Writing Without Formulas (with 2009 MLA Update Card) William H. Thelin, 2009-05 Writing Without Formulas shows students how to write instead of telling them A non traditional rhetoric and reader intended for freshman level composition courses this book presents writing as an activity rather than a formula dictated by rules and learned by rote This approach encourages students to make decisions about writing within a context of audience awareness and critical analysis The pedagogy featured in the text lends itself to collaborative based classrooms and demonstrates writing to be a process of discovery The text contains diverse contemporary readings both student and professional that do not rigidly conform to rhetorical modes A focus in many of the selections on popular culture and contemporary social and political issues helps maintain student interest and offers a refreshing change of pace from more traditional readers Examples include a portrait of crack babies who have grown up to create their own literary magazine challenging both political and social assumptions about the crack epidemic educator Mike Rose on the class implications of standardized intelligence testing former New York City police officer turned journalist Marcus Laffey on the strategy of drug busts humorist David Sedaris on his tormented early relationship to music lessons Joyce Carol Oates on the science of laughter and Stephen L Carter on ethics and honesty in American political discourse How to Write Anything with 2009 MLA and 2010 APA Updates John J.
