Sexual Assault on the College Campus Martin D. Schwartz, Walter S. DeKeseredy, 1997-01-02 For many students coeducational college campus life is marred by traumatic experiences of sexual assault While there are many social determinants of rape and attempted rape this work examines the pivotal role of male peer support in legitimizing the sexual assault of women The authors use extensive prior studies together with their own investigations including a national representative study and local campus victimization surveys carried out in the United States and Canada It Could Happen To Anyone Alyce D. LaViolette, Ola W. Barnett, 2000 It continues to provide understanding and empathy regarding this complex issue and presents an integrated learning theory explanation of the conditioning that culminates in wife abuse in the resulting state of the victim and in the decision to stay with an abuser BOOK JACKET The Dark Side of Courtship Sally A. Lloyd, Beth C. Emery, 2000 Blending qualitative interviews with current research findings this timely book explores the dark side of courtship the negative interactions that take place between dating and courting partners most notably physical aggression and sexual exploitation It emphasizes the importance of understanding how power dynamics verbal aggression interaction patterns issues of control and relationship dynamics are integrally tied to physical and sexual aggression The authors also examine the contextual factors that encourage the use of physical and sexual aggression in romantic relationships and allow them to continue without necessarily bringing about the demise of the relationship These contextual factors include patriarchal structures the power of romance and patterns of gender socialization Personal anecdotes from interviews conducted by the authors are interwoven with the interpersonal and contextual framework as well as the extant literature on physical and sexual aggression during courtship It is unique in its emphasis on interpersonal dynamics as the vast majority of the literature on courtship aggression has focused on the role of personality and other intra individual factors

The Handbook of Sexuality in Close Relationships John H. Harvey, Amy Wenzel, Susan Sprecher, 2004-04-26 Although sexuality is an integral part of close romantic relationships research linking these two constructs has been less systematic than other areas pertaining to close relationships To date researchers in communication sociology family studies psychology and psychiatry have made significant advances in both of these fields The editors goal is to integrate this research into one volume They bring together major scholars from the diversity of fields working on close relationship topics to examine past contributions and new directions in sexuality The emphasis is on theoretical integration and stimulation methodological rigor and critical analysis This volume explores early sexual experiences and their impact on late life sexuality how life stresses impact sexuality and satisfaction with closeness the affect of postpartum depression on sexuality and the relationship between control power anger as well as revenge and sexual processes in couples The Handbook of Sexuality in Close Relationships is intended for students and researchers in the disciplines of social clinical developmental and health psychology family studies counseling and interpersonal family and health communication An excellent reference in advanced courses in close relationships taught in psychology communications sociology anthropology and family studies the material in Part V will also appeal to clinical psychologists health professionals and policymakers Girlhood in America Miriam Forman-Brunell, 2001-06-08 This groundbreaking reference work presents more than 100 articles by 98 high profile interdisciplinary scholars covering all aspects of girls roles in American society past and present In this comprehensive readable two volume encyclopedia experts from a variety of disciplines contribute pieces to the puzzle of what it means and what it has meant over the last 400 years to be a girl in America The portrait that emerges reveals deep differences in girls experiences depending on socioeconomic context religious and ethnic traditions family life schools institutions and the messages of consumer and popular culture Girls have been commodified idealized trivialized eroticized and shaped by the powerful forces of popular culture from Little Women to Barbie Yet girls are also powerful co creators of the culture that shapes them often cleverly subverting it to their own purposes From Pocahontas to punk rockers girls have been an integral if overlooked and undervalued part of American culture Advances in Psychology and Law Brian H. Bornstein, Monica K. Miller, 2019-02-05 The present volume consists of up to date review articles on topics relevant to psychology and law and will be of current interest to the field Notably the majority of these topics are currently attracting a great deal of research and public policy attention in the U S and elsewhere as evidenced by programs at the American Psychology Law Society and related conferences Topics for the present volume include attitudes toward the police Cole et al alibis Charman et al hate crimes based on gender and sexual orientation Plumm Leighton the role of gender at trial Livingston et al neuroimages in court Glen intimate partner violence Mauer Reppucci post identification feedback Douglass Smalarz and individual differences in eyewitness identification Snowden Bornstein veterans wellbeing Berthelot Prager and plea bargaining Levett

Conflict in Personal Relationships Dudley D. Cahn, 2013-12-16 In keeping with a broad conception of interpersonal conflict this book is organized into two parts The first focuses on conflict on different types of couple relationships homosexual cross cultural dating but violent engaged and married and group relationships student peers parents and their young children and adult children and their aging parents The chapters not only review past research on conflict in some relationships but also take a significant step forward in introducing a variety of other relationship types for future research on conflict These chapters also offer evidence that conflict is experienced differently in different types of interpersonal relationships The second part of this book describes basic underlying principles and programs for dealing with interpersonal conflicts Chapters in this section discuss patterns of argument in everyday life issues associated with competence in interpersonal conflict and mediation as a form of intervention for resolution Interpersonal Communication Research Mike Allen, Raymond W. Preiss, Barbara Mae Gayle, Nancy Burrell, 2001-08 This volume provides a systematic review of the literature on interpersonal communication examining the normal practice of scholars and text to summarize existing research A valuable resource for advanced coursework as well as for scholars in the area Coercive Control Evan Stark, 2009-03-01 One of the most important books ever written on domestic violence Coercive Control breaks through entrenched views of physical abuse that have ultimately failed to protect women Evan Stark founder of one of America s first battered women s shelters shows how domestic violence is neither primarily domestic nor necessarily violent but a pattern of controlling behaviors more akin to terrorism and hostage taking Drawing on court records interviews and FBI statistics Stark details coercive strategies that men use to deny women their very personhood from beeper games to food logs to micromanaging dress speech sexual activity and work Stark urges us to move beyond the injury model and focus on the real victimization that allows men to violate women's human rights with impunity Provocative and brilliantly argued Coercive Control reframes abuse as a liberty crime rather than a crime of assault and points the way to bringing real equality for women in line with their formal rights to personhood and citizenship freedom and safety

Phenomenology of Suicide Maurizio

Pompili, 2017-10-10 This book will help the reader to understand the suicidal mind from a phenomenological point of view shedding light on the feelings of suicidal individuals and also those of clinicians In accordance with the importance that the phenomenological approach attaches to subjectivity and sense of self as the starting points for knowledge emphasis is placed on the need for the clinician to focus on the subjective experiences of the at risk individual to set aside prior assumptions judgments or interpretations and to identify ways of bridging gaps in communication associated with negative emotions The vital importance of empathy is stressed drawing attention to the insights offered by neuroimaging studies and the role of mirror neurons in social cognition It is widely acknowledged that when a clinician meets a person who wants to die by suicide the clinician does not fully understand what is going on inside the mind of that individual This book recognizes that any approach to suicide prevention must promote understanding of suicidal thoughts and feelings The awareness that it fosters and the innovative perspectives that it presents will appeal to a wide readership

Growing Up Fast Bonnie J. Ross

Leadbeater, 2014-03-05 The first edition of Growing Up Fast attempted to counter the stereotype of poor minority adolescent mothers and describe the diversity of their educational work parenting and relationship experiences The volume followed a strengths based approach to understanding why some mothers appeared resilient to the stresses of early parenting compared to their peers and what obstacles undermine resiliency for some of these young women We hear their stories in their own words We also see how many disadvantaged mothers go on to succeed in school work and parenting while avoiding many of the risk associated with teen parenting The research is based on a six year study of 120 young disadvantaged mothers and their children from New York City It uniquely combines the analysis of longitudinal questionnaire data with qualitative analysis of extensive interviews conducted with these women focusing on the first six years after their child was born A past winner of the Society for Research on Adolescence best book award Growing Up Fast is a fascinating study of human resilience that will continue to be recognized for its contribution to individuals involved in program development and policymaking with teenage parenting A new introductory chapter to the book suggests that we can look at the previous findings through a new lens that emphasizes not only the diversity of outcomes for young mothers and the sources of their strengths but also asks what we can learn from these women about supporting their educational and work goals as they transition to adulthood New attention to emerging adulthood shows that this is a critical stage of life when the foundations for health and healthy life styles are laid down Developmental tasks of this phase include building the capacity for financial and residential independence through post secondary education and job training and establishing stable sources of support from parents romantic partners and peers for all youth Leadbeater addresses the societal changes that make these tasks particularly salient for young women and focuses attention on how we can support youth who make this transition with children

Kids Who Commit Adult Crimes R. Barri Flowers, 2002 Examines the nature and causes of juvenile crime and the place of the juvenile offender in the U S justice system

The Dark Side of Close Relationships Brian H. Spitzberg, William R. Cupach, 2013-06-17 This collection of essays represents a follow up to the editors 1994 publication The Dark Side of Interpersonal Communication In the preface to that collection of essays they argued that To fully understand how people function effectively requires us to consider how individuals cope with social interaction that is difficult problematic challenging distressing and disruptive In this companion volume the focus expands from social interaction to close relationships Aside from the inherent need to investigate the bad as well as the good of interpersonal relationships the editors and their colleagues simply find the dark side metaphor to be intellectually arousing It stimulates investigation of important yet often neglected phenomena and it especially encourages consideration of the hidden and forbidden and the paradoxical and ironic elements of human relating This volume assembles the cutting edge work of first rate scholars from the ranks of communication psychology sociology and cognate disciplines As in the previous text the subject matter and stylistic approaches are diverse reflecting the broad and interdisciplinary domain that is the dark side of human affairs The selection of topics is somewhat selective reflecting only a sample of emerging scholarship in the interdisciplinary study of relationships These internationally recognized scholars examine various topics related to the dark side including fatal attractions jealousy and envy misunderstanding gossip conflict codependence sexual coercion stalking relationship termination unrequited love and mental health problems in relationships Some chapters present original data and models whereas others reconfigure the way in which the understandings of relationships can be better understood In addition the bookend chapters examine the ideology nature and problems of dark side scholarship Collectively the scholarly journeys made in this volume are intended to illustrate the complexities both moral and functional involved in close relationship processes The intent is neither to valorize nor demonize the darker aspects of close relationships but rather to emphasize their importance to the day to day doing of relationships Only by accepting such processes as integral to relationships can their role be fully understood

The Developmental Course of Romantic Relationships Brian G. Ogolsky, Sally A. Lloyd, Rodney M. Cate, 2013-07-18 Recipient of the 2014 International Association for Relationship Researchers Book Award This multidisciplinary text highlights the development of romantic relationships from initiation to commitment or demise by highlighting the historical context current research and theory and diversity of patterns Engagingly written with colorful examples the authors examine the joy stress power struggles intimacy and aggression that characterize these relationships Readers gain a better understanding as to why even after the pain and suffering associated with a breakup most of us go right back out and start again Relationships are examined through an interdisciplinary lens psychological sociological environmental and communicative perspectives are all considered End of chapter summaries lists of key concepts and additional readings serve as a review As a whole the book explores what precipitates success or failure of these relationships and how this has changed over time Highlights of the book s coverage Incorporates both cross sex and same sex romantic relationships Examines the roles of gender race class culture age and sexuality in relationship development Looks at multiple types of romantic relationships in emerging adulthood including dating and cohabitation Explores both positive and negative relational processes Analyzes the latest and most important scholarship The book opens with an introduction followed by a historical overview of the development of relationships Next relationship development models are examined including the influence of social factors and the interaction of the partners involved This volume examines how partners initiate romantic relationships including infatuation sexual attraction and the impact of technology how cohabitation affects the quality of the future of the relationship and the individual social and circumstantial factors that predict stability or break ups in romantic relationships The book ends with an examination of the dark side of relationships and suggestions for future research on romantic pairings Intended as a supplement for advanced undergraduate or graduate courses in marriage and family personal close intimate relationships or interpersonal family communication taught in human development and family studies psychology social work sociology communication counseling and therapy this book also appeals to researchers and practitioners interested in the romantic relationship processes     Dangerous Exits Walter DeKeseredy,Martin

Schwartz,2009-05-28 Decade after decade violence against women has gained more attention from scholars policy makers and the general public Social scientists in particular have contributed significant empirical and theoretical understandings to this issue Strikingly scant attention has focused on the victimization of women who want to leave their hostile partners This groundbreaking work challenges the perception that rural communities are safe havens from the brutality of urban living Identifying hidden crimes of economic blackmail and psychological mistreatment and the complex relationship between patriarchy and abuse Walter S DeKeseredy and Martin D Schwartz propose concrete and effective solutions giving voice to women who have often suffered in silence     Victimology William G. Doerner,Steven P. Lab,2014-04-29 Victimology 7th Edition introduces students to the criminal justice system in the United States and its impact on crime victims Authors William Doerner and Steven Lab provide a fresh look at the theoretical basis of victimology and then present the key facets of crime and its effects They examine financial and social costs both to the individual and to the larger community This new edition brings forward the theoretical foundation of victimology into Part 1 to establish a clear conceptual framework and reduce repetition Emerging trends in the field receive greater emphasis in this edition including non adversarial resolution options that offer remediation for crime victims Crimes like intimate partner violence and victimization in the work or school environment continue to take a toll and the authors examine efforts to prevent these crimes as well as responses after an incident occurs Doerner and Lab challenge students to rethink the current response to crime victims and to develop improved approaches to this costly social issue Online supplements are available for both professors and students This breakthrough work provides an organizing structure for the history and current state of the field of victimology and outlines the reasons compelling a separate focus on crime victims Highly readable Victimology explores the role of victimology in today s criminal justice system examining the consequences of victimization and the various remedies now available for victims A new chapter covers the important implications of restorative justice The text is supplemented by illustrative figures and tables as well as learning objectives key terms and a listing of related Internet sites      California. Court of Appeal (1st Appellate District). Records and Briefs California (State).,
