Physics Letters ,1995 Uprooting University Apartheid in South Africa Teresa A. Barnes,2018-12-07 South Africa continues to be an object of fascination for people everywhere interested in social justice issues postcolonial studies and critical race theory as manifested by the enormous worldwide attention given to the RhodesMustFall movement In this book Teresa Barnes examines universities complex positioning in the apartheid era and argues that tracing the institutional legacies left by pro apartheid intellectuals are crucial to understanding the fight to transform South African higher education A work of interpretive social history this book investigates three historical dynamics in the relationship between the apartheid system and South African higher education First it explores how the legitimacy of apartheid was historically reproduced in public higher education Second it looks at ways that academics maneuvered through and influenced national and international discourses of political freedom and legitimacy Third it explores how and where stubborn tendrils of apartheid era knowledge production practices survived into and have been combatted during the democratic era in South African universities

Mission, Science, and Race in South Africa Keith Snedegar, 2015-09-17 This is a biographical study of Alexander William Roberts a Free Church of Scotland missionary educator who in 1883 was posted to the Lovedale Institution at Alice South Africa Inspired by the night sky of the southern hemisphere Roberts became a leading observer of variable stars and an early contributor to the theory of close interacting binary stars He actively promoted the development of colonial scientific culture and was elected president of the South African Association for the Advancement of Science in 1913 His teaching career at Lovedale fostered a commitment to the interests of his African students and their communities In 1920 Roberts was appointed to the South African senate to represent native Africans he also served as senior member of the Native Affairs Commission Despite his liberal instincts he acquiesced to the movement toward racial segregation as advanced in the Natives Urban Areas and Native Administration Acts Roberts nonetheless militated against the erosion of the Cape non racial franchise rights he resigned from the Native Affairs Commission just as the all white parliament was poised to remove Africans from the common voters roll His engagement with the politics of race interfered with Roberts s astronomical research Although he published nearly one hundred papers in scientific journals most of his observational data remained unknown until the Boyden Observatory s Roberts archive was digitized in 2006 His influence as a mission educator also has been little known although among his pupils were journalist and academic D D T Jabavu the physician James Moroka and Swazi king Sobhuza I
