Tech Billionaires Lewis D. Solomon, 2011-12-31 In the first decade of the twenty first century a new wave of thinking has emerged from tech billionaires that may shape the way private capital gets invested to tackle social problems These entrepreneurs broke the business mold in the 1980s and 1990s and are now trying to break the traditional pattern of philanthropy pioneered by Andrew Carnegie and John D Rockefeller Sr some one hundred years ago Combining billions of dollars of their personal capital with new ideas cutting edge businesslike techniques media and marketing savvy the tech benefactors profiled in this book are attacking some of the globe s most intractable societal problems In trying to make a difference in the world these new philanthropists dubbed philanthrocapitalists by rhe author seek to break down traditional barriers dividing business charity and government As a result of the rapid wealth creation in recent years the world now boasts 1 125 billionaires many of whom are self made according to the Forbes 2008 list including Bill Gates Pierre Omidyar Jeffrey Skoll Stepehn Case Sergey Brin Larry Page and more Their massive wealth has created new philanthropic challenges

Imaginative giving by the new billionaires is beginning to transform philanthropy in terms of timing involvement strategy and tactics How this development impacts society as a whole is the subject of Lewis Solomon s book As the author notes the traditional categories of business and philanthropy may no longer serve to meet the challenge of social problems In the twenty first century the tools and resources used to solve societal problems will be far more varied and mixed than previously We now see interesting partnerships and new ways of thinking The divide between profit and social good will narrow If successful in using their money in innovative ways government or for profit business could scale up the catalytic efforts of the new philanthropists This volume is a proactive innovative guide to a new era not just a new technique of monetary support
