Woman Hollering Creek And Other:

Woman Hollering Creek Sandra Cisneros, 2013-04-30 A collection of stories by Sandra Cisneros the celebrated bestselling author of The House on Mango Street and the winner of the 2019 PEN Nabokov Award for Achievement in International Literature The lovingly drawn characters of these stories give voice to the vibrant and varied life on both sides of the Mexican border with tales of pure discovery filled with moments of infinite and intimate wisdom Voice Lessons Nancy Dean, 2000 Prepare your high school students for AP IB and other standardized tests that demand an understanding of the subtle elements that comprise an author's unique voice Each of the 100 sharply focused historically and culturally diverse passages from world literature targets a specific component of voice presenting the elements in short manageable exercises that function well as class openers Includes teacher notes and discussion suggestions Woman Hollering Creek and

Other Stories Sandra Cisneros, 1992 From the author of the widely acclaimed The House on Mango Street comes a story collection of breathtaking range and authority whose characters give voice to the vibrant and varied life on both sides of the Mexican border The women in these stories offer tales of pure discovery filled with moments of infinite and intimate wisdom

Reading Spiritualities Dawn Llewellyn, 2016-04-01 The phenomenon of sacred text has undergone radical deconstruction in recent times reflecting how religion has broken out of its traditional definitions and practices and how current literary theories have influenced texts inside the religious domain and beyond Reading Spiritualities presents both commentary and vivid examples of this evolution engaging with a variety of reading practices that work with traditional texts and those that extend the notion of text itself The contributors draw on a range of textual sites such as an interview Caribbean literature drama and jazz women's writings emerging church blogs Neopagan websites the reading practices of Buddhist nuns empirical studies on the reading experiences of Gujarati Christian and post Christian women Chicana short stories the mosque cinema modern art and literature These examples open up understandings of where and how sacred texts are emerging and being reassessed within contemporary religious and spiritual contexts and make room for readings where the spiritual resides not only in the textual but in other unexpected places Reading Spiritualities includes contributions from Graham Holderness Ursula King Michael N Jagessar David Jasper Anthony G Reddie Michelle Roberts and Heather Walton to reflect and encourage the interdisciplinary study of sacred text in the broad arena of the arts and social sciences It offers a unique and well focused snapshot of the textual constructions and representations of the sacred within the contemporary religious climate accessible to the general reader as well as more specialist interests of students and researchers working in the crossover fields of religious theological cultural and literary studies Ay Tú! Sonia Saldívar-Hull, Geneva M.

Gano, 2024-10-22 A comprehensive volume on the life and work of renowned Chicana author Sandra Cisneros Sandra Cisneros b 1954 author of the acclaimed novel The House on Mango Street and a recipient of the National Medal of the Arts a MacArthur Genius Grant and the PEN Nabokov Award for International Literature was the first Chicana to be published by a major publishing house Ay T is the first book to offer a comprehensive critical examination of her life and work as a whole Edited by scholars Sonia Sald var Hull and Geneva M Gano this volume addresses themes that pervade Cisneros s oeuvre like romantic and erotic love female friendship sexual abuse and harassment the exoticization of the racial and ethnic other and the role of visual arts in the lives of everyday people Essays draw extensively on the newly opened Cisneros Papers housed in the Wittliff Collections at Texas State University and the volume concludes with a new long form interview with Cisneros by the award winning journalist Macarena Hern ndez As these essays reveal Cisneros s success in the literary field was integrally connected to the emergent Chicana feminist movement and the rapidly expanding Chicanx literary field of the late twentieth century This collection shows that Cisneros didn t achieve her groundbreaking successes in isolation and situates her as a vital Chicana feminist writer and artist

Handbook of the American Short Story Erik Redling, Oliver Scheiding, 2022-01-19 The American short story has always been characterized by exciting aesthetic innovations and an immense range of topics This handbook offers students and researchers a comprehensive introduction to the multifaceted genre with a special focus on recent developments due to the rise of new media Part I provides systematic overviews of significant contexts ranging from historical political backgrounds short story theories developed by writers print and digital culture to current theoretical approaches and canon formation Part II consists of 35 paired readings of representative short stories by eminent authors charting major steps in the evolution of the American short story from its beginnings as an art form in the early nineteenth century up to the digital age The handbook examines historically methodologically and theoretically the coming together of the enduring narrative practice of compression and concision in American literature It offers fresh and original readings relevant to studying the American short story and shows how the genre performs American culture

Ethnicity and the American Short Story Julie Brown, 2013-05-13 How do different ethnic groups approach the short story form Do different groups develop culture related themes Do oral traditions within a particular culture shape the way in which written stories are told Why does the community loom so large in ethnic stories How do such traditional forms as African American slave narratives or the Chinese talk story shape the modern short story Which writers of color should be added to the canon Why have some minority writers been ignored for such a long time How does a person of color write for white publishers editors and readers Each essay in this collection of original studies addresses these questions and other related concerns It is common knowledge that most scholarly work on the short story has been on white writers This collection is the first work to specifically focus on short story practice by ethnic minorities in America ranging from African Americans to Native Americans Chinese Americans to Hispanic Americans The number of women writers discussed will be of particular interest to women studies and genre studies researchers and the collections will be of vital interest to scholars working in American literature narrative theory and multicultural studies

Folklore, Literature, and Cultural Theory Cathy L. Preston, 2014-06-23 First published in 1996 The need to write particularly in pre technological recording days in order to preserve and to analyze lies at the heart of folklore and yet to write means to change the medium in which much folk communication and art actually took and takes place In Part I of the collection the contributors address literary constructions of traditional and emergent cultures those of Leslie Marmon Silko Sandra Cisneros Pat Mora Carmen Tafolla Julio Cortázar Milan Kundera Franz Kafka Philip Roth Thomas Hardy and Dacia Maraini The contributors to Part II of the collection offer readings of a variety of traditional vernacular and local performances Sandra Cisneros's Woman Hollering Creek, 2010-01-01 This addition to Rodopi Press's Dialogue Series presents a collection of essays solely dedicated to Woman Hollering Creek 1991 Sandra Cisneros's groundbreaking collection of short fiction stories and sketches The emerging and veteran scholars who have contributed to this text approach Cisneros's work from varied perspectives including negotiation of geographic and sociocultural borders popular and material culture and gender portrayals Author dialogues in which the scholars comment upon each other's research constitute a unique innovative feature of this particular volume This book will be of interest to those engaged in Chicano/a literature and feminist gender studies as well as instructors of literary critical analysis Poetry and Story Therapy Geri Giebel Chavis, 2011-08-15 This accessible book explores the therapeutic possibilities of poetry and stories providing techniques for facilitating personally relevant and growth enhancing sessions The author provides ideas for writing activities that emerge from this discussion and explains how participants can create their own poetic and narrative pieces
