religions establishment of global governance and creation of a new Earth based global spirituality in effect a one world religion Therefore the URI and the interfaith movement are poised to become the spiritual foundation of the New World Order the new civilization now proposed by Mikhail Gorbachev the last leader of the Soviet Union In The Reign of Quantity and the Signs of the Times French metaphysician Ren Gu non spoke of the anti tradition the forces of materialism and secular humanism finally giving way to the counter tradition the satanic inversion of true spirituality leading to the regime of Antichrist The anti tradition weakens and dissolves traditional spiritualities after which the counter tradition sets up a counterfeit in their place Since Gu non s time as is well known anti traditional forces have greatly advanced worldwide It is less well known that counter traditional movements have also made great strides and now stand closer to the centers of global political and religious power than ever before The counter tradition is making inroads on the political and cultural Right as much as it is doing on the Left False Dawn painstakingly documents these trends and speculates on their future development In so doing the author takes investigative reporting to the threshold of prophecy and gives us a stunningly plausible picture of the global religious landscape of the 21st century This extraordinary project is the literary equivalent of turning over a flat rock There is much to be seen and learned here all of it unsettling disquieting occasionally downright scary William Murchison Radford Distinguished Professor Baylor University When a bishop of a Christian church happily worships alongside a Wiccan invoking other gods something has gone horribly wrong In False Dawn Lee Penn has produced a comprehensive and critical history of the United Religions Initiative This book sounds a clear warning Anyone who makes theological truth subservient to utopianism denigrates all religions Douglas LeBlanc Editor GetReligion org

The Journey Elyn Aviva, 2004 New Age, 2001 Mother, Creature, Kin Chelsea Steinauer-Scudder, 2025-04-08 Luminous nonfiction about the natural world from essayist Chelsea Steinauer Scudder who asks what can other than human creatures teach us about mothering, belonging, caregiving, loss, and resiliency. What does it mean to be a mother in an era of climate catastrophe? And what can we learn from the plants and creatures who mother at the edges of their world? s unraveling. Becoming a mother in this time means bringing life into a world that appears to be coming undone. Drawing upon ecology, mythology, and her own experiences as a new mother, Steinauer Scudder confronts what it means to mother, to do the good work of being in service to the living world. What if we could all mother the places we live and the beings with whom we share those places? And what if they also mother us? In prose that teems with longing lyricism and knowledge of ecology, Steinauer Scudder writes of the silent flight and aural maps of barn owls, of nursing whales, of real and imagined forests, of tidal marshes, of ancient single-celled organisms, and of newly planted gardens. The creatures inhabiting these stories teach us about centering, belonging, entanglement, edgework, homemaking, and how to imagine the future. Rooted in wonder while never shying away from loss, Mother, Creature, Kin reaches toward a language of inclusive care learned from creatures living at the brink. Writing in the tradition of Camille Dungy, Elizabeth Rush, and Margaret Renkl, Steinauer Scudder invites us into the daily, obligatory, sacred work of care. Despair and fear will not save the world any more than they will raise our children, and while we don't know what the future holds, we know it will need mothers. As the very ground shifts beneath our feet, what if we apprenticed ourselves to the creaturely mothers with whom we share this beloved home?
