with sprayed edges and colored end papers illustrating the Bay of Naples 1 BEST BOOK OF THE CENTURY NEW YORK TIMES An unconditional masterpiece Jhumpa Lahiri When Elena Ferrante set out to write the story of Elena and Lila she conceived it as one single work of fiction one expansive novel that would capture the reality and ambivalence of female friendship motherhood marriage class and adolescence 2025 marks 10 years since publication of the quartet was completed To celebrate this anniversary as well as honor and acknowledge the author's original conception we are releasing the four novels in one volume Described by the New Yorker's James Wood as large captivating amiably peopled a beautiful and delicate tale of confluence and reversal the Neapolitan Quartet tells a poignant universal story about friendship and belonging The capacity of stories to speak to anyone and in any time is the fruit of a mysterious mixture of sensibility ability and luck and no writer really knows how that fruit ripens and if it has fully matured Elena Ferrante Contains the four Neapolitan Novels My Brilliant Friend The Story of a New Name Those Who Leave and Those Who Stay The Story of the Lost Child

My Brilliant Friend Elena Ferrante, 2012-09-10 A modern masterpiece from one of Italy's most acclaimed authors My Brilliant Friend is a rich intense and generous hearted story about two friends Elena and Lila Ferrante's inimitable style lends itself perfectly to a meticulous portrait of these two women that is also the story of a nation and a touching meditation on the nature of friendship The story begins in the 1950s in a poor but vibrant neighborhood on the outskirts of Naples Growing up on these tough streets the two girls learn to rely on each other ahead of anyone or anything else As they grow as their paths repeatedly diverge and converge Elena and Lila remain best friends whose respective destinies are reflected and refracted in the other They are likewise the embodiments of a nation undergoing momentous change Through the lives of these two women Ferrante tells the story of a neighborhood a city and a country as it is transformed in ways that in turn also transform the relationship between her protagonists the unforgettable Elena and Lila Ferrante is the author of three previous works of critically acclaimed fiction The Days of Abandonment Troubling Love and The Lost Daughter With this novel the first in a trilogy she proves herself to be one of Italy's great storytellers She has given her readers a masterfully plotted page turner abundant and generous in its narrative details and characterizations that is also a stylish work of literary fiction destined to delight her many fans and win new readers to her fiction

The Neapolitan Novels Boxed Set Elena Ferrante, 2020-02-20 In one volume the New York Times bestselling epic about hardship and female friendship in postwar Naples that has sold over five million copies Beginning with My Brilliant Friend the four Neapolitan Novels by Elena Ferrante follow Elena and Lila from their rough edged upbringing in Naples Italy not long after WWII through the many stages of their lives and along paths that diverge wildly Sometimes they are separated by jealousy or hostility or physical distance but the bond between them is unbreakable for better or for worse This volume includes all four novels My Brilliant Friend The Story of a New Name Those Who Leave and Those Who Stay and The Story of the Lost Child Imagine if Jane Austen got angry and you'll have some idea of how explosive these works are The Australian Nothing you read about Elena Ferrante's work prepares you for the ferocity of it The New York Times An enduring masterpiece The Atlantic
