Writing In Hope And Fear Literature As Politics In Postwar Australia:

Writing in Hope and Fear John McLaren, 1996 A compelling critical and historical account of politics in postwar Australian literary culture Australian Literature in the German Democratic Republic Nicole Moore, Christina Spittel, 2016-06-19 An account of fraught and complex cross cultural literary exchange between two highly distinct even uniquely opposed reading contexts Australian Literature in the German Democratic Republic has resonance for all newly global reckonings of the cultural Cold War Working from the extraordinary records of the East German publishing and censorship regime the authors materially track the production and reception of one country's corpus as envisioned by another The 90 Australian titles published in the GDR form an alternative canon revealing a shadowy literary archive that rewrites Australia's postwar cultural history from behind the iron curtain and illuminates multiple ironies for the GDR as a reading nation This book brings together leading German and Australian scholars in the fields of book history German and Australian cultural history Australian and postcolonial literatures and postcolonial and cross cultural theory with emerging writers currently navigating between the two cultures Literary Location and Dislocation of Myth in the Post/Colonial Anglophone World , 2017-11-01 The English speaking world today is so diverse that readers need a gateway to its many postcolonial narratives and art forms This collection of essays examines this diversity and what brings so many different cultures together Whether Indian Canadian Australasian or Zimbabwean the stories discussed focus on how artists render experiences of separation belonging and loss The histories and transformations postcolonial countries have gone through have given rise to a wide range of myths that retrace their birth evolution and decline Myths have enabled ethnic communities to live together the first section of this collection dwells on stories which can be both inclusive and exclusive under the aegis of nation While certain essays revisit and retell the crucial role women have played in mythical texts like the Mahabharata others discuss how settler colonies return to and reappropriate a past in order to define themselves in the present Crises clashes and conflicts which are at the heart of the second section of this book entail myths of historical and cultural dislocation They appear as breaks in time that call for reconstruction and redefinition a chief instance being the trauma of slavery with its deep geographical and cultural dislocations However the crises that have deprived entire communities of their homeland and their identity are followed by moments of remembrance reconciliation and rebuilding As the term postcolonial suggests the formerly colonized people seek to revisit and reinvestigate the impact of colonization before committing it to collective memory In a more specifically literary section texts are read as mythopoeia foregrounding the aesthetic and poetic issues in colonial and postcolonial poems and novels The texts explored here study in different ways the process of mythologization through images of location and dislocation The editors of this collection hope that readers worldwide will enjoy reading about the myths that have shaped and continue to shape postcolonial communities and nations CONTRIBUTORS Elara Bertho Dnlaith Bird Marie Christine Blin Jaine Chemmachery Andr Dodeman Biljana ori Francuski Fr oise Storey Jeff Storey Christine Vandamme Middlebrow Modernism Melinda J. Cooper, 2022-10-01 Eleanor Dark 1901 85 is one of Australia s most innovative 20th century writers Her extensive oeuvre includes ten novels published from the early 1930s to the late 1950s and represents a significant engagement with global modernity from a unique position within settler culture Yet Dark s contribution to 20th century literature has been undervalued in the fields of both Australian literary studies and world literature Although two biographies have been written about her life there has been no book length critical study of her writing published since 1976 Middlebrow Modernism counters this neglect by providing the first full length critical survey of Eleanor Dark s writing to be published in over four decades Focusing on the fiction that Dark produced during the interwar years and reading this in the context of her larger body of work this book positions Dark s writing as important to the study of Australian literature and global modernism Melinda Cooper argues that Dark s fiction exhibits a distinctive aesthetic of middlebrow modernism which blends attributes of literary modernism with popular fiction It seeks to mediate and reconcile apparent binaries modernism and mass culture liberal humanism and experimental aesthetics settler society and international modernity The term middlebrow modernism also captures the way Dark negotiated cosmopolitan commitments with more place based attachments to nation and local community within the mid 20th century Middlebrow Modernism posits that Dark s fiction and the broader phenomenon of Australian modernism offer essential case studies for larger debates operating within global modernist and world literature studies providing perspectives these fields might otherwise miss Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing Kelly Boyd, 2019-10-09 The Encyclopedia of Historians and Historical Writing contains over 800 entries ranging from Lord Acton and Anna Comnena to Howard Zinn and from Herodotus to Simon Schama Over 300 contributors from around the world have composed critical assessments of historians from the beginning of historical writing to the present day including individuals from related disciplines like J rgen Habermas and Clifford Geertz whose theoretical contributions have informed historical debate Additionally the Encyclopedia includes some 200 essays treating the development of national regional and topical historiographies from the Ancient Near East to the history of sexuality In addition to the Western tradition it includes substantial assessments of African Asian and Latin American historians and debates on gender and subaltern studies Maori and Aboriginal Women in the Public Eye Karen Fox, 2011-12-01 From 1950 increasing numbers of Aboriginal and M ori women became nationally or internationally renowned Few reached the heights of international fame accorded Evonne Goolagong or Dame Kiri Te Kanawa and few remained household names for any length of time But their growing numbers and visibility reflected the dramatic social cultural and political changes taking place in Australia and New Zealand in the second half of the twentieth century This book is the first in depth study of media portrayals of well known Indigenous women in Australia and New Zealand including Goolagong Te Kanawa Oodgeroo Noonuccal and Dame Whina Cooper The power of the media in shaping the lives of individuals and communities for good or ill is widely acknowledged In these pages Karen Fox examines an especially fascinating and revealing aspect of the media and its history how prominent M ori and Aboriginal women were depicted for the readers of popular media in the past Publisher s description Emperors in Lilliput Jim

Davidson,2022-10-05 Lilliput in this dual biography is the world of literary magazines in Australia between the 1940s and the 1980s Here Clem Christesen and Stephen Murray Smith of the journals Meanjin and Overland were determined driven visionaries Both were very human and occasionally bruised believers in and workers for a better nation The book ranges from before the Menzies era and the Cold War through the Whitlam period and beyond to the challenges of the 1980s It shows how the editors constantly aimed for a culture more liberal diverse and developed than the one then prevailing Their publications may have lacked resources and economic return but they nonetheless possessed authority regularly providing stimulation for their readers and for the nation In finely wrought detail Jim Davidson the second editor of Meanjin traces the commitment of Christesen and Murray Smith to this ambitious cultural project and how it attracted many of the key writers and thinkers of those years There are pen portraits of many of them as the reader is taken behind the scenes Emperors in Lilliput exhibits the enlightened creative spirit animating these journals at their best It is at once captivating biography and rich social history Australian Writers, 1975-2000 Selina Samuels,2006 Essays on the literary historiography of Australia provide an overview of prominent and influential Australian writers of the literary and cultural movements from 1975 to 2000 A period marked by strong female voices and concern to represent the female experience Discusses the wide stylistic sweep of the Australian writers of this period the diversity of poetry dramatists who wrote scripts for movies and television and traditional genres such as fiction and drama The Literature of Australia Nicholas Jose,2009

Unprecedented in the breadth of what it offers from both the ancient and the recent literature of my country Thomas Keneally from the foreword Australian Short Fiction Bruce Bennett,2002 In this first extended study of Australian short fiction Bruce Bennett adopts Christina Stead s metaphor of an ocean of story to suggest the universality of story telling and the marks it leaves for posterity Bennett s study stresses the range and depth of the short prose narrative in Australia

Australian Writers, 1950-1975 Selina Samuels,2004 Gives a picture of Australian literary production in the period from the accession of Robert Menzies through the dreary 1950s and the upsurge of the 1960s to the years of Gough Whitlam and his removal from office with Kerr s coup Australian Literary Studies ,2003 Forthcoming Books Rose

Army,1996-10 Australian Book Review ,1995 The Memory of the Holocaust in Australia Tom Lawson,James Jordan,2008 This collection of essays considers the development of Holocaust memory in Australia since 1945 Bringing together the work of younger and more established scholars the volume examines Holocaust memory in a variety of local and national contexts from both inside and outside of Australia s Jewish communities The articles presented here emanate from a variety of different disciplinary perspectives from history through literary cultural and museum studies This collection considers both the general development of Holocaust memory engaging historically with particular moments when the Shoah punctuated public perceptions of the recent past as well as its representation and memorialisation in contemporary Australia. A detailed introduction discusses the relationship between the Australian case and the general development of Holocaust memory in the Western world asking whether we need to revise the assumptions of what have become the rather staid narratives of the journey of the Shoah into public consciousness. Meanjin, 2004. Australia and the British Embrace Stuart Ward, 2001. An interpretation of the demise of the traditional ties between Australia and Great Britain during the 1960s. Until a generation ago Britishness lay at the heart of Australian political culture. This text gives a viewpoint of how the idea of Britishness lost its meaning for Australians and their political institutions. Argues that the transformation was due not to the traditional view of Australia's growing nationalism but rather to Britain's move away from Empire towards the European Economic Community. Includes notes, bibliography and index. Author is a lecturer in history at the Menzies Centre for Australian Studies, King's College London and at the University of Southern Denmark. He previously wrote Courting the Common Market and British Culture at the End of Empire. World Literature Today, 1997. Holocaust Studies, 2007. Bibliographie Internationale Des Recensions de la Littérature Savante, 1997.
