

Unit 3: Exercise 1

Complete the sentences. Use the words in the box.

Breaking news notifications	bulletin	headlines round-the-clock reporting	interview	news flash scandal
--------------------------------	----------	--	-----------	-----------------------

1. I don't usually read the newspaper – I just look at the headlines to see if anything important has happened.
2. I was watching a film on TV when suddenly the film was interrupted by a news flash. Apparently, there's a bad storm heading towards our region.
3. These days, TV news channels have to provide round-the-clock reporting. In other words, they have to report the news 24 hours a day.
4. I read a really interesting interview with a former politician in yesterday's newspaper. The interviewer asked lots of really difficult questions and the politician didn't know what to say.
5. I've got an app on my phone that sends me notifications of the most important news stories. I can then click on the link to read the full story.
6. That's all for today's programme. The next news bulletin is at ten o'clock.
7. Now we've got some breaking news for you. We've just heard that the prime minister is in hospital after a skiing accident.
8. There was a shocking story about a tennis player secretly being paid a lot of money to lose an important match. It's a real scandal.

Unit 3: Exercise 2

Choose the correct words to complete the text.

What are the main opinions/sources/summaries of news? Where do journalists get their stories from? Well, there's always an element of personal interviewing/reporting/researching, i.e. seeing things with your own eyes and describing what you see. In the same way, journalists interview a lot of articles/reporters/witnesses to events, to find out what happened from the people who actually saw it happening. Journalists can also find their own news stories, through investigation, where they do a lot of research to cause/discover/effect something completely new. They can also find out useful information from account/reaction/social media sites. It's fair to say that a large number of news stories are provided by businesses and other organisations as press archives/images/releases. Organisations also hold press conferences, where a large number of journalists are invited to listen to important discussions/radio/statements and then ask questions.

Unit 3: Exercise 3

Complete the sentences. Use the verbs in the box.

7. Comment	2. follow	6. interview	5. release	8. report	1. research	4. stay
3. update

1. I'd love to be a TV journalist so I could travel around the world and report on all the big events, as they happen.
2. Last month, I tried to interview a famous film star about her latest film, but she didn't want to answer any of my questions.

These websites range from academic databases offering research papers and journals to online libraries with an expansive collection of books from various genres. Many authors and publishers also upload their work to specific websites, granting readers access to their content without any charge. These platforms not only provide access to existing literature but also serve as an excellent platform for undiscovered authors to share their work with the world. However, it is essential to be cautious while downloading Unit 3 Grammar And Usage Answers. Some websites may offer pirated or illegally obtained copies of copyrighted material. Engaging in such activities not only violates copyright laws but also undermines the efforts of authors, publishers, and researchers. To ensure ethical downloading, it is advisable to utilize reputable websites that prioritize the legal distribution of content. When downloading Unit 3 Grammar And Usage Answers, users should also consider the potential security risks associated with online platforms. Malicious actors may exploit vulnerabilities in unprotected websites to distribute malware or steal personal information. To protect themselves, individuals should ensure their devices have reliable antivirus software installed and validate the legitimacy of the websites they are downloading from.

In conclusion, the ability to download Unit 3 Grammar And Usage Answers has transformed the way we access information. With the convenience, cost-effectiveness, and accessibility it offers, free PDF downloads have become a popular choice for students, researchers, and book lovers worldwide. However, it is crucial to engage in ethical downloading practices and prioritize personal security when utilizing online platforms. By doing so, individuals can make the most of the vast array of free PDF resources available and embark on a journey of continuous learning and intellectual growth.
