Unholy Alliance Religion And Atrocity In Our Time:

Unholy Alliance Marc H. Ellis, 1997 Tragically religion has often been associated with violence repression war and vengeance Where was God during the Holocaust The violence in Bosnia Rwanda or the Middle East Theologian and author Marc Ellis takes a searing look at religious integrity in the face of evil Ellis's uncompromising moral sensitivity poses a frank examination of conscience for Christians and Jews alike who seek honestly to engage their tradition and their God Tears of Christepona Carter Heyward, 2021-10-14 Early one morning in November 2019 Carter Heyward awoke to a voice she figured was hers but then again maybe it wasn't exactly her own Grief stricken because her horse Feather had just been diagnosed with a rare equine cancer in pain with a freshly broken arm of her own and horrified by the morally bankrupt state of the nation under Donald Trump Carter begins a conversation with someone Herself Her higher power Friends who have passed on The persistent voice names herself or themselves Christepona Thus begins Carter Heyward's mystical presentation of her ever deepening passion for justice love at every level of our life together from the very personal to the larger social and political contexts Moving into her grief Carter wrestles with the problem of evil She dives into her own anger and hatred and that of others and surfaces in enthusiastic bursts of gratitude joy and hope Fighting Words Hector Avalos, Is religion inherently violent If not what provokes violence in the name of religion Do we mischaracterize religion by focusing too much on its violent side In this intriguing original study of religious violence Prof Hector Avalos offers a new theory for the role of religion in violent conflicts Starting with the premise that most violence is the result of real or perceived scarce resources Avalos persuasively argues that religion creates new scarcities on the basis of unverifiable or illusory criteria Through a careful analysis of the fundamental texts of Judaism Christianity Islam and Hinduism Dr Avalos explains how four scarce resources have figured repeatedly in creating religious violence sacred space e.g. the perception by three world religions that Jerusalem is sacred the creation of holy scriptures believed to be privileged revelations of God's will group privilege stemming from such beliefs as a chosen people or predestination which also creates a group of outsiders and salvation by which concept some are accepted and others rejected Thus Avalos shows religious violence is often the most unnecessary violence of all since the scarce resources over which religious conflicts ensue are not actually scarce or need not be scarce Comparing violence in religious and nonreligious contexts Avalos makes the compelling argument that if we condemn violence caused by scarce resources as morally objectionable then we must consider even more objectionable violence provoked by alleged scarcities that cannot be proven to exist He also examines the Nazi Holocaust and the Stalinist Terror which have been attributed to the pernicious effects of atheism or secular humanism By contrast Avalos pinpoints underlying religious factors as the cause of these horrific instances of genocidal violence This serious philosophical examination of the roots of religious violence adds much to our understanding of a perennial source of widespread human suffering Hector Avalos Ames IA is associate professor of Religious Studies at Iowa State University the author of five books on biblical studies and religion the former editor of the Journal for the Critical Study of Religion and executive director of the Committee for the Scientific Examination of Religion My Quests for Hope and Meaning Rosemary Radford Ruether,2013-10-02 This book is an autobiography tracing Rosemary Radford Ruether's intellectual development and writing career Ruether examines the influence of her mother and family on her development and particularly her interactions with the Roman Catholic religious tradition She delves into her exploration of interfaith relations with Judaism and Islam as well Her educational formation at Scripps College and the importance of historical theology is also a major emphasis Mental illness has also affected Ruether's nuclear family in the person of her son and she details the family's struggle with this issue Finally in this intellectual autobiography Ruether explores her long concern and involvement with ecology feminism and the quest for a spirituality and practice for a livable planet Lincoln's Political Ambitions, Slavery, and the Bible Edwin D. Freed,2012-07-01

Abraham Lincoln did not take his family Bible to the White House And the reason he did not use the Bible in his first inaugural address was not because it failed to arrive in his baggage Freed concentrates on what Abraham Lincoln himself says instead of what others say about him which yields insights into understanding Lincoln's speech before the Young Men's Lyceum his reply to the Loyal Colored People of Baltimore and his Second Inaugural Address The author shows that much of what has been written about Lincoln's knowledge of the Bible and its influence on his thought is myth Although his language was replete with vocabulary from the Bible Lincoln's knowledge of it was superficial and he did not use the Bible to promote religion He was always a politician but with a moral sensitivity With the Declaration of Independence and the US Constitution he used the Bible to help him achieve his political ambitions and to support the emancipation of slaves A unique book on a subject never treated so thoroughly this is a must read for all Lincoln admirers Theologies of Liberation in Palestine-Israel Nur Masalha,Lisa Isherwood,2014-04-29 This collection of essays concerns the development of contextualized theologies of liberation in Palestine and the indigenous Palestinian people's struggle for justice and liberation The work is innovative because of its inclusion of indigenous perspectives within its remit and the introduction of new concepts such as civil liberation theology The collection offers other ways to look at biblical discourses and their impact on the ongoing conflict ways to live peace ways to be ethical when visiting these conflicted lands understandings of resource ethics and even a new way to understand how we approach our understanding of liberation theology Contributors include well known scholars from Muslim Jewish Christian Palestinian Israeli Indian American and British contexts This work goes beyond standard academic collections It is aimed not only at scholars and students but also at peace activists and policymakers It should be of use not only in academic courses but also for practitioners of conflict resolution peace and reconciliation Confronting Genocide Steven L. Jacobs,2009-01-01 Confronting Genocide Judaism Christianity Islam is the first collection of essays by recognized scholars primarily in the field of religious studies to address this timely topic In addition to theoretical thinking about both religion and genocide and the relationship between the two these authors look at the tragedies of the Holocaust the Armenian Genocide Rwanda Bosnia and the Sudan from their own unique vantage point In so doing they supply a much needed additional contribution to the ongoing conversations proffered by historians political scientists sociologists psychologists and legal scholars regarding prevention intervention and punishment Book jacket W. E. B. Du Bois, American Prophet Edward J. Blum, 2007-06-26 Biography of civil rights activist W E B Du Bois which argues that despite his often being labeled an atheist his religious and spiritual insights are actually central to understanding his political and intellectual work The New Diaspora and the Global Prophetic Susanne Scholz, Santiago Slabodsky, 2021-05-06 For four decades Marc H Ellis has sought to rethink the Jewish tradition in light of the prophetic imperative especially with regard to the need for geopolitical justice in the context of Israel Palestine Here twenty two contributors offer intellectual theological political and journalistic insight into Ellis s work connecting his theological scholarship to the particularities of their own contexts Some contributors reflect specifically on Israel Palestine while others transfer Ellis s theopolitical discussions to other geopolitical cultural or religious concerns Yet all of them rely on Ellis s work to understand the connections of prophetic discourses religious demands social movements and projects of social justice Paying particular attention to global racism sexism ethnocentrism white supremacy and current neocolonial practices the contributors also address minoritized liberation theologies the role of memory exile and forgiveness biblical hermeneutics and political thought In diverse and powerful ways the contributors ground their scholarship with the activist drive to deepen enrich and strengthen intellectual work in meaningful ways Dual Citizenship Kayko Driedger Hesslein, 2015-06-18 Jesus particular Jewish existence his human nature and his universal transcendence his divine nature are brought together here in the construction of a Christology that proposes the equality unity and full participation of both natures Using frameworks from multicultural theory it identifies the processes by which Christologies have historically negotiated difference in the Incarnation and explains why uniting the two natures of Christ consistently and problematically supplants Jesus Jewishness This conceptual framework unites the two natures without sublimating their differences by proposing a contextual universalism Overlapping membership offers the means whereby the particular Jewish human nature and the universal divine nature of Jesus Christ engage in an ongoing dialogue and formation in the one person of the Incarnation This work offers a new way of understanding the two natures of Christ that brings together historical understandings with contemporary contextual Christologies enabling us to find a way to understand Christ as both truly human and fully divine
