Unit Natural Disasters Primary School:

Pandemics and natural disasters as reflected in history teaching Council of Europe, 2023-03-01 Covid 19 disastrous series of earthquakes in Turkey and Syria How well prepared are young people to understand such catastrophic events and their impact upon societies Since the beginning of recorded human history pandemics and natural disasters have highly impacted the historical narratives of mankind Each time they remind humans how fragile they are and how limited their knowledge is Despite their impact these events are given little attention in history education The first thematic report of the Observatory on History Teaching in Europe OHTE analyses how pandemics and natural disasters are taught across different levels of education It gives a detailed overview of the teaching of the two topics in OHTE's 16 member states along with a cross country analysis combining information provided by educational authorities and by history teachers themselves The report refers to important areas of concern such as the inclusion of pandemics and natural disasters in history curricula teachers pedagogical decisions about their teaching multiperspectival approaches but also the use of scapegoating during these times of crises The observatory's mission is to provide a clear picture of the state of history teaching in Europe Within the countries that are party to the observatory this is done through OHTE reports on the state of history teaching and thematic reports which explore particular areas of interest and how they are handled in history lessons The observatory's vision is embodied by its motto Teaching history grounding democracy In practice this means that it promotes quality history education in order to improve the understanding of democratic culture among young people The Observatory on History Teaching in Europe is a Council of Europe enlarged partial agreement Equitable Access for English Learners, Grades K-6 Mary Soto, David E. Freeman, Yvonne S. Freeman, 2019-12-20 Plain and simple until our English learners have equitable access to the curriculum they will continue to struggle with subject area content And if you're relying on add-ons to fit in from your language arts basal or a supplementary program Mary Soto David Freeman and Yvonne Freeman are here to equip you with much more effective efficient and engaging strategies for helping your English learners read and write at grade level One assurance right from the start Mary David and Yvonne are not suggesting you reinvent your curriculum Instead Equitable Access for English Learners Grades K-6 focuses on how to fortify foundational practices already in place First you will learn more about the Equitable Access Approach then it's time to dive into the book's four units of study Drawing on each unit's many strategies you will discover how to apply them to any unit in your own language arts curriculum and start differentiating How to draft and implement language objectives to help English learners meet academic content standards How to make instructional input comprehensible including translanguaging strategies that draw on your students' first languages when you don't know how to speak them How to utilize the characteristics of text to support readers along with a rubric for determining a text's cultural relevance How to build students' academic content knowledge and develop academic language proficiency Each unit addresses a commonly taught topic in today's language arts programs and comes with ready to go review and preview activities key strategies grade level adaptations reflection exercises and printable online resources Taken as a whole they constitute an all new approach for providing that equitable and excellent access our English learners so rightfully deserve When you adopt our Equitable Access Approach your students will not only thrive they ll also find your language arts curriculum much more meaningful and engaging Mary Soto David E Freeman and Yvonne S Freeman

The broad objective of this special issue of Mitigation and Adaptation Strategies for Global Change is to address some of the gaps in our knowledge and understanding of the policies programs and measures that might be applied to natural hazards and their impacts in an era of climate change Given the global impacts of climate change and world wide pattern of increasing losses from natural hazards we necessarily adopt an international perspective The speci c goals of the special issue are to a encompass experiential aspects emphasizing current practice of mitigation and its associated measures and their results and b explore primary or root causes of alarming shifts in human and economic costs of environmental extremes
