Understanding Martin Amis Second Edition Understanding Contemporary British Literature:

Understanding Martin Amis James Diedrick,1995 Understanding Agatha Christie Tison Pugh,2023-08-07

Explores seven startling paradoxes behind the bestselling novelist's lasting popularity Agatha Christie stands as the bestselling novelist of all time and in terms of total sales in all genres places only behind the Christian Bible and Shakespeare Since the publication of The Mysterious Affair at Styles in 1920 Christie's fiction has withstood the envy of her peers and the snipes of critics while garnering the admiration of countless readers From her puzzling persona notably in her eleven day disappearance in 1926 and status as Queen of the Cozies to her tragicomic themes and critiques of Englishness Christie built a lasting literary legacy that perplexes and pleases her hordes of readers In Understanding Agatha Christie Tison Pugh takes a fresh look at the contemporary world's most popular author investigating seven notable paradoxes behind her lasting success thereby illuminating the literary innovations that have contributed to her uncannily timeless appeal

Contemporary British Fiction Nick Bentley,2017-11-15 This essential guide provides a comprehensive survey of the most important debates in the criticism and research of contemporary British fiction Nick Bentley analyses the criticism surrounding a range of British novelists including Monica Ali Martin Amis Pat Barker Alan Hollinghurst Kazuo Ishiguro Ian McEwan David Mitchell Ali Smith Zadie Smith Sarah Waters and Jeanette Winterson Exploring experiments with literary form this authoritative book considers cutting edge concerns relating to the neo historical novel the relationship between literature and science literary geographies and trauma narratives Engaging with key literary theories and identifying present trends and future directions in the literary criticism of contemporary British fiction this is an invaluable resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students of English literature teachers researchers and scholars Martin Amis:

Postmodernism and Beyond G. Keulks,2006-08-25 This is the first collection of essays ever published on Martin Amis one of England's most controversial and critically acclaimed authors It assembles the ideas of twelve scholars from different countries to clarify the major trends and transitions in Amis's work The essays will become an authoritative resource for scholars and students alike The Contemporary British Novel Philip Tew,2007-06-26 Second edition of this guide for students studying contemporary British writing written by one of the key academics in the field of modern fiction studies

The 1980s: A Decade of Contemporary British Fiction Philip Tew,Emily Horton,Leigh Wilson,2014-02-27 How did social cultural and political events in Britain during the 1980s shape contemporary British fiction Setting the fiction squarely within the context of Conservative politics and questions about culture and national identity this volume reveals how the decade associated with Thatcherism frames the work of Kazuo Ishiguro Martin Amis and Graham Swift of Scottish novelists and new diasporic writers How and why 1980s fiction is a response to particular psychological social and economic pressures is explored in detail Drawing on the rise of individualism and the birth of neo liberalism contributors reflect on the tense relations between 1980s politics and realism and between elegy and satire Noting the creation of a heritage industry during the decade the rise of the historical novel is also considered against broader cultural changes Viewed from the perspective of more recent theorisations of crisis following both 9 11 and the 21st century financial crash this study makes sense of why and how writers of the 1980s constructed fictions in response to this decade's own set of fundamental crises The Demotic

Voice in Contemporary British Fiction J. Scott, 2009-05-14 This book is an assessment of narrative technique in contemporary British fiction focusing on the experimental use of the demotic voice regional or national dialects The book examines the work of James Kelman Graham Swift Will Self and Martin Amis amongst many others from a practical as well as theoretical perspective Diseases and Disorders in Contemporary Fiction James Peacock, Tim Lustig, 2013-04-17

The essays in this collection address the current preoccupation with neurological conditions and disorders in contemporary literature by British and American writers The book places these fictional treatments within a broader cultural and historical context exploring such topics as the two cultures debate the neurological turn postmodernism and the post postmodern and responses to September 11th Considering a variety of materials including mainstream literary fiction the graphic novel popular fiction autobiographical writing film and television contributors consider the contemporary dimensions of the interface between the sciences and humanities developing the debate about the post postmodern as a new humanism or a return to realism and investigating questions of form and genre and of literary continuities and discontinuities Further the essays discuss contemporary writers' attempts to engage the relation between the individual and the social looking at the relation between the syndrome referring to the prevalence in contemporary literature of neurological phenomena evident at the biological level and existing work in the field of trauma studies where explanations tend to have taken a psychoanalytical form allowing for perspectives that question some of the assumptions that have marked both these fields The current literary preoccupation with neurological conditions presents us with a new and distinctive form of trauma literature one concerned less with psychoanalysis than with the physical and evolutionary status of human beings

Trauma and Romance in Contemporary British Literature Jean-Michel Ganteau, Susana Onega, 2013-01-17 Drawing on a variety of theoretical approaches including trauma theory psychoanalysis genre theory narrative theory theories of temporality cultural theory and ethics this book breaks new ground in bringing together trauma and romance two categories whose collaboration has never been addressed in such a systematic and in depth way The volume shows how romance strategies have become an essential component of trauma fiction in general and traumatic realism in particular It brings to the fore the deconstructive powers of the darker type of romance and its adequacy to perform traumatic acting out and fragmentation It also zooms in on the variations on the ghost story as medium for the evocation of trans generational trauma as well as on the therapeutic drive of romance that favors a narrative presentation of the working through phase of trauma Chapters explore various acceptations and extensions of psychic trauma from the individual to the cultural analyzing narrative texts that belong in various genres from the ghost story to the misery memoir to the graphic novel The selection of primary sources allows for a review of leading contemporary British authors such as Peter Ackroyd Martin Amis Ian McEwan Salman Rushdie Graham Swift Sarah Waters and Jeanette Winterson and of those less canonical such as Jackie Kay Alan Moore and Dave Gibbons Justine Picardie Peter Roche and Adam Thorpe London in Contemporary British Fiction Nick Hubble, Philip Tew, 2016-07-28 Contemporary writers such as Peter Ackroyd J G Ballard John King Ian McEwan Will Self Iain Sinclair and Zadie Smith have been registering the changes to the social and cultural London landscape for years This volume brings together their vivid representations of the capital Uniting the readings are themes such as relationship between the country and the city the capacity of satirical forms to encompass the real London spatio temporal transformations and emergences the relationship between multiculturalism and universalism the underground as the spatial equivalent of London s unconsciousness and the suburbs as the frontier of the future The volume creates a framework for new approaches to the representation of London required by the unprecedented social uncertainties of recent years an invaluable contribution to studies of contemporary writing about London
