Maurizio Droli, 2019-12-02 The hospitality model called Albergo Diffuso AD or scattered hotel has been engineered by Mr Giancarlo Dall'Ara and described by The New York Times as a way of bringing life back to historic towns and rural hamlets by utilizing unused rooms for tourism This simple but genial model devised in Italy in the mid 90 s received an award from the UNDP for its sustainability but despite the spread of AD s no peer reviewed books have previously been published in English focusing on this innovation In this book the author therefore begins by exploring the AD as a community based hospitality model examining both its pros and cons He then considers conviviality sense of security and other factors that Hans Magnus Enzensberger referred to as luxuries of our time for urban dwellers These represent the key pre requisites a location must possess to be deemed suitable for this innovation Next investors and co interested private public and not for profit associations are provided with a structured framework to help them achieve a defensible competitive advantage by harnessing the economic potential of valuable rare inimitable and non substitutable VRIN resources The final section assesses the AD as a business model evaluating various aspects at the heart of any business plan Calendario generale

Venice Anastasia Stouraiti, 2023-01-05 Weaving together cultural history and critical imperial studies this book shows how war and colonial expansion shaped seventeenth century Venetian culture and society Anastasia Stouraiti tests conventional assumptions about republicanism commercial peace and cross cultural exchange and offers a novel approach to the study of the Republic of Venice Her extensive research brings the history of communication in dialogue with conquest and empire building in the Mediterranean to provide an original interpretation of the politics of knowledge in wartime Venice The book argues that the Venetian Ottoman War of the Morea 1684 1699 was mediated through a diverse range of cultural mechanisms of patrician elite domination that orchestrated the production of popular consent It sheds new light on the militarisation of the Venetian public sphere and exposes the connections between bellicose foreign policies and domestic power politics in a state celebrated as the most serene republic of merchants Ruoli di anzianita del personale delle
