Bourgois, Nancy Scheper-Hughes, 2015 In the Americas debates around issues of citizen s public safety from debates that erupt after highly publicized events such as the shootings of Jordan Davis and Trayvon Martin to those that recurrently dominate the airwaves in Latin America are dominated by members of the middle and upper middle classes However a cursory count of the victims of urban violence in the Americas reveals that the people suffering the most from violence live and die at the lowest of the socio symbolic order at the margins of urban societies The inhabitants of the urban margins are hardly ever heard in discussions about public safety They live in danger but the discourse about violence and risk belongs to is manufactured and manipulated by others others who are prone to view violence at the urban margins as evidence of a cultural or racial defect rather than question violence s relationship to economic and political marginalization As a result the experience of interpersonal violence among the urban poor becomes something unspeakable and the everyday fear and trauma lived in relegated territories is constantly muted and denied This edited volume seeks to counteract this pernicious tendency by putting under the ethnographic microscope and making public the way in which violence is lived and acted upon in the urban peripheries It features cutting edge ethnographic research on the role of violence in the lives of the urban poor in South Central and North America and sheds light on the suffering that violence produces and perpetuates as well as the individual and collective responses that violence generates among those living at the urban margins of the Americas Aging in the Family George Dickinson, Brenda Sanders, 2018-10-31 With a rapidly aging population throughout the world the issue of larger percentages of older adults has repercussions for both policy and the job market Whether a university student about to seek a full time job or a caregiver for an older person Aging in the Family should enhance the reader's knowledge and skills The main topics covered in this volume include marital status of older adults support systems within families crises with older adults within families the resilience of older adults entering the latter stages of life practical information involving caregiving aging in place and various social services for an aging population The reader will be made aware of intergenerational interactions between older adults and other family members in various cultures The role of ethnicity and socio economic status in health issues of older adults will be discussed as will the application of technology to an aging population Though problems certainly exist as one ages the overall thrust of the book is toward the positive aspects of growing old Numerous theories exist to probe research and understanding of older adults in families The relation between theory and research will be helpful to many students of aging in the family Older adults are generally married yet cohabitation and other options are alive and well too Ageism death and abuse unfortunately are issues affecting aging Yet most older adults in the US and Western Europe report living independently and being satisfied with their lives Aging in the Family will be an interesting read for anyone wanting to learn about older adults and family relationships as it exhibits a blend of both theoretical and practical matters International Responses to Gendered-Based Domestic Violence Dongling Zhang, Diana Scharff Peterson, 2023-03-23 This edited volume represents a joint effort by international experts to analyze the prevalence and nature of gender based domestic violence across the globe and how it is dealt with at both national and international levels With studies being conducted in 20 different countries and 4 distinct regions the contributors to this volume shed light on the ways in which contextual particularities shape the practices and strategies of addressing the socio cultural and legal problem of gender based domestic violence in the countries or regions where they do research Special attention is devoted to developing countries where there is a lack of a consistent legal definition of gender based domestic violence and where violence against women is widely considered a private matter The authors of the chapters share a common goal of raising public awareness of the significance in nuanced local experiences of women and other individuals from gender and sexual minority groups facing gender based violence Furthermore the authors attend analytically to the newly emerging overlapping influences of COVID 19 and global warming Their research findings acknowledge and provide a detailed account of how the two ecological and socio economic crises can combine to produce economic devastation disconnect victims from necessary social services and assistance and create a large degree of panic and uncertainty In addition they intend to offer insights into next steps to not only adjust existing public policies legislation and social services to the ever changing national and global contexts but also to make new ones The book is intended for a wide range of scholars both professors and students and practitioners in a large number of areas including but not limited to criminal justice criminology law human rights social justice social work nursing sociology and political or public affairs

Domestic Abuse and Mental Health in Qatar Khalid Al-Naama, 2025-09-26 This book delves into the mental health consequences of domestic abuse against women including PTSD depression and anxiety with a focus on Qatari women Through a combination of quantitative and qualitative research the book offers empirically grounded insights for policy interventions It highlights psychological aggression and economic abuse as the most prevalent forms of abuse while physical assault and sexual coercion are reported less frequently Additionally it explores the reasons why women often remain passive in abusive relationships The book emphasizes the need for policy measures to prevent domestic abuse and makes a valuable contribution to the growing literature on domestic abuse in the Arab world a topic that has historically received inadequate attention in academic research

Parricide and Violence against Parents Marianna Muravyeva, Phillip Shon, Raisa Maria Toivo, 2020-12-30 Parricide and Violence Against Parents takes a historical and criminological approach to the research on parricide and violence against parents placing the research in the context of social development from the 1500s to contemporary society and giving a global overview and comparison The book examines parricide and violence against parents as historically and culturally sensitive phenomena It offers evidence on a seemingly rare subject from different eras areas and cultures and then uses the cross disciplinary data to produce a new systematic insight for the reader Case studies shift the discussion from the contemporary focus on adolescent to parent abuse to examining the sources of conflict during life cycles of parents and their offspring A historical approach illuminates the variations in conflicts between parents and their offspring that are shaped by the life stages of the victims and offenders themselves across time The book argues that parental authority has been marked by property ownership and tax paying responsibilities throughout history The continued possession of property resulted in power the reluctance to part with it becoming a notable source of conflict across generations within families Parental authority was protected by means of heavy penalties and punishments and didactic teachings in almost every society at every stage of historical development It was also challenged constantly by children as a part of their coming into adulthood The abuse of parents has often been connected to situations where adult children were prevented from gaining the amount of independence appropriate to their position in life This led to disputes over authority and the legitimate grounds for that authority Offering an insight into complicated and interconnected histories of generational conflicts and how they affect modern families in different parts of the world this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of criminology history of crime history of the family family violence homicide studies gender studies history of emotions political violence and social work
