Wrong Doing Truth Telling The Function Of Avowal In Justice:

Wrong-Doing, Truth-Telling Michel Foucault, 2014-06-04 Three years before his death Michel Foucault gave a series of lectures at the Catholic University of Louvain that have remained relatively unknown until only recently Entitled Wrong Doing Truth Telling these lectures provides the missing link between Foucault s early work on sexuality and punishment and his later work on Greek and Roman antiquity Ranging broadly from Homer to the 20th century Foucault traces how the early ethical acts of truth telling in ancient Greece gradually metamorphosed into acts of self incrimination in monastic times and ultimately into the birth and rise of psychiatry as the foundation of modern penology criminology and criminal justice For Foucault self incrimination no longer did the work necessary to quell justice because by the 19th century we wanted to know more than just the fact of wrongdoing we wanted to know who the criminal was not just whether the accused committed the crime but what it was about him that made him commit the crime An avowal of wrong doing was no longer sufficient psychiatric expertise was now necessary and that development marks the birth of discipline and modern criminal justice made so famous by Foucault Wrong-Doing, Truth-Telling Michel Foucault, Fabienne Brion, 2014-01-01 Three years before his death Michel Foucault delivered a series of lectures at the Catholic University of Louvain that until recently remained almost unknown These lectures which focus on the role of avowal or confession in the determination of truth and justice provide the missing link between Foucault s early work on madness delinquency and sexuality and his later explorations of subjectivity in Greek and Roman antiquity Ranging broadly from Homer to the twentieth century Foucault traces the early use of truth telling in ancient Greece and follows it through to practices of self examination in monastic times By the nineteenth century the avowal of wrongdoing was no longer sufficient to satisfy the call for justice there remained the question of who the criminal was and what formative factors contributed to his wrong doing The call for psychiatric expertise marked the birth of the discipline of psychiatry in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries as well as its widespread recognition as the foundation of criminology and modern criminal justice Published here for the first time the 1981 lectures have been superbly translated by Stephen W Sawyer and expertly edited and extensively annotated by Fabienne Brion and Bernard E Harcourt They are accompanied by two contemporaneous interviews with Foucault in which he elaborates on a number of the key themes An essential companion to Discipline and Punish Wrong Doing Truth Telling will take its place as one of the most significant works of Foucault to appear in decades and will be necessary reading for all those interested in his thought Contesting Carceral Logic Michael J Coyle, Mechthild Nagel, 2021-08-12 Contesting Carceral Logic provides an innovative and cutting edge analysis of how carceral logic is embedded within contemporary society emphasizing international perspectives the harms and critiques of using carceral logic to respond to human wrongdoing and exploring penal abolition thought With chapters from scholars across many disciplines people in prison as well as penal abolition activists the book explores what a future without carceral logic would look like as well as how such a future is to be developed The book is also an exploration of penal abolition thought as it is developing in the twenty first century Diverse geographical cultural identity and experiential frames inform the book s themes of analysing carceral logic as it harms disparate people in disparate places creating anti carceral knowledge exploring case studies pointing to radical alternatives and to contesting carceral logic from below Ultimately Contesting Carceral Logic provides the reader with an alternative and critical perspective from which to reflect on carceral logic the punitive state and the criminalizing systems that almost exclusively dominate across the world Finally it raises the questions of how we are to build communities as well as transform our response to human wrongdoing in ways that are not defined by racism ethnocentrism class war and heteropatriarchy Contesting Carceral Logic will be of great interest to not only scholars and activists but also provides an introduction to key carceral issues and debates for students of penology criminology social policy geography politics philosophy social work and social history programmes in countries all around the world

In the Matter of Nat Turner Christopher

Tomlins,2022-06-14 A bold new interpretation of Nat Turner and the slave rebellion that stunned the American South In 1831 Virginia Nat Turner led a band of Southampton County slaves in a rebellion that killed fifty five whites mostly women and children After more than two months in hiding Turner was captured and quickly convicted and executed In the Matter of Nat Turner penetrates the historical caricature of Turner as befuddled mystic and self styled Baptist preacher to recover the haunting persona of this legendary American slave rebel telling of his self discovery and the dawning of his Christian faith of an impossible task given to him by God and of redemptive violence and profane retribution Much about Turner remains unknown His extraordinary account of his life and rebellion given in chains as he awaited trial in jail was written down by an opportunistic white attorney and sold as a pamphlet to cash in on Turner s notoriety But the enigmatic rebel leader had an immediate and broad impact on the American South and his rebellion remains one of the most momentous episodes in American history Christopher Tomlins provides a luminous account of Turner s intellectual development religious cosmology and motivations and offers an original and incisive analysis of the Turner Rebellion itself and its impact on Virginia politics Tomlins also undertakes a deeply critical examination of William Styron s 1967 novel The Confessions of Nat Turner which restored Turner to the American consciousness in the era of civil rights black power and urban riots A speculative history that recovers Turner from the few shards of evidence we have about his life In the Matter of Nat Turner is also a unique speculation about the meaning and uses of history itself

Entryways to Criminal Justice George Pavlich,Matthew P.

Unger,2019-03-20 How do societies decide whom to criminalize What does it mean to accuse someone of being an offender Entryways to Criminal Justice analyzes the thresholds that distinguish law abiding individuals from those who may be criminalized Contributors to the volume adopt social historical cultural and political perspectives to explore the accusatory process that place persons in contact with the law Emphasizing the gateways to criminal justice truth telling and overcriminalization the authors provide important insights into often overlooked practices that admit persons to criminal justice It is essential reading for scholars students and policy makers in the fields of socio legal studies sociology criminology law and society and post colonial studies Contributors Dale A Ballucci Martin A French Aaron Henry Bryan R Hogeveen Dawn Moore George Pavlich Marcus A Sibley Rashmee Singh Amy Swiffen Matthew P Unger Elise Wohlbold Andrew Woolford Punishment and Inclusion Andrew Dilts, 2014-09-15 At the start of the twenty first century 1 percent of the U S population is behind bars An additional 3 percent is on parole or probation In all but two states incarcerated felons cannot vote and in three states felon disenfranchisement is for life More than 5 million adult Americans cannot vote because of a felony class criminal conviction meaning that more than 2 percent of otherwise eligible voters are stripped of their political rights Nationally fully a third of the disenfranchised are African American effectively disenfranchising 8 percent of all African Americans in the United States In Alabama Kentucky and Florida one in every five adult African Americans cannot vote Punishment and Inclusion gives a theoretical and historical account of this pernicious practice of felon disenfranchisement drawing widely on early modern political philosophy continental and postcolonial political thought critical race theory feminist philosophy disability theory critical legal studies and archival research into state constitutional conventions It demonstrates that the history of felon disenfranchisement rooted in postslavery restrictions on suffrage and the contemporaneous emergence of the modern American penal system reveals the deep connections between two political institutions often thought to be separate showing the work of membership done by the criminal punishment system and the work of punishment done by the electoral franchise Felon disenfranchisement is a symptom of the tension that persists in democratic politics between membership and punishment This book shows how this tension is managed via the persistence of white supremacy in contemporary regimes of punishment and governance Social Theory and Practice , 2016-04

Proceedings and Addresses of the American Philosophical Association American Philosophical Association, 2012 List of members in v 1 Arts of Subjectivity: A New Animism for the Post-Media Era Jacob W. Glazier, 2019-12-26 Bringing thinking from the arts and digital humanities into dialogue with one another this book investigates what it means to be alive in a world that is structured by technology the media and an ever expanding sense of a global community In this unique time in our history when we are bombarded by signs and symbols and constantly connected into gadgets apps and networks it has become increasingly difficult to navigate what has been dubbed a post truth world Critiques taken from post colonial studies and neoanimism help challenge the paranoia that has become endemic and indeed symptomatic to global realities we are now witnessing This pertains not only to the ecological degradation of the planet but also to the lingering remnants of eurocentrism and racism that have taken the forms of nationalism and fascism As a guide an updated version of what Michel Foucault called an arts of existence may help us sail in these treacherous and confusing waters Diving into post structuralist French theory through American feminism and emerging out of media studies this book argues for an ethical and aesthetic form of self fashioning that runs counter to processes subjection and mediatization This craft of life as Plato called it is a space of disjunction and liberation between subjectivity and other where something new and different has the potential to emerge and mould to our likeness Bibliographie der französischen Literaturwissenschaft: 2015 Otto Klapp,1960

Avowing Truth, Embodying Justice ,2021 This study presents a theological analysis of the hermeneutic and ethical challenges of truth telling in the pursuit of justice within the context of transitional justice in South Africa The main research objective of the study is to deepen understanding of the exchange between theological perspectives on truth telling for justice and the enacted mandates of transitional justice This exchange is drawn from the Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC and is shown to have implications for the public theology of the Dutch Reformed Church in South Africa The first chapter introduces and frames the systematic theological rationale and methodology of the study and the chosen hermeneutical contours concerned with historical theology Christian ethics and public theology A porous division is introduced between ascribing truth and constituting truthfulness in order to test the theological argument for the embodiment of truth telling Naming this division is a descriptive attempt that contributes to contouring the challenges of avowing truth while embodying justice Based on a public theological rationale and methodology these challenges are addressed as theological problems with consequences for Christian public witness Chapter Two and Four explore these challenges of truth and truthfulness as enacted in both the Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC Chapter Two and in Reformed public theologies in South Africa Chapter Four In Chapters Three and Five two conversation partners are chosen to aid the analysis of the challenges of truth telling Michel Foucault primarily in conversation with the TRC and Dietrich Bonhoeffer in conversation with Reformed public theologies in South Africa The historical philosophy of Foucault on regimes of truth is taken from his Louvain lecture series Wrong Doing Truth Telling The Function of Avowal in Justice Chapter Three
