Understanding Islam In Indonesia Politics And Diversity:

Understanding Islam in Indonesia Robert Pringle, 2010-04-30 An important book that bridges the gap between the more specialist literature and the often depressingly ill informed comments of journalists and ideologues Merle Ricklefs Professor Department of History National University of Singapore Islam and Politics in Indonesia: Freedom of Religion or Belief and the influence of Islamic actors Tobias Hoheneder, 2018-08-15 In most Islamic societies freedom of religion or belief is not a reality for religious minorities Indonesia home of the biggest Muslim population in the world is a positive exception in this regard The country was always a role model for the peaceful co existence of diverse religious and cultural traditions but in recent years Islamic fundamentalist groups challenge the country s tolerant and pluralistic identity This book inquires the development of freedom of religion or belief from a political legal and religious perspective It analyzes the laws and mechanisms that protect the rights of minorities and traces the role of the country s most important Islamic organizations and the influence they have on national policy making It finally points out possible future developments and how the government can counter the threat of militant Islamism and preserve Indonesia s tolerant traditions Law and Religion in Indonesia Melissa Crouch, 2013-11-12 Understanding and managing inter religious relations particularly between Muslims and Christians presents a challenge for states around the world This book investigates legal disputes between religious communities in the world s largest majority Muslim democratic country Indonesia It considers how the interaction between state and religion has influenced relations between religious communities in the transition to democracy The book presents original case studies based on empirical field research of court disputes in West Java a majority Muslim province with a history of radical Islam These include criminal court cases as well as cases of judicial review relating to disputes concerning religious education permits for religious buildings and the crime of blasphemy The book argues that the democratic law reform process has been influenced by radical Islamists because of the politicization of religion under democracy and the persistence of fears of Christianization It finds that disputes have been localized through the decentralization of power and exacerbated by the central government s ambivalent attitude towards radical Islamists who disregard the rule of law Examining the challenge facing governments to accommodate minorities and manage religious pluralism the book furthers understanding of state religion relations in the Muslim world This accessible and engaging book is of interest to students and scholars of law and society in Southeast Asia as well as Islam and the state and the legal regulation of religious diversity

Electoral Politics in Asia Jhumpa Mukherjee, Priya Singh, Anita Sengupta, 2025-12-02 This volume examines the complex interplay of geopolitics electoral politics and representative governance across South Southeast West and Central Asia through an intersectional lens Analyzing electoral developments in Bangladesh Bhutan India Indonesia Israel Malaysia Maldives Myanmar Nepal Pakistan Sri Lanka Turkey and Uzbekistan it explores diverse political systems ranging from consolidated democracies to hybrid regimes and entrenched authoritarian states With many of these countries having held national elections in 2024 the volume offers timely insights into how majoritarian proportional and hybrid electoral systems mediate governance legitimacy and citizen participation It interrogates the role of elections in enabling democratic representation while exposing how identity politics majoritarianism and systemic exclusion continue to shape outcomes Combining macro and micro perspectives the volume provides grounded comparative analyses of Asia s political trajectories and will be of interest to scholars and students of political science international relations area studies and electoral politics

End of Innocence? Andree Feillard, 2013-08-01 Long cited as a model of harmonious cohabitation between different religions the most populous Muslim country in the world until recently occupied a special place in the Western imagination Indonesia home to a peaceful version of Islam offered a reassuring counter model to a rowdy and accusatory Arab Islam Since 1999 however confrontations between Christians and Muslims in the Moluccas excesses of vigilantism in Sulawesi and especially the Bali and Jakarta bombings have shattered these simplistic stereotypes For many terrorism experts often self proclaimed Indonesia s mutation confirmed the hackneyed thesis that equated obscurantism with Islam and saw violent outbreaks as an inevitable consequence

Creating

Multicultural Citizens Dr Raihani, 2013-11-12 Despite the largest scale decentralisation of education since 1999 which broadly led to the marketisation of education it is not clear how school education responds to the multicultural realities of Indonesian society and ethno religious conflicts Creating Multicultural Citizens presents a comprehensive evaluation of contemporary education in the largest democratic Muslim country in the world focusing on the ways in which education prepares citizens for a multicultural society It thoroughly examines the state religion community roles in the field of education in developing the Indonesian people Using a qualitative ethnographic methodology the author presents six case studies of different schools including religious non religious state and private schools in two different provinces in Indonesia It particularly explores Evolving but contested theories of multiculturalism and multicultural education Education changes and reforms in post Suharto Indonesia Government policies for multicultural education and school curriculum School leadership for education for diversity Roles of religious education in schools in nurturing multicultural beliefs values and attitudes Extra curricular activities and tolerance Students perspectives of multiculturalism and the ideal society The promising development of a pesantren Islamic boarding school in establishing multicultural education It is the first book to explore how education in Indonesia helps contribute to the creation of tolerant and multicultural citizens and is essential reading for anyone involved in Indonesian education and international higher education The State, Ulama and Islam in Malaysia and Indonesia Norshahril Saat, 2025-10-01 The Suharto 1966-98 government of Indonesia and the Mahathir 1981-2003 government of Malaysia both launched Islamisation programmes upgrading and creating religious institutions The author argues that while generally ulamas or religious teachers had to support state ideologies they sometimes succeeded in capturing the state by influencing policies in their favour The author builds his argument on strong fieldwork data especially interviews and he engages in critical discussion of comparative politics paradigms and the concept of capture Islamic Education and Indoctrination Charlene Tan, 2012-01-26 This book critically examines the concept of indoctrination within the Western liberal traditions and analyses case studies of indoctrination in some Muslim societies It offers suggestions to counter religious indoctrination and highlights the key tensions challenges and prospects of Islamic education in a modern and multicultural world Religious Violence and Conciliation in Indonesia Sumanto Al Qurtuby, 2016-05-20 Maluku in eastern Indonesia is the home to Muslims Protestants and Catholics who had for the most part been living peaceably since the sixteenth century In 1999 brutal conflicts broke out between local Christians and Muslims and escalated into large scale communal violence once the Laskar Jihad a Java based armed jihadist Islamic paramilitary group sent several thousand fighters to Maluku As a result of this escalated violence the previously stable Maluku became the site of devastating interreligious wars This book focuses on the interreligious violence and conciliation in this region It examines factors underlying the interreligious violence as well as those shaping post conflict peace and citizenship in Maluku The author shows that religion both Islam and Christianity was indeed central and played an ambiguous role in the conflict settings of Maluku whether in preserving and aggravating the Christian Muslim conflict or supporting or improving peace and reconciliation Based on extensive ethnographic fieldwork and interviews as well as historical and comparative research on religious identities this book is of interest to Indonesia specialists as well as academics with an interest in anthropology religious conflict peace and conflict studies
