The Para-State Aldo Civico, 2015-11-24 Since its independence in the nineteenth century the South American state of Colombia has been shaped by decades of bloody political violence In The Para State Aldo Civico draws on interviews with paramilitary death squads and drug lords to provide a cultural interpretation of the country's history of violence and state control Between 2003 and 2008 Civico gained unprecedented access to some of Colombia's most notorious leaders of the death squads He also conducted interviews with the victims of paramilitary with drug kingpins and with vocal public supporters of the paramilitary groups Drawing on the work of Deleuze and Guattari this riveting work demonstrates how the paramilitaries have in essence become a war machine deployed by the Colombian state to control and maintain its territory and political legitimacy

Policing the Global South Danielle Watson, Sara N. Amin, Wendell C. Wallace, Oluwagbenga (Michael) Akinlabi, Juan Carlos Ruiz-Vásquez, 2022-11-11 Policing the Global South provides scholarship which further transnationalises and democratises ideas about policing practices and philosophies highlighting renovations in approaches to policing studies and injecting

innovative perspectives into the study of policing from scholars positioned on the periphery Criminological knowledge depolarisation underscores a conscious effort by scholars from the Global South to increase intellectual knowledge focused on developing context specific responses to issues not aligned to Northern ideological positions and specific to the non Northern context Such shifts draw attention to the expanse of spaces beyond Northern centres rife with challenges unlike any specific to those experienced or conceptualised by scholars from the Global North with an applied Northern criminological lens Applying a postcolonial lens to empirical knowledge from country specific cases in former colonies in Africa Asia the Caribbean the Pacific and Latin America this book examines how policing issues not aligned to Northern ideological positions and specific to non Northern contexts are addressed The primary purpose is to share innovations in the field of policing service provision threats to security crime responses justice and international trends developed in postcolonial developing country contexts Given the aim of the book and the contributors own research on issues of policing across the globe it discusses themes including but not limited to the colonial legacies and their impact on policing how plural regulatory systems and partnerships are navigated by the police the linkages between access to justice community perceptions and police legitimacy innovations and challenges in organisational reform crime prevention and community partnerships and the expanding roles of police organisations in the Global South While each chapter presents a policing issue in a country within a specific part of the Global South the book highlights how important it is to frame responses based on contextual realities informed by an awareness of the past and present with a goal of informing the future Delivering a much needed introduction to those specialising in policing in developing countries this book is invaluable reading for academics and students of criminology criminal justice governance policy and IR as well as professionals in policing organizations across the globe

Non-State Challenges in a Re-Ordered World Stefano Ruzza, Anja P Jakobi, Charles Geisler, 2015-10-14

There is a sprawling scholarship on violence crime and corrupt state rule yet few have interpreted these challenges as transformative at the global scale and as a potential source of alternative non state legitimacy This volume challenges Westphalian conservatism in a provocative yet plausible manner shedding light at the ubiquity and diversity of unfolding non state agendas and at their effect on the imagined state community Focusing on civil war parties warlords commercial providers of security multinational companies and criminal organizations the book directs attention to theoretical questions and policy challenges arising from non state armed expansion To accomplish this the contributors present a range of case studies and comparisons within three thematic sections the first takes stock of how when and in what measure state and state system legitimacy are challenged by non state violent or criminal activity the second addresses the nature effectiveness and side effects of different state mandated reaction to non state activities and third focuses on the recombination of state and non state actors contributing to processes of socio political transformation This volume provides a current analysis of different armed and violent actors encroaching on the state s monopoly of violence It seeks to spark debate about global political change and will be of interest to students and scholars of global governance global security and international relations
