Unequal Protection Women Children And The Elderly In Court:

Unequal Protection Lois G. Forer, 1991 Argues that gender and age related bias are common in the American legal system traces the system's history and shows present day problems in these areas Everything You Need to Know About Family Court Anne Bianchi, 1999-12-15 Examines the history and evolution of family court as well as the continuing debate over the treatment of juveniles in the U S legal system Somebody Else's Children John Hubner, Jill Wolfson, 2003-10 With the narrative force of an epic novel and the urgency of first rate investigative journalism this important book delves into the daily workings and life or death decisions of a typical American family court system It provides an intimate look at the lives of the parents and children whose fate it decides A must for social workers and social work students attorneys judges foster parents law students child advocates teachers journalists and anyone who cares about our nation's children The Bill of Rights in the Modern State Geoffrey R. Stone, Richard A. Epstein, Cass R. Sunstein, 1992-10-15 Also published as v 59 no 1 winter 1992 of the University of Chicago law review Rights Robin West, 2017-03-02 Rights brings together the most influential essays of the last thirty years critiquing and defending the liberal rights tradition Modern rights critics have focused on the perceived conflict between liberal rights and progressive or egalitarian political objectives the preference of liberal states for negative over positive rights and also the dangers to community of the overly atomistic conception of human nature which is arguably at the heart of the liberal rights tradition Licensing Parents Jack C. Westman, 2007-10-12 Licensing Parents addresses the relationship between poverty unemployment and other socio economic issues to competent parenting in a unique and creative manner Examines why the current generation of children and youth is the first in our nation's history to be less well off psychologically socially and morally than their parents were at the same age The UN Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women Marsha A. Freeman, Beate Rudolf, Christine Chinkin, 2012-01-26 This is the first commentary on the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women CEDAW analyzing the Convention article by article Each chapter provides an overview of an article's negotiating history interpretation and all the relevant case law including decisions and recommendations by the CEDAW Committee Women and the Law Joan A. Brathwaite, 1999 Women in American History Peg A. Lamphier, Rosanne Welch, 2017-01-23 This four volume set documents the complexity and richness of women's contributions to American history and culture empowering all students by demonstrating a more populist approach to the past Based on the content of most textbooks it would be easy to reach the erroneous conclusion that women have not contributed much to America's history and development Nothing could be further from the truth Offering comprehensive coverage of women of a diverse range of cultures classes ethnicities religions and sexual identifications this four volume set identifies the many ways in which women have helped to shape and strengthen the United States This encyclopedia is organized into four chronological volumes with each volume further divided into three sections Each section features an overview essay and thematic essay as well as detailed entries on topics ranging from Lady Gaga to Ladybird Johnson Lucy Stone and Lucille Ball and from the International Ladies of Rhythm to the International Ladies Garment Workers Union The set also includes a vast variety of primary documents such as personal letters public papers newspaper articles recipes and more These primary documents enhance users learning opportunities and enable readers to better connect with the subject matter
