Evaluative Constructions in Italian Sign Language (LIS) Elena Fornasiero, 2023-09-18 The domain of evaluative morphology is vast and complex as it requires the combination of morphological semantic and pragmatic information to be understood Nevertheless cross linguistic studies on spoken languages show that languages share some patterns in the way they encode evaluative features It follows that investigating evaluative morphology in sign languages SLs can enrich the literature and offer new insights This book provides descriptive and theoretical contributions by considering Italian Sign Language LIS as empirical ground of investigation At the descriptive level the analysis of corpus and elicited data improves the description of morphological processes in LIS as well as typological studies on evaluative morphology by adding the patterns of a visuo gestural language At the theoretical level the study shows the benefit of combining different approaches Generative Linguistics Linguistic Typology Cognitive Linguistics for the exploration of evaluative constructions in SLs as it allows to identify both modality specific and modality independent properties In sum this book encourages the readers to rely on different data types analyses and theoretical perspectives to investigate linguistic phenomena in SLs
