Peace, Conflict and Identity Robert C. Hudson (dir.), Wolfgang Benedek (dir.), Francisco Villanueva Ferrándiz (dir.), 2009-07-01 Peace Conflict and Identity is the third book in the junior series of the EDEN European Doctoral Enhancement Programme in Peace and Conflict Studies and contains cutting edge research that was first delivered in a series of presentations by PhD students at two of the EDEN Intensive Programmes held at the universities of Deusto and Graz in 2007 and 2009 respectively The book has been edited in the spirit that publishing work whilst still engaged on a post graduate research programme is an essential element of early career progression As such several of the contributors to this book have since gained their doctorates Spoils of War in the Arab East Aziz Al-Azmeh, Harout Akdedian, Haian Dukhan, 2024-01-11 Post conflict scenarios are often proposed for Arab countries that have witnessed significant changes and civil wars Yet the plans for reconciliation transitional justice and the return of the displaced often overlook the real conditions that make these recommendations impossible This book provides a critical analysis of current post conflict frameworks for Syria and Iraq Drawing on empirical research the book shows that reconciliation and reconstruction scenarios need to be considered alongside the realities on the ground It argues that Iraq and Syria exist in a condition of conflict transformation rather than of conflict termination because the extreme changes that accompanied these countries into war continue long after the conflicts end Furthermore the chapters highlight why experts should not seek solutions in culturalist terms and ancestral enmities or rely on the wartime status quo Rather they should look to the specific military political economic and socio cultural conditions that require different solutions A critical analysis of existing post conflict frameworks their applicability and their potential outcomes in Iraq and Syria the book is a vital contribution to post conflict studies It highlights the need for new approaches to reconstruction and peacebuilding in Arab countries and points to how they should be found

Formal Peace and Informal War Zoë Marriage, 2013-05-02 Northern interventions into African countries at war are dominated by security concerns bolstered by claims of shared returns and reinforcing processes of development and security As global security and human security became prominent in development policy Congo was wracked by violent rule pillage internal fighting and invasion In 2002 the Global and All Inclusive Peace was promoted by northern donors placing a formal peace on the mass of informalised wars Formal Peace and Informal War Security and Development in Congo examines how the security interests of the Congolese population have interacted with those of northern donors It explores Congo s contemporary wars and the peace agreed on in 2002 from a security perspective and challenges the asserted commonality of the liberal interventions made by northern donors. It finds that the peace framed the multiple conflicts in Congo as a civil war and engineered a power sharing agreement between elite belligerents. The book argues that the population were politically and economically excluded from the peace and have been subjected to control and containment when their security rests with power and freedom. Ethnographic Peace Research Gearoid Millar, 2017-11-24. This volume calls for an empirical extension of the local turn within peace research. Building on insights from conflict transformation, gender studies, critical International Relations and Anthropology, the contributions critique existing peace research methods as affirming unequal power, marginalizing local communities and stripping the peace kept of substantive agency and voice. By incorporating scholars from these various fields, the volume pushes for more locally grounded ethnographic and potentially participatory approaches. While recognizing that any Ethnographic Peace Research (EPR) agenda must incorporate a variety of methodologies, the volume nonetheless paves a clear path for the much needed empirical turn within the local turn literature.

International Relations Theory and South Asia (OIP) E. Sridharan, 2014-11-13. Bringing together scholarship from several South Asian countries, this volume understands conflict resolution and cooperation building in the region. The essays cover three inter-related issues: security, political economy, domestic politics and the construction of identities and normative frameworks. They employ broader social science theorizing, particularly in relation to political economy, to go beyond conceptualizations based on international relations theory. The volume takes a fresh look at the inter-relationships between issues and their analyses and eschews stand-alone topics such as Kashmir, nuclear policies or regional cooperation. Combining theory with fieldwork, it provides diverse perspectives and arguments for a more nuanced picture of international relations in South Asia.

The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Theory Lisa Disch, Mary Hawkesworth, 2018-02-01. The Oxford Handbook of Feminist Theory provides a rich overview of the analytical frameworks and theoretical concepts that feminist theorists have developed to analyze the known world. Featuring leading feminist theorists from diverse regions of the globe, this collection delves into forty-nine subject areas, demonstrating the complexity of feminist challenges to established knowledge while also engaging areas of contestation within feminist theory. Demonstrating the interdisciplinary nature of feminist theory, the chapters offer innovative analyses of topics central to social and political science, cultural studies and humanities discourses associated with medicine and science, and issues in contemporary critical theory that have been transformed through feminist theorization. The handbook identifies limitations of key epistemic assumptions that inform traditional scholarship and shows how theorizing from women's and men's lives has profound effects on the conceptualization of central categories, whether the field of analysis is aesthetics, biology, cultural studies, development, economics, film studies, health, history, literature, politics, religion, science studies, sexualities, violence or war.
