Virginia Woolf Alexandra Harris:

Virginia Woolf Alexandra Harris, 2011-10-01 An ideal introduction to the life and work of Virginia Woolf by an award winning author the story of a life lived with intensity from moment to moment and shaped into the lasting patterns of art In 1907 when she was twenty five and not yet a published novelist Virginia Stephen had everything still to prove She felt herself to be at a crossroads I shall be miserable or happy a wordy sentimental creature or a writer of such English as shall one day burn the pages Today her prose is still blazing perhaps it burns brighter than ever This is the story of how a determined young woman with a notebook became one of the greatest writers of all time It is a story that sparkles with wit and friendship language and love wicked jokes and passionate appreciation of ordinary things In this illuminating new account Alexandra Harris uses vivid flashes of detail to evoke Woolf s changing backgrounds and preoccupations We move from the close packed rhythms of a Victorian childhood to the experiments of Bloomsbury and Woolf s trial and error answers to the pressing question of how to live We see her tackling challenging forms of writing trying out different voices following flights of fancy and returning to earth Above all we see her making conscious decisions about what to do next The book considers each of the novels in context gives due prominence to a range of Woolf s dazzlingly inventive essays traces the contentious course of her afterlife and shows why seventy years after her death Virginia Woolf continues to haunt and inspire us

Virginia Woolf Alexandra Harris, 2015-05 Romantic Moderns: English Writers, Artists and the Imagination from Virginia Woolf to John Piper Alexandra Harris, 2010-11-01 Winner of the 2010 Guardian First Book Award a groundbreaking reassessment of English cultural life in the thirties and forties In the 1930s and 1940s while the battles for modern art and modern society were being fought in Paris and Spain it seemed to some a betrayal that John Betjeman and John Piper were in love with a provincial world of old churches and tea shops Alexandra Harris tells a different story eclectically passionately wittily urgently English artists were exploring what it meant to be alive at that moment and in England They showed that the modern need not be at war with the past constructivists and conservatives could work together and even the Bauhaus migr L szl Moholy Nagy was beguiled into taking photos for Betjeman s nostalgic An Oxford University Chest A rich network of personal and cultural encounters was the backdrop for a modern English renaissance This great imaginative project was shared by writers painters gardeners architects critics and composers Piper abandoned purist abstracts to make collages on the blustery coast Virginia Woolf wrote in her last novel about a village pageant on a showery summer day Evelyn Waugh Elizabeth Bowen and the Sitwells are also part of the story along with Bill Brandt and Graham Sutherland Eric Ravilious and Cecil Beaton Woolf and the City Elizabeth F. Evans, Sarah E. Cornish, 2010 Edited collection from acclaimed contemporary Woolf scholars focusing on urban issues These include addressing the ethical and political implications of Virginia Woolf s work a move that suggests new insights into Woolf as a real world social critic The Reimagining of Place in English Modernism Sam Wiseman, 2015 Analyses key texts by D H Lawrence John Cowper Powys Mary Butts and Virginia

The Foundations and Versatility of English Language Teaching (ELT) Christoph Haase,Natalia Orlova,Joel Cameron Head,2018-12-14 While the field of ELT studies sees continued horizontal and vertical diversification it is also time to take stock of what has made the discipline the field it presents itself as today As horizontal diversification we can identify trends that involve a continued inclusion of more fields of study into the family of methods and approaches of ELT Especially in the technical sense e learning has matured and new forms of online learning and teaching have emerged be it via teleconferences or short message services for vocabulary training However a massive extension has occurred within the so called social media The vertical dimension affects a depth of analysis not seen even a decade ago when for example small and relatively simple learner corpora were used for linguistic analysis that rarely went beyond rote frequency counts The increasing sophistication in these two dimensions is also reflected in the research papers collected in this volume

British Literature and Culture in Second World Wartime Beryl Pong,2020 Demonstrates how spatial and temporal dislocation were defining traits of the artistic response to the urban bombing campaigns of the Second World War Studying a range of writers as well as film photography and art it argues that for civilian populations aerial bombardment distorts the experience of time itself

Where Light in Darkness Lies Veronica della Dora,2022-05-16 An illuminating history of both real life lighthouses and the beacons of literature and art alike shedding light on the multifaceted power of these liminal structures Suspended between sea and sky battered by the waves and the wind lighthouses mark the battle lines between the elements They guard the boundaries between the solid human world and the primordial chaos of the waters between stability and instability between the known and the unknown As such they have a strange universal appeal that few other manmade structures possess Engineered to draw the gaze of sailors lighthouses have likewise long attracted the attention of soldiers and saints artists and poets novelists and filmmakers colonizers and migrants and today more than ever heritage tourists and developers Their evocative locations isolation and resilience have turned these structures into complex metaphors magnets for stories This book explores the rich story of the lighthouse in the human imagination

Weatherland Alexandra Harris,2016-03-01 A lively look at the English literary and artistic responses to the weather from Chaucer and Shakespeare to Keats and Ian McEwan In a sweeping panorama Weatherland allows us to witness England s cultural climates across the centuries Before the Norman Conquest Anglo Saxons living in a wintry world wrote about the coldness of exile or the shelters they had to defend against enemies outside The Middle Ages brought the warmth of spring the new lyrics were sung in praise of blossoms and cuckoos Descriptions of a rainy night are rare before 1700 but by the end of the eighteenth century the Romantics had adopted the squall as a fit subject for their most probing thoughts The weather is vast and yet we experience it intimately and Alexandra Harris builds her remarkable story from small evocative details There is the drawing of a twelfth century man in February warming bare toes by the fire There is the tiny glass left behind from the Frost Fair of 1684 and the Sunspan house in Angmering that embodies the bright ambitions of the 1930s Harris catches the distinct voices of compelling individuals Bloody cold says Jonathan Swift in the slobbery January of 1713 Percy Shelley wants to become a cloud and John Ruskin wants to bottle one Weatherland is a celebration of English air and a life story of those who have lived in it The Rising Down Alexandra Harris,2024-03-19 Remarkable THE TIMES Wonderful GUARDIAN Fascinating DAILY TELEGRAPH A landscape keyhole onto the whole world Glorious Robert Macfarlane A thrill akin to discovering buried treasure RICHARD MABEY When Alexandra Harris returned to her childhood home of West Sussex she realised that she barely knew the place at all As she probed beneath the surface excavating layers of archival records and everyday objects hundreds of unexpected stories and hypnotic voices emerged from the area s past These electrifying encounters ranging from those with the painter John Constable and the modernist writer Ford Madox Ford to the lost local women who left little trace inspired her to imagine lives that though seemingly distant are deeply connected through this shared landscape By focusing on one small patch of England Harris opens vast new horizons Romantic Moderns Richard Tillinghast,2013 Tillinghast reviews Romantic Moderns English Writers Artists and the Imagination from Virginia Woolf to John Piper by Alexandra Harris Thames Hudson 2010
