Starry Night Martin Bailey, 2018-08-27 Starry Night is a fully illustrated account of Van Gogh's time at the asylum in Saint Remy Despite the challenges of ill health and asylum life Van Gogh continued to produce a series of masterpieces cypresses wheatfields olive groves and sunsets He wrote very little about the asylum in letters to his brother Theo so this book sets out to give an impression of daily life behind the walls of the asylum of Saint Paul de Mausole and looks at Van Gogh through fresh eyes with newly discovered material

Van Gogh's Finale Martin Bailey, 2024-10-17 A captivating and definitive account of the final days of Van Gogh's life and the incredible story of what followed Divided into three parts the book first examines the eventful days from the artist's departure from the asylum in Saint Remy and arrival in Auvers until the shooting which brought his life to an end During this time Van Gogh completed 70 paintings in 70 days The second part delves deeper into the story of the artist's death which has intrigued both experts and the public for years revealing little known stories and uncovering overlooked accounts We then follow the story of how Van Gogh subsequently rose from relative obscurity to international renown and ultimately fame as one of the most recognisable and popular artists in the world Leading Van Gogh specialist Martin Bailey writes with insight and intelligence bringing these fateful days to life with colour and character as well as historical expertise capturing the real sense of a tragic but meaningful life truly lived Neo-Impressionism and Anarchism in Fin-de-Si?e France Robyn Roslak,2017-07-05 In Neo Impressionism and Anarchism in Fin de Si e France Robyn Roslak examines for the first time the close relationship between neo impressionist landscapes and cityscapes and the anarchist sympathies of the movement s artists She focuses in particular on paintings produced between 1886 and 1905 by Paul Signac and Maximilien Luce the neo impressionists whose fidelity to anarchism to the art of landscape and to a belief in the social potential of art was strongest Although the neo impressionists are best known for their rational and scientific technique they also heeded the era s call for art surpassing the mundane realities of everyday life By tempering their modern subjects with a decorative style they hoped to lead their viewers toward moral and social improvement Roslak s ground breaking analysis shows how the anarchist theories of Elis Reclus Pierre Kropotkin and Jean Grave both inspired and coincided with these ideals Anarchism attracted the neo impressionists because its standards for social justice were grounded like neo impressionism itself in scientific exactitude and aesthetic idealism Anarchists claimed humanity would reach its highest level of social and moral development only in the presence of a decorative variety of nature and called upon progressive thinkers to help create and maintain such environments The neo impressionists who primarily painted decorative landscapes therefore discovered in anarchism a political theory consistent with their belief that decorative harmony should be the basis for socially responsible art The Sunflowers are Mine Martin Bailey,2024-10-17 This is the story of one of the world s most iconic images Martin Bailey explains why Van Gogh painted a series of sunflower still lifes in Provence He then explores the subsequent adventures of the seven pictures and their influence on modern art Through the Sunflowers we gain fresh insights into Van Gogh s life and his path to fame Based on original research the book is packed with discoveries throwing new light on the legendary artist The Annenberg Collection Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),Colin B. Bailey,2009 The Walter and Leonore Annenberg Collection of Impressionist and Post Impressionist paintings watercolors and drawings constitutes one of the most remarkable groupings of avant garde works of art from the mid 19th to the early 20th century ever given to The Metropolitan Museum of Art A revised and expanded edition of the 1989 publication Masterpieces of Impressionism and Post Impressionism The Annenberg Collection this volume presents more than fifty masterworks by such luminaries as Manet Degas Morisot Renoir Monet Cezanne Gauguin Van Gogh Picasso and Matisse accompanied by elucidating texts and a wealth of comparative illustrations From publisher Vincent Van Gogh Vincent van Gogh,Colta Feller Ives,2005 Presents a collection of the drawings of Vincent Van Gogh providing images of his works in charcoal chalk ink graphite and watercolor and including essays the place each drawing in its historical context explaining its significance Van Gogh Enrica Crispino,2008 Arts
