Writing On The Body Female Embodiment And Feminist Theory:

Writing on the Body Katie Conboy, Nadia Medina, Sarah Stanbury, 1997 This work comprises a collection of influential readings in feminist theory It is divided into four sections Reading the Body Bodies in Production The Body Speaks and Body on Stage

Writing on the Body Katie Conboy, Nadia Medina, Sarah Stanbury, Professor Sarah Stanbury, 1997 Exploring the tensions between women's lived bodily experiences and the cultural meanings inscribed on the female body this volume complete with editors introduction includes classic and contemporary essays on rape pornography eroticism anorexia body building menstruation and maternity and challenges racial class and sexual categories

The American Body in Context Jessica R. Johnston, 2001 From Marilyn Monroe to the Spice Girls from Grover Cleveland to President Clinton to one's naked form reflected in the mirror each morning Americans are taught to read bodies as symbols displaying and revealing hidden truths about the individual and his or her behaviours Any discussion of the body becomes complex and muddled as one tries to analyze how and why certain body types are attributed certain meanings

The Body Lisa Blackman, 2008-09-15 Questions around the body are central to social theory The Body highlights and analyses the debates which make the body central to current sociological psychological cultural and feminist thinking

Malady and Mortality Helen Thomas, 2016-06-22 This ground breaking study examines visual and literary responses to and representations of illness dying and death from the perspective of the chronically ill their families and carers medics artists photographers authors and academics It encourages a re-examination of cultural taboos and visual and literary practices that engage with illness and death Focusing upon a wide range of creative and critical engagements this book makes a significant contribution to the medical humanities via its exploration of medical practice literature and film digital media studies graphic design and both contemporary and historical attitudes towards illness death including infant mortality mourning and bereavement For some the experience of illness provokes feelings of exile crisis or social critique whilst for others it instigates utopian discourses predicated upon personal reflection communication or connectivity wherein the self is redefined beyond the parameters and constraints of the body

Women Priests, Symbolic Violence, and Symbolic Resistance Sharon Jagger, 2025-02-26 This book explores from a feminist sociological viewpoint the ways gender is constructed in the priesthood in the Church of England and the political emotional and spiritual resources generated by women priests in their resistance praxis against a discriminating structure Despite the increasing numbers of women being ordained the Church continues to structurally support and legitimise the view that the priesthood should be exclusively male and women priests still experience gender discrimination and or differentiation Drawing on Bourdieu's notion of symbolic violence the book aims to fill a gap in the research literature by showing how women priests do not necessarily misrecognise or collude in their domination but engage in hidden resistances and subversions Based on empirical research the study reveals that whilst there are barriers to protesting and complaining in conventional ways there are also significant resistances in how women priests perform their role The themes addressed are relevant for sociologists of religion and scholars of gender and women s studies as well as those with an interest in theology and Christian ministry Clinical and Professional Reasoning in Occupational Therapy Barbara Schell,John Schell,2023-09-13 The leading scholarly and theoretical approach to clinical reasoning in occupational therapy Schell Schell s Clinical and Professional Reasoning in Occupational Therapy 3rd Edition continues a successful tradition of not only teaching occupational therapy students how practitioners think in practice but detailing the why and how to develop effective reasoning in all phases of their careers More practical and approachable than ever this updated 3rd Edition incorporates a new emphasis on application and reflects the personal insights of an international team of contributors giving emerging occupational therapists a professional advantage as they transition to professional practice Contesting Bodies and Nation in Canadian History Patrizia Gentile,Jane Nicholas,2013-12-06 From fur coats to nude paintings and from sports to beauty contests the body has been central to the literal and figurative fashioning of ourselves as individuals and as a nation In this first collection on the history of the body in Canada an interdisciplinary group of scholars explores the multiple ways the body has served as a site of contestation in Canadian history in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Showcasing a variety of methodological approaches Contesting Bodies and Nation in Canadian History includes essays on many themes that engage with the larger historical relationship between the body and nation medicine and health fashion and consumer culture citizenship and work and more The contributors reflect on the intersections of bodies with the concept of nationhood as well as how understandings of the body are historically contingent The volume is capped off with a critical introductory chapter by the editors on the history of bodies and the development of the body as a category of analysis

Feminist Theory (II) Joan Nordquist,2000 Each bibliography includes a comprehensive list of the theorist s works and critical studies of these works in English Each bibliography contains approximately 600 to 900 entries Books journal articles essays within edited books in the manner of Essay and General Literature and dissertations are included References are provided from a wide variety of disciplines and bibliographic sources The primary purpose of each bibliography is to provide access to the widely reprinted primary works in English and the critical literature in a great variety of books and journals The topical bibliographies include the authoritative works on the subject and are arranged in useful categories The lively part of the modern post modern debate is generally taking place in alternative and left journals journals always included in the literature search in the compiling of the bibliographies Monstrous Bodies Miri Nakamura,2007 Textual Tensions Elizabeth Berglund Hall,2003 This dissertation reconsiders Cixous s notion of critique of masculine as a practice of reading as well as writing I claim that feminine readings and writings attempt to disrupt the conventional thought system by exposing tension between traditional and repressed aspects of the discourse While particular emphasis is placed on the tension between the masculine and the feminine Cixous claims that the disruption of any binary pair works toward the dissolution of phallogocentrism and its fundamental couple man woman In each of three sections I pair an analysis of Cixous's theories and fiction with an interpretation of a novel by another author this structure allows me to examine critique of feminine and to put Cixous's theories into practice by performing what I call a lecture feminine In the first section I consider Cixous's notion of sexual difference in her work Déjeune and in Beckett's trilogy Molloy Malone meurt and L'Innommable I explore Cixous's claim that sexual difference is not located between men and women but internally in each man and woman and I investigate the ways in which Beckett's trilogy echoes Cixous's theories through its interrogation of the binary system of thought its treatment of the interdependence of writing and the body and its dissolution of conventional gender categories In the second section I investigate the difficult balance between self and other which critique of feminine encourages through analyses of Cixous's Manne and Marie Claire Blais's L'Insoumise In each work I find that the shifting of narrative voices allows for both an exchange with the other and an assertion of a sense of unified self Finally in my third section delving into the more abstract binary couple text and non text I examine Cixous's Jours de l'an and Anne Hébert's Le premier jardin In my analyses I find that these texts play with the boundaries of fiction and narrative through a contradictory structure which permits multiple interpretations of each of the novels Ultimately this dissertation hopes to provide for the reader a new way of understanding critique of feminine as a state of productive tension and a new way of using Cixous's theories to read and analyze literature

Taught Bodies Clare O'Farrell, 2000 This book is an interdisciplinary exploration of the different ways the body is taught It details the meticulous training and shaping of the body in a diversity of settings ranging from the school university and workplace to the theatre cinema art gallery and bedroom What kind of body does all this teaching aim to produce How should bodies behave in relation to themselves and others How far are bodies educated in ways of which we are not even aware These are just a few of the questions posed by the authors in this lively collection

vivid exploration of the gendered production of news and in particular the experiences of women in the Australian print news media The book engages with the question of how gender shapes newsroom culture and in so doing is concerned with production practices and cultural processes It considers the dilemmas constraints negotiations and compromises which shape journalists day to day routines It probes specific questions about gender in asking what is journalism and what is a journalist How is newsroom culture embodied How do female journalists experience newsroom culture How has global industry change impacted on the workplace and what does this mean for journalists How does feminism get played out in the newsroom And what is the relationship of newsroom culture to the content of the news The author s astute empirical research provides a distinctive account of how Australian print news media journalists experience newsroom culture The 17 in depth interviews with journalists ranging in age and industry experience reveal a complex culture coming to terms with dramatic industry changes

Wedlock Or Deadlock? Margreet Zwarteveen, 2006 This research has its roots in the evidence that was produced in the eighties on the detrimental impact of irrigation projects on gender equality Why it is that irrigation development negatively affects gender equality Out of an explicit feminist commitment the linkages between gender in equality and irrigation development are explored from two different angles The first angle consists of a critical discussion of current theories that underlie irrigation planning and policies In many ways these theories make it difficult to properly recognize and accommodate gender relations At the same time they are based on an incomplete and often inadequate understanding of these relations The second angle consists of a number of case studies undertaken in different countries Nepal Sri Lanka Niger Burkina Faso to empirically explore how and where gender relations affect and are affected by irrigation management policies and practices
