Arya-samdhinirmocana-nama-mahayana-sutra, 1995 This is the Elucidation of the Intention Sutra or the Sutra Unravelling the Thought of the Buddha The Third Turning of the Wheel Tenshin Reb Anderson, 2016-08-01 In his previous book Being Upright Zen Meditation and the Bodhisattva Precepts Reb Anderson Roshi described how we must become thoroughly grounded in conventional truth through the practice of compassion before we can receive the teachings of the ultimate truth In The Third Turning of the Wheel he introduces us to the next stage of our journey by invoking the wisdom of the Samdhinirmocana Sutra According to Anderson the main purpose behind this enigmatic sutra is to reconcile the apparent contradictions between the original teachings of the historical Buddha and the later teachings of Mahayana Buddhism Anderson reflects on the great metaphysical questions proposed in the Samdhinirmocana Sutra the nature of ultimate reality the structure of human consciousness the characteristics of phenomena the stages of meditation and the essential qualities of a buddha with the clarity of a scholar and the insight of a practitioner Emptiness in the Mind-Only School of Buddhism Jeffrey Hopkins, 2003-03-15 This is a scholarly tour de force the likes of which are rarely seen in the academy Jos Ignacio Cabezon Illif School of Theology An exceptionally clear and detailed account of a central debate in Tibetan Buddhist scholastic philosophy Matthew Kapstein University of Chicago This is without question the finest and most complete discussion of the renowned Mind Only school and its Tibetan context Anne C Klein author of Knowledge Liberation Path to the Middle An important new contribution to our understanding of the development of Buddhist philosophical thought in Tibet Matthew T Kapstein author of The Tibetan Assimilation of Buddhism Conversion Contestation and Memory The Journal of the International Association of Buddhist Studies International Association of Buddhist Studies, 1996

The Philosophy of Buddhism Erich Frauwallner, 2010 This translation first published in 1956 opens up a classic introduction to Buddhist thought to a broader English language readership The book covers the period of early canonical literature with examples of its philosophically relevant ideas followed by the principal philosophical concepts of systematic Sravakayana Buddhism In the main part of the book Frauwallner presents the first survey of the development of the philosophical systems of Mahayana Buddhism He was well aware of the limitations in presenting only the Buddhist philosophy of the classical i.e. the systematic period and does not seem to have been ready to add the philosophically creative new post systematic tradition of Buddhist epistemology and logic a major subject of his research in subsequent years

Frauwallner's way of translating was straight forward to remain as close as possible to the original text. For technical terms in the source materials he maintained a single translation even when various meanings were suggested. For clarity regarding such variations of meaning he relied on the context and his explanation. The same approach was taken by the translator of the present book. However he has inserted helpful additional headlines into the text and considerably enlarged the index. All other additions by the translator are given within square brackets.

The Bodhisattva Path to Unsurpassed Enlightenment

Asanga, 2016-03-08
rya Asanga's Bodhisattvabhūmi or The Stage of a Bodhisattva is the Mahāyāna tradition's most comprehensive manual on the practice and training of bodhisattvas by the author's own account, a compilation of the full range of instructions contained in the entire collection of Mahāyāna sūtras. A classic work of the Yogācāra school, it has been cherished in Tibet by all the historical Buddhist lineages as a primary source of instruction on bodhisattva ethics, vows and practices as well as for its summary of the ultimate goal of the bodhisattva path, supreme enlightenment. Despite the text's seminal importance in the Tibetan traditions, it has remained unavailable in English except in fragments. Engle's translation, made from the Sanskrit original with reference to the Tibetan translation and commentaries, will enable English readers to understand more fully and clearly what it means to be a bodhisattva and practitioner of the Mahāyāna tradition.

Yogacara Texts: Indo-Tibetan Sources of Dzogchen Mahamudra
Rodney Devenish, 2013-09-24
The Yogacara Doctrine teaches one fundamental truth, namely that all beings are Buddha-sattva, Buddha-evaṃ, or in other words, all beings are aspects of one all-embracing absolute awareness, were they but to know it. This book sets a context for the study and meditation on ten pivotal texts of Yogacara. The source texts translated from a practice perspective derive from the Indo-Tibetan mahāsiddha tradition and are presented with an ecumenical approach. As this collection of pithy Yogacara works will readily prove to the reader, the ancient Practice Tradition of the Yogin rnal bhyor pa'i sgrub brgyud is based on a clearly active realization of the essential nature of mind and consciousness, gained through years of intensive examination and reflection. Yogacara approach advocates a dynamic form of meditation that is neither suppressive nor lethargic. The guide to this attainment, the mechanism that sharpens the mind's penetrative and illuminative qualities, is metaphysical inquiry.

Reflections on Reality Jeffrey

Hopkins, 2007-01-01
This is the second volume in Jeffrey Hopkins' valuable series on the Mind Only School of Buddhism and a focal description of it in Dzongka-ba's The Essence of Eloquence. Dzongka-ba (1357-1419) is generally regarded as one of the greatest Tibetan philosophers, and his Mind Only discourse on emptiness is considered a landmark in Buddhist philosophy. In Volume I, Emptiness in the Mind Only School of Buddhism, Hopkins provided a translation of the introduction and the section on the Mind Only School in The Essence of Eloquence. The present volume places this enigmatic and influential exposition in its historical and philosophical contexts. Reflections on Reality conveys the intellectual vibrancy of the different cultural interpretations of this text and expands the key philosophical issues it addresses. Hopkins, one of the leading scholarly voices in Tibetan studies, begins this volume with two introductory chapters contextualizing Tibetan scholarship in general. He then goes on to discuss in detail the religious significance of the central topic of the three natures in the Mind Only School. He also considers various views on the status of reality including the doctrine of other emptiness promulgated by the fourteenth century Jo nang savant Shay rap gyel tsen. Presenting accurate and insightful translations of a large amount of material that has never been available in English before, he shows how these topics have been debated among scholars in Tibet over six centuries. Comparing these with presentations in Europe, Japan and the United States today, he created a lively conversation between normally disparate voices.
