Threads And Traces True False Fictive:

Threads and Traces Carlo Ginzburg, 2012-09-02 This book is a translation of historian Carlo Ginzburg's latest collection of essays Through the detective work of uncovering a wide variety of stories or microhistories from fragments Ginzburg takes on the bigger questions How do we draw the line between truth and fiction What is the relationship between history and memory Stories range from medieval Europe the inquisitional trial of a witch seventeenth century antiquarianism and twentieth century historians Provided by publisher Deciphering Carlo Ginzburg Deivy F. Carneiro, Daniel R. B.

Dias, 2024-10-30 This book offers an original reading of Carlo Ginzburg's work tracing his trajectory in the context of Italian micro history his debates on the objectivity of historical knowledge and the connection of his work to the expanded perspectives constructed in recent decades by global history Ginzburg's theories have achieved notoriety not only in the field of history but also among the wider public This volume uses Ginzburg's own aesthetic and intellectual practices in its analysis and it deciphers the elements that drove and influenced the making of his work By highlighting the procedures that Ginzburg has constructed to respond to problems of cultural history the book also pays close attention to Erich Auerbach and Aby Warburg whose influences played a crucial role in reformulating Ginzburg's conception of micro history From there the volume demonstrates the radicality of Ginzburg's micro history through the discussion of some of his most recent contributions to international historiographical debates Thought provoking and thoroughly researched Deciphering Carlo Ginzburg is an innovative study in Ginzburg's methods and theories

Biography across the Digitized Globe, 2025-02-27 This volume is dedicated to Professor Hans Renders founder of the Biography Institute of the University of Groningen the Netherlands Throughout his academic career Renders witnessed a reflexive turn in historical research biographers became more open about the limitations of their sources and the subjective nature of their selection Over this same period however the availability of digital sources has increased exponentially which has profound implications for biographical research and the transnational framework used to approach the genre Through its thirteen thought provoking essays this work seeks to make an intervention in Biography Studies by bringing the well developed reflexive tradition to bear on the pressing challenge of proliferating digitized sources

New Art of Cookery Vicky Hayward, 2017-06-16 Winner of the Jane Grigson Trust Award 2017 and the Aragonese Academy of Gastronomy's 2017 Prize for Research New Art of Cookery Drawn from the School of Economic Experience was an influential recipe book published in 1745 by Spanish friary cook Juan Altamiras In it he wrote up over 200 recipes for meat poultry game salted and fresh fish vegetables and sweet things in a chatty style aimed at readers who cooked on a modest budget He showed that economic cookery could be delicious if flavors and aromas were blended with an appreciation for all sorts of ingredients however humble and for diverse food cultures ranging from that of Aragon his home region to those of Iberian court and New World kitchens This first English translation gives guidelines for today's cooks alongside the original text and interweaves a new narrative portraying 18th century Spain its everyday life and food culture The author traces links between New Art s dishes and modern Spanish cookery tells the story of her search to identify the book s author and understand the popularity of his book for over 150 years and takes travelers cooks historians and students of Spanish language culture and gastronomy on a fascinating journey to the world of Altamiras and most important of all his kitchen The Art of Discovery Maren Elisabeth Schwab,Anthony Grafton,2025-01-28 A panoramic history of the antiquarians whose discoveries transformed Renaissance culture and gave rise to new forms of art and knowledge In the early fifteenth century a casket containing the remains of the Roman historian Livy was unearthed at a Benedictine abbey in Padua The find was greeted with the same enthusiasm as the bones of a Christian saint and established a pattern that antiquarians would follow for centuries to come The Art of Discovery tells the stories of the Renaissance antiquarians who turned material remains of the ancient world into sources for scholars and artists inspirations for palaces and churches and objects of pilgrimage and devotion Maren Elisabeth Schwab and Anthony Grafton bring to life some of the most spectacular finds of the age such as Nero s Golden House and the wooden placard that was supposedly nailed to the True Cross They take readers into basements caves and cisterns explaining how digs were undertaken and shedding light on the methods antiquarians and the alchemists and craftspeople they consulted used to interpret them What emerges is not an origin story for modern archaeology or art history but rather an account of how early modern artisanal skills and technical expertise were used to create new knowledge about the past and inspire new forms of art scholarship and devotion in the present The Art of Discovery challenges the notion that Renaissance antiquarianism was strictly a secular enterprise revealing how the rediscovery of Christian relics and the bones of martyrs helped give rise to highly interdisciplinary ways of examining and authenticating objects of all kinds Speculative Biography Donna Lee Brien,Kiera Lindsey,2021-09-30 While speculation has always been crucial to biography it has often been neglected denied or misunderstood This edited collection brings together a group of international biographers to discuss how and why each uses speculation in their work whether this is to conceptualise a project in its early stages work with scanty or deliberately deceptive sources or address issues associated with shy or stubborn subjects After defining the role of speculation in biography the volume offers a series of work in progress case studies that discuss the challenges biographers encounter and address in their work In addition to defining the speculative spectrum within the biographical endeavour the collection offers a lexicon of new terms to describe different types of biographical speculation and more deeply engage with the dynamic interplay between research subjectivity and that which Natalie Zemon Davis dubbed informed imagination By mapping the field of speculative biography the collection demonstrates that speculation is not only innate to biographical practice but also key to rendering the complex mystery of biographical subjects be they human animal or even metaphysical Archaeology and the Letters of Paul Laura Salah Nasrallah,2019 This study illuminates the social political economic and religious lives of those to whom the apostle Paul wrote It articulates a method for bringing together biblical texts with archaeological remains Fabricating

Founders in Early Modern England Lauren Horn Griffin, 2023-09-14 This book argues that in order to understand nationalisms we need a clearer understanding of the types of cultural myths symbols and traditions that legitimate them Myths of origin and election memories of a greater and purer past and narratives of persecution and mission are required for the production and maintenance of powerful national sentiments Through an investigation of how early modern Catholics and Protestants reimagined reinterpreted and rewrote the lives of the founder saints who spread Christianity in England this book offers a theoretical framework for the study of origin narratives Analyzing the discursive construction of time and place the invocation of forces beyond the human to naturalize and authorize and the role of visual and ritual culture in fabrications of the past this book provides a case study for how to approach claims about founding figures Serving as a timely example of the dependence of national identity on key religious resources Griffin shows how origin narratives particularly the founding figures that anchor them function as uniquely powerful rhetorical tools for the cultural production of regional and national identity

Authorial Personality and the Making of Renaissance Texts Douglas S. Pfeiffer, 2022 Studying texts by Lorenzo Valla Erasmus Saint Jerome George Gascoigne and Fulke Greville this volume explores authorial character as an instrument of textual analysis in the scholarship of early Renaissance literature

Landscapes of Realism Svend Erik Larsen, Steen Bille Jørgensen, Margaret R. Higonnet, 2022-03-15 Few literary phenomena are as elusive and yet as persistent as realism While it responds to the perennial impulse to use literature to reflect on experience it also designates a specific set of literary and artistic practices that emerged in response to Western modernity Landscapes of Realism is a two volume collaborative interdisciplinary investigation of this vast territory bringing together leading edge new criticism on the realist paradigms that were first articulated in nineteenth century Europe but have since gone on globally to transform the literary landscape Tracing the manifold ways in which these paradigms are developed discussed and contested across time space cultures and media this second volume shows in its four core essays and twenty four case studies four major pathways through the landscapes of realism The psychological pathways focusing on emotion and memory the referential pathways highlighting the role of materiality the formal pathways demonstrating the dynamics of formal experiments and the geographical pathways exploring the worlding of realism through the encounters between European and non European languages from the nineteenth century to the present This volume is part of a book set which can be ordered at a special discount

Literature and Historiography in the Spanish Golden Age Sofie Kluge, 2021-09-30 Golden Age departures in historiography and theory of history in some ways prepared the ground for modern historical methods and ideas about historical factuality At the same time they fed into the period's own aesthetic historical culture which amalgamated fact and fiction in ways modern historians would consider counterfactual a culture where imaginative historical prose poetry and drama self consciously rivalled the accounts of royal chroniclers and the dispatches of diplomatic envoys a culture dominated by a notion of truth in which skilful construction of the argument and exemplarity took precedence over factual accuracy

Literature and Historiography in the Spanish Golden Age The Poetics of History investigates this grey area backdrop of modern ideas about history delving into a variety of Golden Age aesthetic historical works which cannot be satisfactorily described as either works of literature or works of historiography but which belong in between these later strictly separate categories The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

Creative Histories of Witchcraft Poppy Corbett, Anna Kisby Compton, William G. Pooley, 2022-06-23 How can researchers study magic without destroying its mystery Drawing on a collaborative project between the playwright Poppy Corbett the poet Anna Kisby Compton and the historian William G Pooley this Element presents thirteen tools for creative academic research into magic illustrated through case studies from France 1790 1940 and examples from creative outputs write to discover borrow forms use the whole page play with footnotes erase the sources write short accumulate fragments re enact improvise use dialogue change perspective make methods of metaphors use props These tools are ways to untell the dominant narratives that shape stereotypes of the witch which frame belief in witchcraft as ignorant and outdated Writing differently suggests ways to think and feel differently to stay with the magic rather than explaining it away The Element includes practical creative exercises to try as well as research materials from French newspaper and trial sources from the period

Psychology, Art, and Antifascism Louis Rose, 2016-09-15 A vivid portrait of two remarkable twentieth century thinkers and their landmark collaboration on the use and abuse of caricature and propaganda in the modern world In 1934 Viennese art historian and psychoanalyst Ernst Kris invited his mentee E H Gombrich to collaborate on a project that had implications for psychology and neuroscience and foreshadowed their contributions to the Allied war effort Their subject caricature and its use and abuse in propaganda Their collaboration was a seminal early effort to integrate science the humanities and political awareness In this fascinating biographical and intellectual study Louis Rose explores the content of Kris and Gombrich's project and its legacy

Art and Dis-illusion in the Long Sixteenth Century Larry Silver, 2023-04-12 Whereas entire libraries discuss the religious and political history of the sixteenth century in Northern Europe focused on the Reformation and the rise of nation states Larry Silver uniquely traces the dramatic even traumatic changes of the Reformation era discernible in the visual arts especially paintings and the new medium of prints Among the subjects and themes he explores are the destruction of church images witchcraft reactions to new voyages of exploration and issues of vision itself in an age when moral codes and the nature of sin and death were being re examined

A Past of Possibilities Quentin Deluermoz, Pierre Singaravelou, 2021-10-12 An exploration of hypothetical turning points in history from Ancient Greece to September 11 What if history as we know it had run another course Touching on alternate histories of the future and the past or uchronias A Past of Possibilities encourages deeper consideration of watershed moments in the course of history Wide ranging in scope it examines the Boxer Rebellion in China the 1848 revolution in France and the assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand in 1914 and integrates science fiction history historiography sociology anthropology and film In probing the genre of literature and history that is fascinated with hypotheticals surrounding key points in history Quentin Deluermoz and Pierre Singarav lou reach beyond a mere reimagining of history exploring the limits and potentials of the futures past From the most bizarre fiction to serious scientific hypothesis they provide a survey of the uses of counterfactual histories methodological issues on the possible in Social Sciences and practical proposals for using alternate histories in research and the wider public The Scientification of Religion Kocku von Stuckrad,2014-05-08 The enigmatic relation between religion and science still presents a challenge to European societies and to ideas about what it means to be modern This book argues that European secularism rather than pushing back religious truth claims in fact has been religiously productive itself The institutional establishment of new disciplines in the nineteenth century such as religious studies anthropology psychology classical studies and the study of various religious traditions led to a professionalization of knowledge about religion that in turn attributed new meanings to religion This attribution of meaning resulted in the emergence of new religious identities and practices In a dynamic that is closely linked to this discursive change the natural sciences adopted religious and metaphysical claims and integrated them in their framework of meaning resulting in a special form of scientific religiosity that has gained much influence in the twentieth century Applying methods that come from historical discourse analysis the book demonstrates that religious semantics have been reconfigured in the secular sciences Ultimately the scientification of religion perpetuated religious truth claims under conditions of secularism Against the Background of Social Reality Carmelo Lombardo,Lorenzo Sabetta,2023-09-07

The first wide ranging organic analysis of the sociology of unmarkedness and taken for grantedness this volume investigates the asymmetry between how we attend to the culturally emphasized features of social reality and ignore the culturally unmarked ones Concerned with the structures of cultural invisibility unconscious rules of irrelevance automatic frames of meaning and collective attention patterns it brings together scholarship spanning sociology anthropology and social psychology to cover various aspects of humdrum unglamorous nondescript nothing to write at home about social phenomena developing the key assumptions underpinnings and implications of this field of study As comprehensive analysis of unremarked features of our social existence this book will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with interests in social theory and the sociology of everyday life Dissimulation and Deceit in Early Modern Europe Miriam

Eliav-Feldon,Tamar Herzig,2015-09-29 In this book twelve scholars of early modern history analyse various categories and cases of deception and false identity in the age of geographical discoveries and of forced conversions from two faced conversos to serial converts from demoniacs to stigmatics and from self appointed ambassadors to lying cosmographer

Performance art and revolution Sanja Perovic,2023-10-31 Stuart Brisley is a pioneering multi media and performance artist who developed performance art as a form of social action in the 1960s and 1970s This book assesses his seminal influence on British art through a focus on his lifelong engagement with the histories and imaginaries of revolution Linking revolutionary history with material from a critical dialogue established with Brisley over the last decade the book recognises Brisley's corpus as a fascinating stage for addressing important questions about the relationship of art politics and history How do we make sense of politically committed art in a contemporary context where revolution has supposedly died or is deemed impossible What can the afterlives of performance art tell us about the historical past including the promises and contradictions of revolutionary time

Hospitals and Urbanism in Rome, 1200-1500 Carla Keyvanian, 2015-11-30 In Hospitals and Urbanism in Rome 1200 1500 Carla Keyvanian offers a new interpretation of the urban development of Rome during three seminal centuries by focusing on the construction of public hospitals These monumental charitable institutions were urban expressions of sovereignty Keyvanian traces the political reasons for their emergence and their architectural type in Europe around 1200 In Rome hospitals ballasted the corporate image of social elites aided in settling and garrisoning vital sectors and were the hubs around which strategies aimed at territorial control revolved When the strategies faltered the institutions were rapidly abandoned Hospitals in areas of enduring significance instead still function bearing testimony to the influence of late medieval urban interventions on modern Rome
