

An aerial photograph of a large crowd of people on a dark, reflective surface. Overlaid on the scene is a complex network of glowing blue and white lines that connect various points, resembling a digital network or social media connections. The lines are semi-transparent and vary in thickness, creating a sense of depth and connectivity.

Designing Learning with Digital Play Fei Victor Lim,Weimin Toh,2025-12-15 Lim and Toh provide updates on recent research on digital play and learning and unite game based learning with multimodal and social semiotic theories They adopt the position that teachers or caregivers scaffolding is required when games are used in a pedagogical context such as the classroom The book offers a nuanced view of the nature and properties of games beyond motivation including the students interest and use of digital play The chapters explore the varied ways in which games are designed to promote critical thinking and reflection It expands on the teachers or caregivers scaffolding of students digital play in pedagogical contexts such as in a classroom setting where students are guided to reflect on how they perceive the representations in the game world With this openness and interest towards digital play the authors argue that it is timely for us to examine the value of digital play for learning that it can foster literacy development as well as promote growth in the affective domain They echo the call for design principles in digital play to inform the design of students learning experiences and explore ways in which digital play can be integrated into teaching and learning This book covers a topic which is both relevant and urgent in today's digital age. Of interest to anyone involved in designing learning with digital play, this volume will be of particular value to students and scholars in education, curriculum design, pedagogy, as well as multimodality.

Multiliteracies, Multimodality, and Learning by Design in Second Language Learning and Teacher Education Agustín Reyes-Torres, María Estela Brisk, Manel Lacorte, 2025-04-30. Multiliteracies, Multimodality and Learning by Design in Second Language Learning and Teacher Education offers valuable insights and practical strategies for addressing the language and literacy needs of students in diverse multilingual classrooms. This edited volume delves into the dynamic interplay between multimodality, multiliteracies, and Learning by Design (LbyD), providing evidence-based research and actionable guidance for their effective implementation in second language learning and teacher education. Examining the advantages of incorporating multimodality and multiliteracies in second language teacher training, this book emphasizes the use of multimodal texts to create engaging and meaningful lessons for L2 learners. By empowering students as active co-constructors of knowledge, this book equips educators with the necessary tools to foster a vibrant and inclusive learning environment. Designed specifically for pre-service and practicing teachers, this book serves as an indispensable resource for integrating the pedagogy of multiliteracies into both coursework and classroom practices.

New Challenges for Research on Language for Special Purposes Ingrid Simonnæs, Øivin Andersen, Klaus Schubert, 2019-08-23. This anthology consists of selected papers presented by European scholars at the 21st LSP Conference 2017 on Interdisciplinary knowledge making challenges for LSP research held at NHH Norwegian School of Economics in Bergen, Norway. The multifarious aspects of LSP research publication cover issues on terms and terminology, LSP texts from a text-linguistic approach, training in LSP settings, and translation of LSP texts. The volume gives an up-to-date selection of the ongoing research endeavours in specialised communication in subject fields ranging from maritime accidents over healthcare and financial accounting to climate change.
