La jeunesse de Feuerbach Alexis Philonenko, 1990 Loss, Grief and Transformation Shoshana Ringel, 2021-10-21 This book is a timely and relevant book for psychotherapists and psychoanalysts who process loss both in their own lives and in the lives of their patients offering perspectives from a range of theoretical backgrounds clinical vignettes and personal insights This volume addresses the scope of grief and mourning between the therapeutic dyad and carefully examines how the patient and therapist experience intersect and imbue the analytic space and the therapeutic process The book examines personal loss of parents and partners as well as loss generated by mass trauma through the lens of the Holocaust the immigrant experience the COVID 19 pandemic and the environment There are chapters that cover how the lost other continues to live within one s mind and within the analytic relationship how loss impacts one s internal self system and how loss associated with traumatic experience with the deceased continues to reverberate With a unique focus on the therapist s personal experience of loss and how it shapes the clinical situation as well as a broad range of perspectives on managing and working with loss in patients this is an invaluable book for all practicing psychoanalysts and psychotherapists The Evolution of a Relational Paradigm in Transactional Analysis Helena Hargaden, William F. Cornell, 2019-09-17 In this fascinating and robust volume the editors have compiled a collection of articles that provides an account of their individual theoretical journeys as they trace the evolution of relational transactional analysis They re examine the term relational offering the reader a multiplicity of ways in which to conceptualise the theory of transactional analysis from a truly pluralistic perspective This collection of 14 stunning articles from the Transactional Analytic Journal written over a period of nearly three decades traces the evolutionary process of a way of thinking that incorporates both theoretical innovations and advanced methodological ideas Central to the themes of this book is a theoretical understanding of the bidirectionality of the relational unconscious alongside a methodology that not always but most often demands a two person methodology in which the therapist s subjectivity comes under scrutiny Uniquely useful as a research tool for psychotherapists interested in the most up to date psychological theories this book offers a perspective on relational theory that is both respectful and critical It will be of enormously useful to the trainee the researcher the clinician and the supervisor and will help inform the development of a clinical dialectical mind The Studio ,1909
