Art in Consumer Culture Grace McQuilten, 2017-07-05 Written with beautiful clarity Art in Consumer Culture Mis Design asks the contemporary art world to be honest about the pervasive effects of commodification and the difficulty of staging critique The book examines the collusion of art and design in contemporary artistic practices in order to find avenues of critique in a commercially driven cultural landscape Grace McQuilten focuses on the work of Takashi Murakami Andrea Zittel Adam Kalkin and Vito Acconci four contemporary artists who claim to be working in the field of design rather than the traditional art world McQuilten argues that Zittel Acconci and Kalkin engage with design only to reactivate the critical practice of art in a more direct engagement with capital and conceives of and affirms a future for art outside of the art world as a parasite in the complex beast of late capitalism This book is an important and timely provocation to a cynical and apathetic consumer culture and a call to arms for creative freedom and critical thought
