enabled thousands to overcome their anxieties and produce the publications that are essential to succeeding in their fields. With this new edition Belcher expands her advice to reach beginning scholars in even more disciplines. She builds on feedback from professors and graduate students who have successfully used the workbook to complete their articles. A new chapter addresses scholars who are writing from scratch. This edition also includes more targeted exercises and checklists as well as the latest research on productivity and scholarly writing. Writing Your Journal Article in Twelve Weeks is the only reference book to combine expert guidance with a step by step workbook for writing a journal article. Each week readers learn an attribute of a strong article and work on revising theirs accordingly. Every day is mapped out with easy to follow instructions that take the guesswork and worry out of writing. There are tasks, templates and reminders. Tasks include designing your writing schedule, testing and revising your argument, selecting the right journal, analyzing the quality and relevance of your evidence, editing your sentences and crafting your article's title. At the end of twelve weeks, graduate students, recent PhDs, postdoctoral fellows, adjunct instructors, junior faculty and international faculty will feel confident that they know the rules of academic publishing and have the tools they need to succeed.
