Introducing Architectural Theory Korydon H. Smith, 2012 Presents common architectural subjects as though they were conversations across history between theorists by providing you with the original text a reflective text and a philosophical text An Introduction to Architectural Theory Harry Francis Mallgrave, David J. Goodman, 2011-03-16 A sharp and lively text that covers issues in depth but not to the point that they become inaccessible to beginning students An Introduction to Architectural Theory is the first narrative history of this period charting the veritable revolution in architectural thinking that has taken place as well as the implications of this intellectual upheaval The first comprehensive and critical history of architectural theory over the last fifty years surveys the intellectual history of architecture since 1968 including criticisms of high modernism the rise of postmodern and poststructural theory critical regionalism and tectonics Offers a comprehensive overview of the significant changes that architectural thinking has undergone in the past fifteen years Includes an analysis of where architecture stands and where it will likely move in the coming years Routledge Handbook of Neuroscience and the Built Environment Alexandros A. Lavdas, Ann Sussman, A. Vernon Woodworth, 2025-10-09 According to the OECD Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development in the 21st century we are living in a New Age of Biology acknowledging the rapid development of transformative findings in the life sciences The Routledge Handbook of Neuroscience and the Built Environment shows how these new findings impact architecture planning and design changing our understanding how people respond to their surroundings and how these environments can be optimized for human well being A total of 31 chapters presented in six sections discuss human perception the need for connection and how design impacts health and well being through topics such as neuroaesthetics color memory and place proportion sound neurophenomenology neurodiversity biophilia beauty artificial intelligence among many others Expert international contributors look to answer key questions as follows What do architects and designers need to know about neuroscience How does architecture and design impact us non consciously Why is acknowledging the human subliminal experience important What tools can designers use to see our subliminal behaviors This volume will be important reading for the design community whether practicing educating or studying as well as policy makers and public health professionals Athens Stavros

Kousoulas, 2025-09-05 Focusing on the city of Athens this book examines architecture as something that produces culture and ideology rather than the opposite Therefore this book aims to complement architectural and urban theories that are based only on historical overviews or typological assumptions to do so it boldly opens architectural discourse to philosophy affect theory and social and cognitive sciences By examining Athens after its denomination as Greek capital in 1834 the moments actors and transformations that assist the individuation of the Athenian urban ecologies are problematised Opting for theoretical speculations the readers will witness architecture as a collective equipment that produces modes of life that can either enhance or diminish our collective potentials As such the ambition of this book is to provide the theoretical and methodological groundings for thorough extrapolations on how new collectivities can be produced Readers of this book will be exposed to a transdisciplinary approach that identifies and addresses shared problems and concerns regarding the production of contemporary urban environments This book will also explore theoretical innovations that can inform and trigger new ways of speculative thinking and offers a non reductionist account of the development of Athens from the perspective of multiple architectural technicities This book will be of interest to researchers and students of architecture architectural theory architectural history and philosophy
