Visual And Other Pleasures Language Discourse Society:

Visual and Other Pleasures Laura Mulvey, 1989-03-01 The essays collected in this book reflect some of the commitments and changes during the period that saw the women's movement shift into feminism and the development of feminism's involvement with the politics of representation psychoanalytic film theory and avant garde aesthetics

Visual and Other Pleasures Laura Mulvey, 2009-02-27 This new edition of Laura Mulvey's first collection of essays contains a new introduction in which she re-assesses her essay Visual Pleasure and Narrative Cinema

Women and New Hollywood Aaron Hunter, Martha Shearer, 2023-05-12 The 1970s has often been hailed as a great moment for American film as a generation of New Hollywood directors like Scorsese Coppola and Altman offered idiosyncratic visions of what movies could be Yet the auteurist discourse hailing these directors as the sole authors of their films has obscured the important creative roles women played in the 1970s American film industry Women and New Hollywood revises our understanding of this important era in American film by examining the contributions that women made not only as directors but also as screenwriters editors actors producers and critics Including essays on film history film texts and the decade's film theory and criticism this collection showcases the rich and varied cinematic products of women's creative labor as well as the considerable barriers they faced It considers both women working within and beyond the Hollywood film industry reconceptualizing New Hollywood by bringing it into dialogue with other American cinemas of the 1970s By valuing the many forms of creative labor involved in film production this collection offers exciting alternatives to the auteurist model and new ways of appreciating the themes and aesthetics of 1970s American film

Introduction to Japanese Horror Film Colette Balmain, 2008-10-14 This book is a major historical and cultural overview of an increasingly popular genre Starting with the cultural phenomenon of Godzilla it explores the evolution of Japanese horror from the 1950s through to contemporary classics of Japanese horror cinema such as Ringu and Ju On The Grudge Divided thematically the book explores key motifs such as the vengeful virgin the demonic child the doomed lovers and the supernatural serial killer situating them within traditional Japanese mythology and folk tales The book also considers the aesthetics of the Japanese horror film and the mechanisms through which horror is expressed at a visceral level through the use of setting lighting music and mise en scene It concludes by considering the impact of Japanese horror on contemporary American cinema by examining the remakes of Ringu Dark Water and Ju On The Grudge The emphasis is on accessibility and whilst the book is primarily marketed towards film and media students it will also be of interest to anyone interested in Japanese horror film cultural mythology and folk tales cinematic aesthetics and film theory

Jens Eder, 2025-07-29 Characters are central to the creation and experience of films and other media Their cultural significance is profound but they also raise a wide range of questions This book provides a comprehensive theory that guides the analysis and interpretation of characters across four dimensions as represented beings with physical psychological and social characteristics as artefacts with aesthetic structures as meaningful symbols and as symptoms of socio cultural origins and effects Integrating insights from film media and literary studies as well as philosophy psychology and sociology the book offers a broad range of approaches for understanding characters and the emotional responses they evoke Richly illustrated and offering practical tools along with case studies of numerous characters from different genres of films this book will be invaluable to scholars and students of film and media studies and related disciplines as well as artistic practitioners Politics and Culture: Working Hypotheses for a Post-Revolutionary Society Michael Ryan, 1989-06-18 A political sociology textbook which examines the impact of political thought on a society's culture and theorizes on the attitudes a post revolutionary society would adopt towards such subjects as feminism the arts and ideology The Beatles on Screen Stephanie Fremaux, 2018-05-17 The 1960s ushered in a time of creative freedom and idealism reflected in the popular music and films on both sides of the Atlantic At the forefront of driving that creative change were four mop topped musicians from Liverpool The Beatles While many scholars have examined their role as songwriters as countercultural and political figures and as solo artists few have considered the important role film played in The Beatles career This book focuses on the overlooked films the Beatles performed in from 1964 to 1970 in order to chart their journey from pop stars to musicians Through these case studies The Beatles on Screen uncovers how the relationship between film and pop music has changed the ways in which bands communicate with their fans Reality Television, Affect and Intimacy Misha Kavka, 2008-10-31 Reality Television Affect and Intimacy shifts current discussions of media and reality from the informative to the affective from knowledge to feelings In reality television Misha Kavka argues everyday reality is the ground for an experience of immediacy or televisual intimacy that is self evidently mediated and performed The book explores this paradox by conceptualising the relation between affect and media For Kavka affect matters because the feelings generated across the screen are real in a material way Investigating such concepts as publicity and privacy in reality TV families performance technologies in Big Brother arranged marriages in romance reality TV and gender race and sexuality in Survivor and Project Runway she argues that affect is the core reality of a public sphere that is reconfigured by its viewing patterns Renewing attention to the complexities of affective intimacies this book offers the rich realities of feeling as a critical alternative to traditional communication models Freud's Memory Rob White, 2008-07-24 A wide ranging reading of Freud's work this book focuses on Freud's scientifically discredited ideas about inherited memory in relation both to poststructuralist debates about mourning and to certain uncanny figurative traits in his writing Freud's Memory argues for an enriched understanding of the strangenesses in Freud rather than any denunciation of psychoanalysis as a bogus explanatory method Women Artists and the Parisian Avant-garde Gillian Perry, 1995 This beautifully illustrated book examines the work and artistic culture of women artists in France during the period when Picasso Matisse and Modigliani were guiding and representing the development of modern art Aesthetics and The Work of Art Peter de Bolla, Stefan H. Uhlig, 2009 Ten leading commentators explore the interfaces between art and aesthetics in dialogue with a philosophical text Theodor Adorno's draft introduction to Aesthetic Theory a piece of literary writing Franz Kafka's A Report to an Academy and a major contemporary painting Gerhard Richter's Betty 1988 Screen, 1991 Tamara de Lempicka Laura P. Claridge, 1999 An icon of the Jazz Age Art Deco painter Tamara de Lempicka lived a life well worth recording Until now however no one has written the story of this woman of extraordinary talent and notoriety She was a great beauty an aristocratic refugee of the Russian Revolution and a frankly erotic painter who insisted upon Renaissance aesthetics figuration and painterly craft in modern art The sky high prices attached to her canvases in recent years have still not dispelled the suspicions that a woman of Lempicka's glamour and fame could be a truly serious artist Yet the reviews of the early twentieth century tell a different story her work was routinely singled out as competing with major figures of the School of Paris including Leger Lauren in Kisling and Picasso In this first critical biography Laura Claridge draws upon her exclusive access to Lempicka's family friends and archives to recreate the life that the painter carefully withheld even from her own daughter the truth of her birth her escape from Bolshevik Russia her determination to become a New Woman her lifelong bouts of depression her numerous affairs with the women and men she painted her flight from Nazi Europe via Havana and her years in Hollywood and New York as the Baroness with a brush all informed by the artistic integrity and social anachronism that condemned her to being written out of the canons of modern art Emblematic of 20s excess and indulgence Tamara de Lempicka's life of great wealth indiscriminate sexuality and endless intrigue makes for a fascinating narrative But her paintings have inspired fierce disagreements over issues of class wealth and gender in modern art making her work ripe for critical re evaluation In Tamara de Lempicka A Life of Deco and Decadence Laura Claridge has succeeded brilliantly on both counts bringing to light the contradictions that fueled the life and work of this provocative painter Though Paris in the early twenties certainly earned its bohemian reputation Tamara was playing the game hard by anyone's standards It seemed to her that she could have it all respect money and sexual gratification on the side She had arrived at the Gare du Nord only four years earlier gifted with a painter's talent and a family history of feminine power Encountering a cultural climate that affirmed art as a remunerative career for women she also felt freed personally by the Modernist mantra to make it new that underwrote every aspect trivial and profound of daily life She was determined to embody that icon of the age the new woman Screen Theory Culture Mark Nash, 2008-01-15 Mark Nash's Screen Theory Culture demonstrates the influence of Screen magazine on structuralist and post structuralist film studies More current articles make connections between this body of work and the art of the contemporary moving image art work The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1968 ADFL Bulletin Association of Departments of Foreign Languages (U.S.), 1999 The Aesthetics of Loss and Lessness Angela B. Moorjani, 1992 This book probes the psychic and social roots of artistic scenarios of loss Poetry and Narrative in Performance Douglas Oliver, 1989
