Winter Music Composing The North:

Winter Music John Luther Adams, 2004-11-10 Eminent composer discusses music culture and the environment

Ancestral North Ross Hagen, Mathias Nordvig, 2024-04-11 Ancestral North Spirituality and Cultural Imagination in Nordic Ritual Folk Music offers a detailed exploration of Nordic ritual folk music a music scene focused on the revival of ancient folkways and archaic music that has found remarkable popularity around the globe Once the domain of Viking reenactors and neopagan practitioners the niche sonic and visual aesthetics of this music have found widespread visibility through a new generation of popular films television series and video games The authors argue that many of these musical and media products connect with longstanding cultural attitudes about the Nordic region that conceive of it as wild exotic and dangerous while also being a place of honor community and virtue As such the Nordic region and its music often becomes a vessel for reactionary escapes from all manner of modern discontentment However the authors also posit that spending time re creating the music of an imaginary past offers participants the possibility for engagement and re enchantment in the multicultural present

The Farthest Place Bernd Herzogenrath, 2012 The first critical anthology of an important and singular contemporary composer

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Music and Art Sarah Mahler Kraaz, Charlotte de Mille, 2023-10-05 This volume brings together prominent scholars artists composers and directors to present the latest interdisciplinary ideas and projects in the fields of art history musicology and multi media practice Organized around ways of perceiving experiencing and creating the book outlines the state of the field through cutting edge research case studies For example how does art music practice thinking communicate activist activities How do socio economic and environmental problems affect access to heritage How do contemporary practitioners interpret past works and what global concerns stimulate new works In each instance examples of cross or inter media works are not thought of in isolation but in a global historical context that shows our cultural existence to be complex conflicted and entwined For the first time cross disciplinary collaborations in ethnomusicology anthropology ecomusicology ecoart ecomuseology and digital humanities for art history musicology and practice are prioritized in one volume

The Place Where You Go to Listen John Luther Adams, 2012-01-01 Did Alaska create the music of John Luther Adams or did the music create his Alaska For the past thirty years the vastness of Alaska has swept through the distant reaches of the composer's imagination and every corner of his compositions In this new book Adams proposes an ideal of musical ecology the philosophical foundation on which his largest most complex musical work is based This installation also called The Place Where You Go to Listen is a sound and light environment that gives voice to the cycles of sunlight and darkness the phases of the moon the seismic rhythms of the earth and the dance of the aurora borealis Adams describes this work as a place for hearing the unheard music of the world around us The book includes two seminal essays the composer's journal telling the story of the day to day emergence of The Place as well as musical notations graphs and illustrations of geophysical phenomena

The Cambridge History of the American

Essay Christy Wampole, Jason Childs, 2023-12-14 From the country's beginning essayists in the United States have used their prose to articulate the many ways their individuality has been shaped by the politics, social life, and culture of this place. The Cambridge History of the American Essay offers the fullest account to date of this diverse and complex history. From Puritan writings to essays by Indigenous authors, from Transcendentalist and Pragmatist texts to Harlem Renaissance essays, from New Criticism to New Journalism, the story of the American essay is told here, beginning in the early eighteenth century and ending with the vibrant heterogeneous scene of contemporary essayistic writing. The essay in the US has taken many forms: nature writing, travel writing, the genteel tradition, literary criticism, hybrid genres such as the essay film and the photo essay. Across genres and identities, this volume offers a stirring account of American essayism into the twenty-first century.

Musical Vitalities Holly Watkins, 2018-11-21 Does it make sense to refer to bird song as a complex vocalization full of repetitive and transformative patterns that are carefully calculated to woo a mate as art? What about a pack of wolves howling in unison or the cacophony made by an entire rain forest? Redefining music as the art of possibly animate things, Musical Vitalities charts a new path for music studies that blends musicological methods with perspectives drawn from the life sciences. In opposition to humanist approaches that insist on a separation between culture and nature, approaches that appear increasingly untenable in an era defined by human-generated climate change, Musical Vitalities treats music as one example of the cultural practices and biotic arts of the animal kingdom rather than as a phenomenon categorically distinct from nonhuman forms of sonic expression. The book challenges the human exceptionalism that has allowed musicologists to overlook music's structural resemblances to the songs of nonhuman species, the intricacies of music's physiological impact on listeners, and the many analogues between music's formal processes and those of the dynamic natural world. Through close readings of Austro-German music and aesthetic writings that suggest wide-ranging analogies between music and nature, Musical Vitalities seeks to both rekindle the critical potential of nineteenth-century music and rejoin the humans at the center of the humanities with the nonhumans whose evolutionary endowments and planetary fates they share.

Musicology: The Key Concepts David Beard, Kenneth Gloag, 2016-01-22 Now in an updated 2nd edition, Musicology: The Key Concepts is a handy A-Z reference guide to the terms and concepts associated with contemporary musicology. Drawing on critical theory with a focus on new musicology, this updated edition contains over 35 new entries, including Autobiography, Music and Conflict, Deconstruction, Postcolonialism, Disability, Music after 9/11, Masculinity, Gay Musicology, Aesthetics, Ethnicity, Interpretation, Subjectivity. With all entries updated and suggestions for further reading throughout, this text is an essential resource for all students of music, musicology, and wider performance-related humanities disciplines. Canada and the Idea of North Sherrill E. Grace, 2002-04-15 Canada and the Idea of North examines the ways in which Canadians have defined themselves as a northern people in their literature, art, music, drama, history, geography, politics, and popular culture. From the Franklin Mystery to the comic book superheroine Nelvana, Glenn Gould's documentaries, the paintings of Lawren

Harris and Molson beer ads the idea of the north has been central to the Canadian imagination Sherrill Grace argues that Canadians have always used ideas of Canada as North to promote a distinct national identity and national unity In a penultimate chapter The North Writes Back Grace presents newly emerging northern voices and shows how they view the long tradition of representing the North by southern activists artists and scholars With the recent creation of Nunavut increasing concern about northern ecosystems and social challenges and renewed attention to Canada's role as a circumpolar nation Canada and the Idea of North shows that nordicity still plays an urgent and central role in Canada at the start of the twenty first century

The Routledge Companion to Landscape Studies Peter Howard, Ian Thompson, Emma Waterton, Mick Atha, 2013-02-15 Landscape is a vital synergistic concept which opens up ways of thinking about many of the problems which beset our contemporary world such as climate change social alienation environmental degradation loss of biodiversity and destruction of heritage As a concept landscape does not respect disciplinary boundaries Indeed many academic disciplines have found the concept so important it has been used as a qualifier that delineates whole sub disciplines landscape ecology landscape planning landscape archaeology and so forth In other cases landscape studies progress under a broader banner such as heritage studies or cultural geography Yet it does not always mean the same thing in all of these contexts The Routledge Companion to Landscape Studies offers the first comprehensive attempt to explore research directions into the many uses and meanings of landscape The Companion contains thirty nine original contributions from leading scholars within the field which have been divided into four parts Experiencing Landscape Landscape Culture and Heritage Landscape Society and Justice and Design and Planning for Landscape Topics covered range from phenomenological approaches to landscape to the consideration of landscape as a repository of human culture from ideas of identity and belonging to issues of power and hegemony and from discussions of participatory planning and design to the call for new imaginaries in a time of global and environmental crisis Each contribution explores the future development of different conceptual and theoretical approaches as well as recent empirical contributions to knowledge and understanding Collectively they encourage dialogue across disciplinary barriers and reflection upon the implications of research findings for local national and international policy in relation to landscape This Companion provides up to date critical reviews of state of the art perspectives across this multifaceted field embracing disciplines such as anthropology archaeology cultural studies geography landscape planning landscape architecture countryside management forestry heritage studies ecology and fine art It serves as an invaluable point of reference for scholars researchers and graduate students alike engaging in the field of landscape studies
