Writing Across Cultures Narrative Transculturation In Latin America Latin America Otherwise:

Writing Across Cultures Angel Rama, 2012-05-29 Angel Rama was one of twentieth century Latin America's most distinguished men of letters. Writing across Cultures is his comprehensive analysis of the varied sources of Latin American literature. Originally published in 1982, the book links Rama's work on Spanish American modernism with his arguments about the innovative nature of regionalist literature and it foregrounds his thinking about the close relationship between literary movements such as modernism or regionalism and global trends in social and economic development. In Writing across Cultures, Rama extends the Cuban anthropologist Fernando Ortiz's theory of transculturation far beyond Cuba, bringing it to bear on regional cultures across Latin America where new cultural arrangements have been forming among indigenous, African, and European societies for the better part of five centuries. Rama applies this concept to the work of the Peruvian novelist, poet, and anthropologist José María Arguedas, whose writing drew on both Spanish and Quechua, Peru's two major languages, and by extension, cultures. Rama considered Arguedas's novel Los ríos profundos (Deep Rivers) to be the most accomplished example of narrative transculturation in Latin America. Writing across Cultures is the second of Rama's books to be translated into English.

Mexican Literature as World Literature Ignacio M. Sánchez Prado, 2021-09-09 Honorable Mention from the 2022 International Latino Book Awards for Best Nonfiction Multi Author Chapter 15 by Carolyn Fornoff is Winner of the 2022 Best Article in the Humanities Award. Latin American Studies Association, Mexico. Mexican Literature as World Literature is a landmark collection that for the first time studies the major interventions of Mexican literature of all genres in world literary circuits from the 16th century forward. This collection features a range of essays in dialogue with major theorists and critics of the concept of world literature. Authors show how the arrival of Spanish conquerors and priests, the work of enlightenment naturalists, the rise of Mexican academies, the culture of the Mexican Revolution, and Mexican neoliberalism have played major roles in the formation of world literary structures. The book features major scholars in Mexican literary studies engaging in the ways in which modernism, counterculture, and extinction have been essential to Mexico's world literary pursuit as well as studies of the work of some of Mexico's most important authors: Sor Juana, Carlos Fuentes, Octavio Paz, and Juan Rulfo, among others. These essays expand and enrich the understanding of Mexican literature as world literature, showing the many significant ways in which Mexico has been a center for world literary circuits.

Interstices Alexander Alberro, 2025-06-17 An exploration of innovative practices flourishing at the margins of Western art. With this book, Alexander Alberro engages decolonial theory to explore the dynamic exchanges that occur where the ideals and values of different artistic frameworks meet. Resisting notions of a singular art world and global contemporary art, Alberro explores what lies outside of Western art's hegemonic presence, recognizing the rich multitude of art formations at its periphery, each with its own artistic narratives and conventions. Alberro brings into focus the complex negotiations that are cultivating innovation and transformation at the margins of Western art, showing how this seemingly monolithic framework is both crucial to and insufficient for a comprehensive understanding of contemporary art. His examples include artists and collectives from around the world, including Iosu Aramburu, Subhankar Banerjee, Yto Barrada, Mabe Beth nico, El Colectivo Maria Galindo, and Mujeres Creando. Bouchra Khalili, Multiplicity, Lucy Orta, Raqs Media Collective, Tracey Rose, Doris Salcedo, Yinka Shonibare, World of Matter, and Yin Xiuzhen. As notions of transculturation and decoloniality continue to drive conversations about contemporary art, Interstices offers a critical explanation of what is at stake, showing how the tensions at the edges of the Western art framework are pushing it toward its discursive limits.

Between Two Waters Silvia Spitta, 1995 Between Two Waters expands upon existing studies of transculturation. Spitta not only introduces the question of gender into the debate but also brings together previously disconnected media: the chronicles of the New World, the writings of the extirpators of idolatries in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, the paintings of the Cuzco School, and contemporary U.S. Latino narratives. Between Two Waters brings English language readers into the post-colonial debate at the heart of Latin American literary criticism.

Latin American Narratives and Cultural Identity Irene Maria Blayer, Mark Cronlund Anderson, 2004 This book presents a selection of fourteen provocative and unique essays bringing together the views of exciting new scholarship on narratives and cultural identity in Latin America. In so doing, it balances theory, methodology, and description. The offerings in this volume deliver a clarion mix of original voices and cutting-edge approaches to the exploration of the topics, which reflect diverse perspectives on Latin American culture and literature. The contributions feature analyses of Latin American oral tradition, cultural identity, memory construction, storytelling, literary truth claims, myth, autobiography, cultural policy, and history, folk art, and cinema.

Decolonial Approaches to Latin American Literatures and Cultures Juan G. Ramos, Tara Daly, 2016-09-21 Decolonial Approaches to Latin American Literatures and Cultures engages and problematizes concepts such as decolonial and coloniality to question methodologies in literary and cultural scholarship. While the eleven contributions produce diverse approaches to literary and cultural texts ranging from Pre Columbian to contemporary works there is a collective questioning of the very idea of Latin America what Latin American contains or leaves out and the various practices and locations constituting Latinamericanism This transdisciplinary study aims to open an evolving corpus of decolonial scholarship providing a unique entry point into the literature and material culture produced from precolonial to contemporary times The Other Writing Djelal Kadir,1993 Fully conversant with the critical issues of the current cultural debates Djelal Kadir goes to great pains to articulate and exercise the scruples with which critical reading and cultured scrutiny might proceed without unduly compromising otherness or capitulating the congeniality of reading and writing as civilizing activities The Art of Transition Francine Masiello,2001-09-21 Addresses the problems defined by practitioners of literary and visual culture in the post dictatorship years in Chile and Argentina Literary Transculturation in Latin America Silvia Spitta,1989 Latin American Postmodernisms ,2023-11-27 The first essays in this volume locate Latin America within the postmodernism debate by addressing both its position in the theory of the postmodern and the peripheral existence of the continent in light of the globalizing practices of the contemporary world The next essays focus on the Caribbean and elements of the formation of identity and culture in a group of societies belonging to the same geographic region but confronted with the idiosyncrasies of their colonial histories the problematics of race and language and their relation to the politics and cultures of metropolitan powers There are three essays concerned with re readings of the first encounters between Europe and America and discussions of more recent fictional representations of the past which attempt to recover the lost Amerindian Other of the Conquest and Colonization and to reveal the constructedness of History Finally preceded by two texts on ways of reading and writing in Latin America the final four essays are concerned with challenges to the discourses of power by Latin American women who re define the subject and counter the established hegemonies of religion culture and social structure both in their writing and political actions As a collection of essays this volume will appeal to readers who are interested in Post modernism as a global phenomenon and in understanding the different forms it takes and the issues it addresses in different cultural environments The Latin American Urban Crónica Esperança Bielsa,2006 The Latin American Urban Crónica explores the fluid relationship between high and low culture in Latin America Paying attention to the peculiar development of the cultural fields in Latin America and to the consequences of present processes of globalization Esperança Bielsa examines the contemporary crónica in Mexico City and Guayaquil and its role in representing unofficial culture in its widest sense This unique work is the product of the study of numerous texts and interviews with the main writers of crónica and also incorporates extensive research on reception Essentially interdisciplinary in its approach The Latin American Urban Crónica is one of the very few publications about this fascinating and understudied mixed genre of the area between journalism and literature and the first to systematically situate the Latin American crónica within social and cultural theory Cultural and Literary Dialogues Between Asia and Latin America Axel Gasquet,Gorica Majstorovic,2021-02-03 This book brings together a group of leading and emerging scholars on the history of cultural and literary interactions between Asia and Latin America Through a number of interlinked case studies contributors examine how different forms of Asia Latin America dialogues are embedded in various national and local contexts The volume is divided in four parts 1 Asian hybrid identities and Latin American transnational narratives 2 translations and reception of Latin American narratives in Asia 3 diffracted worlds of Nikkei identities and 4 interweaving of Asian and Latin American narratives and travel chronicles Through the lens of modern globality and Transpacific Studies the contributions inaugurate a perspective that has until recently been neglected by Asian and Latin American cultural studies while offering an incisive theoretical discussion and detailed textual analysis

Autobiographical Writing in Latin America Sergio R. Franco, 2017 This study examines the diversity of narrative strategies utilized by these authors to design their written life not only with respect to the future that is to history but rather in terms of their own present deliberately inserting themselves into their societies

Latin American Documentary Narratives Liliana Chávez Díaz, 2021-11-04 Winner of the Victor Villaseor Best Latino Focused Nonfiction Book Award English from the 2022 International Latino Book Awards What defines the boundary between fact and fabrication fiction and nonfiction literature and journalism Latin American Documentary Narratives unpacks the precarious testimonial relationship between author and subject where the literary journalist rather than the subject being interviewed can become the hero of a narrative in its recording and retelling Latin American Documentary Narratives covers a variety of nonfiction genres from the 1950s to the 2000s that address topics such as social protests dictatorships natural disasters crime and migration in Latin America This book analyzes and includes an appendix of interviews with authors who have not previously been critically read together from the early and emblematic works of Gabriel García Márquez and Elena Poniatowska to more recent authors like Leila Guerriero and Juan Villoro who are currently reshaping media and audiences in Latin America In a world overwhelmed by data production and marked by violent acts against those considered others Liliana Chávez Díaz argues that storytelling plays an essential role in communication among individuals classes and cultures

Mestizo Nations Juan E. De Castro, 2022-08-30 Nationality in Latin America has long been entwined with questions of racial identity Just as American born colonial elites grounded their struggle for independence from Spain and Portugal in the history of Amerindian resistance constructions of nationality were based on the notion of the fusion of populations heterogeneous in culture race and language But this rhetorical celebration of difference was framed by a real life pressure to assimilate into cultures always defined by Iberian American elites In Mestizo Nations Juan De Castro explores the construction of nationality in Latin American and Chicano literature and thought during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Focusing on the discourse of mestizaje which proposes the creation of a homogenous culture out of American Indian black and Iberian elements he examines a selection of texts that represent the entire history and regional landscape of Latin American culture in its Western indigenous and neo African traditions from Independence to the present Through them he delineates some of the ambiguities and contradictions that have beset this discourse Among texts considered are the Indianist novel Iracema by the nineteenth century Brazilian author Jos de Alencar the Tradiciones peruanas Peruvian Ricardo Palma s fictionalizations of national difference and historical and sociological essays by the Peruvian Marxist Jos Carlos Mari tegui and the Brazilian intellectual Gilberto Freyre And because questions raised by this discourse are equally relevant to postmodern concerns with national and transnational heterogeneity De Castro also analyzes such recent examples as the Cuban dance band Los Van Van s use of Afrocentric lyrics Richard Rodriguez s interpretations of North American reality and points of contact and divergence between Jos Mar a Arguedas s novel The Fox from Up Above and the Fox from Down Below and writings of Gloria Anzald a and Julia Kristeva By updating the concept of mestizaje as a critical tool for analyzing literary text and cultural trends incorporating not only race culture and nationality but also gender language and politics De Castro shows the implications of this Latin American discursive tradition for current critical debates in cultural and area studies Mestizo Nations contains important insights for all Latin Americanists as a tool for understanding racial relations and cultural hybridization creating not only an important commentary on Latin America but also a critique of American life in the age of multiculturalism

Alternate Voices in the Contemporary Latin American Narrative David William Foster,1985 The chapters in this volume are contributions toward a reassessment of contemporary Latin American writing and are based on the strategy of willfully imposing a perspective at radical variance with the existing bibliography on the subject By eschewing the approach of a historical overview by focusing on works that are not predominantly available in English translation by choosing categories that do not evoke prevailing literary norms and by concentrating on writings that rashly juxtapose well known works with relatively unknown ones the author hopes both to suggest a more comprehensive although necessarily fragmentary panorama of Latin American fiction and to suggest a consideration of works on the basis of criteria other than their international stature or the extent to which they represent Spanish language variations on modalities whose importance has been established by French or American example

Myth and Archive Roberto González Echevarría,1998 Discusses the theory of the origin and evolution of the Latin American narrative and the emergence of the modern novel

Other Americans Matthew Bush,2022-10-04 Grounded in perspectives of affect theory Other Americans examines the writings of Roberto Bola o and Daniel Alarc n films by Alfonso Cuar n Claudia Llosa Matt Piedmont and Joel and Ethan Coen as well as the Netflix serials Narcos and El marginal These widely consumed works about Latin America equally balanced between narratives produced in the United States and in the region itself are laden with fear anxiety and shame which has an impact that exceeds the experience of reception The negative feelings encoded in visions of Latin America become common coinage for US audiences shaping their ideological relationship with the region and performing an affective interpellation By analyzing the underlying melodramatic structures of these works that would portray Latin America as an implicit other Bush examines a process of affective comprehension that foment an us them or north south binary in the reception of Latin
