Action Research: A Guide for the Teacher Researcher Geoffrey E. Mills, 2013-10-03 A main text for courses in action research or a supplement to courses in research methods in education A step by step guide to action research with a balanced coverage of qualitative and quantitative methods Known for its practical step by step guidance for teachers on how to do research in classrooms Action Research a Guide for the Teacher Researcher was born from the author's own experience working with teachers and principals The author guides future educators through the action research process via numerous concrete illustrations positioning it as a fundamental component of teaching alongside curriculum development assessment and classroom management From reviews of the book Mills writing style is informative direct and personalized and his expertise as a researcher is evident throughout the textbook He fully understands the uniqueness of teacher centered research The language and the illustration cater to the classroom research contexts and it is easy to understand and apply Adel Al Bataineh Illinois State University The book emphasizes the importance of reflection and creating an action plan Examples of action research papers are included There are study sites videos slides and other supplemental materials available for the students to consult for ancillary learning The writing style is clear interesting and engaging Throughout the text Mills offers the reader a research scenario that helps to position him or her around the theme of the chapter and context of the research phase This helps to alleviate some of the anxiety students of action research may experience as they begin each aspect of the action research process Beverly Melenyzer California University of Pennsylvania The survey examples SurveyMonkey and direct observation examples are very good as well as the informal interview making records and data collection techniques The section on re aligning the focus and action research plan is very good I find my students doing this as they are doing their literature review and understanding that they need to narrow the scope of their research I like the example of doing AR in Ch 6 I like the inclusion of the data analysis sample interview and other models of how to analyze data The key strengths of the project are the authentic examples of AR Mary Frances Agnello Texas Tech University The Action Research Dissertation Kathryn Herr, Gary L. Anderson, 2005-01-12 This book fills an important gap in the action research literature by specifically addressing the growing practice of action research master's studies and doctoral dissertations in colleges and universities throughout the world Like the author's previous work this book provides a broad and clear overview of the varieties of action research The discussion of the underlying choices that action researchers operating in a university degree program need to make and how such choices affect the quality of an action research project from different perspectives is an extremely valuable resource for students and faculty I plan to use this book with my own graduate students on a regular basis Ken Zeichner University of Wisconsin Madison Finally a thoughtful accessible and immensely helpful volume designed to promote dialogue among doctoral students and faculty about dissertation studies grounded in the everyday worlds of practice By creating spaces for deep discussion about the decisions dissertators make rather than proposing and arguing for particular solutions the book sets doctoral researchers on their own quest for meaning clarity and coherence The rhetoric and contents of the book thus mirror its authors commitment to agency for doctoral students seeking to make their inquiries of value both within and beyond the academy Susan Lytle University of Pennsylvania The authors have deftly produced a thoughtful comprehensive and much needed overview of the process of creating an action research dissertation that is sure to benefit generations of students and their faculty mentors Davydd Greenwood Cornell University The Action Research Dissertation should be required reading for any student contemplating using an action research approach in a thesis or dissertation project Kathryn Herr and Gary Anderson serve as able and amiable navigators through the challenging but equally rewarding process of planning carrying out and completing an action research dissertation Clear explanations compelling exemplars and an honest discussion of the challenges of conducting an action research project combined with a sense of the passion and commitment of those who choose this path make the volume a balanced and engaging guide to all would be action researchers Mary Brydon Miller University of Cincinnati Many students struggle with turning action research projects into a Master s thesis or doctoral dissertation and receive little guidance from their advisors To address this need the authors have distilled decades of action research experience into a first of its kind reference for graduate students The book provides an accessible roadmap that honors the complexity of action research It will show that action research is appropriate not only for a dissertation but also a deeply rewarding experience for both the researcher and participants This book helps students understand the ways action research dissertations are different from more traditional dissertations and prepares students and their committees for the unique dilemmas they may face such as validity positionality design write up ethics and defense of the dissertation The Action Research Dissertation is a must have resource for any student contemplating an action research project thesis or dissertation and equally valuable to researchers undertaking and writing up their action research Action Research Jack Whitehead, Jean McNiff, 2006-04-27 In Action Research Living Theory Jack Whitehead and Jean McNiff set out their vision of what action research should be and can be in the 21st century Action Research for Improving Educational Practice Valsa Koshy, 2009-10-29 Which topics are right for Action Research in an education context How do you go about planning a project collecting and analysing your data What s the best way to present your research findings to parents colleagues or funding bodies Whether you are a busy teacher doing research in your classroom an undergraduate starting your research project or a Masters level or education doctorate student writing up your dissertation this step by step guide takes you through every stage involved in carrying out Action Research In this brand new edition you will find additional guidance on philosophical underpinnings of Action Research the challenges of being an insider researcher searching and analysing literature from the internet children's participation and children's rights in action research projects in educational settings validity and authenticity in action research a new chapter on writing for publication an action research planning sheet This book draws on Valsa Koshy's extensive experience of supervising researchers at all levels and includes examples of Action Research carried out by practitioners across a range of topics and age groups Case studies include UK and international examples allowing you to reflect on multiple perspectives of Action Research in education Those new to Action Research and those looking for a straightforward explanation of the methods involved will find this book invaluable Valsa Koshy is Professor of Education and Director of a Research and Development Centre at Brunel University
