The disciples had been with Christ and seen Him pray They had learnt to understand something of the connection between His wondrous life in public and His secret life of prayer They had learnt to believe in Him as a Master in the art of prayer none could pray like Him And so they came to Him with the request Lord teach us to pray And in after years they would have told us that there were few things more wonderful or blessed that He taught them than His lessons on prayer And now still it comes to pass as He is praying in a certain place that disciples who see Him thus engaged feel the need of repeating the same request Lord teach us to pray As we grow in the Christian life the thought and the faith of the Beloved Master in His never failing intercession becomes ever more precious and the hope of being Like Christ in His intercession gains an attractiveness before unknown And as we see Him pray and remember that there is none who can pray like Him and none who can teach like Him we feel the petition of the disciples Lord teach us to pray is just what we need And as we think how all He is and has how He Himself is our very own how He is Himself our life we feel assured that we have but to ask and He will be delighted to take us up into closer fellowship with Himself and teach us to pray even as He prays

With Christ in the School of Prayer (Updated) Kathie Baxter, Andrew Murray, 2016-12-09 In this book Andrew Murray skillfully takes us into Jesus' school of prayer The book was written over a hundred years ago but because it is completely biblical it is also completely timeless However to make the truths that it contains more accessible the book's original language has been updated to make it more clearly understood by modern readers Here is an excerpt The Father waits to hear every prayer of faith to give us what we determine and what we ask in Jesus name We have become so accustomed to limit the wonderful love and the large promises of our God that we cannot read the simplest and clearest statements of our Lord without the qualifying clauses by which we hedge them in and explain them away If there is one thing I think the church needs to learn it is that God intends for prayer to be answered and that it has never entered the human mind what God will do for his child who devotes himself to believe that his prayer will be heard God hears prayer This is a universally acknowledged truth But very few understand the meaning or experience the power of it If what I have written stirs my readers to read Jesus words and take his amazing promises simply and literally as they are written my objective will have been achieved The book is written in 31 short chapters making it perfect to use as devotional material
