The Woman in the Violence M. Cristina Alcalde, 2010-12-10 Combating abuse and violence in a South American capital

Feminist and Human Rights Struggles in Peru Pascha Bueno-Hansen, 2015-07-30 In 2001 following a generation of armed conflict and authoritarian rule the Peruvian state created a Truth and Reconciliation Committee TRC Pascha Bueno Hansen places the TRC feminist and human rights movements and related non governmental organizations within an international and historical context to expose the difficulties in addressing gender based violence Her innovative theoretical and methodological framework based on decolonial feminism and a critical engagement with intersectionality facilitates an in depth examination of the Peruvian transitional justice process based on field studies and archival research Bueno Hansen uncovers the colonial mappings and linear temporality underlying transitional justice efforts and illustrates why transitional justice mechanisms must reckon with the societal roots of atrocities if they are to result in true and lasting social transformation Original and bold Feminist and Human Rights Struggles in Peru elucidates the tension between the promise of transitional justice and persistent inequality and impunity Peruvian Lives across Borders M. Cristina

Alcalde, 2018-06-14 In Peruvian Lives across Borders M Cristina Alcalde examines the evolution of belonging and the making of home among middle and upper class Peruvians in Peru the United States Canada and Germany Alcalde draws on interviews surveys participant observation and textual analysis to argue that to belong is to exclude To that end transnational Peruvians engage in both subtle and direct policing along the borders of belonging These acts allow them to claim and maintain the social status they enjoyed in their homeland even as they profess their openness and tolerance Alcalde details these processes and their origins in Peru s gender racial and class hierarchies As she shows the idea of return whether desired or rejected imagined or physical spurs constructions of Peruvianness belonging and home Deeply researched and theoretically daring Peruvian Lives across Borders answers fascinating questions about an understudied group of migrants

The Aesthetic and Political Practices of Trans Women in Peru Paola Patiño Rabines, 2023-12-27 This book explores the political aesthetic practices of transgender women in Lima Peru and how they use these to survive and fight for recognition and full citizenship through drawing on ethnographic research and on decolonial feminist and aesthetic theories Chapters analyze how the vulnerability and precariousness of trans women coexist with modes of feminist agency resistance and resilience as well as with proposals for political action to transform a heteropatriarchal society toward a more diverse and accepting one Finally the author draws on the Viennese artist Friedensreich Hundertwasser s metaphor of the five skins whereby the first skin is the epidermis the second is the clothes the third is the house the fourth is identity which refers to primary socialization spaces such as the neighbourhood and the fifth is the world environment The author uses this metaphor to analyze the corporal practices of trans women in a cumulative way paying special attention to the different stages of their lives to those skins that embody and accompany them from childhood to adulthood This book will be of interest to scholars of transgender studies decolonial feminist studies and aesthetic particularly those with a focus on gender and sexuality in Latin America Mapping Feminist Anthropology in the Twenty-First Century Ellen Lewin, Leni M. Silverstein, 2016-07-07

Feminist anthropology emerged in the 1970s as a much needed corrective to the discipline's androcentric biases. Far from being a marginalized subfield, it has been at the forefront of developments that have revolutionized not only anthropology but also a host of other disciplines. This landmark collection of essays provides a contemporary overview of feminist anthropology's historical and theoretical origins, the transformations it has undergone, and the vital contributions it continues to make to cutting edge scholarship. Mapping Feminist Anthropology in the Twenty First Century brings together a variety of contributors giving a voice to both younger researchers and pioneering scholars who offer insider perspectives on the field's foundational moments. Some chapters reveal how the rise of feminist anthropology shaped and was shaped by the emergence of fields like women's studies, black and Latina studies, and LGBTQ studies. Others consider how feminist anthropologists are helping to frame the direction of developing disciplines like masculinity studies, affect theory, and science and technology studies. Spanning the globe from India to Canada, from Vietnam to Peru, Mapping Feminist Anthropology in the Twenty First Century reveals the important role that feminist anthropologists have played in worldwide campaigns against human rights abuses, domestic violence, and environmental degradation. It also celebrates the work they have done closer to home, helping to explode the developed world's preconceptions about sex, gender, and sexuality. Decolonising Andean Identities Rebecca Irons, Phoebe Martin, 2024-06-03 Decolonising Andean Identities presents ground breaking work from scholars carrying out social science research in and from Andean Latin America. It addresses themes of central importance to contemporary perspectives on interdisciplinary gender studies and politics in societies undergoing significant social transformation. The collection aims to develop the field of decolonial gender studies by showcasing interdisciplinary work at the forefront of scholarship. It draws on international expertise through its diverse contributors, including predominately Latin American scholars. There is an urgent need to broaden the perspectives on gender and gender based activism in Latin America beyond the Southern Cone and Mexico in order to bring the region as a whole into dialogue with global scholarship. The contributors use the term Andinx as a provocation to encourage scholars of the region to reconsider approaches to the politics of gender, sexuality, and decoloniality. By responding to the question 'Who are Andinx?', the collection interrogates the postcolonial gendered and political subjectivities currently undergoing dramatic social change in Andean Latin America. Praise for Decolonising Andean Identities Decolonizing Andean Identities is a brilliant contribution to the scholarship of the Andean region that offers readers a new grammar for thinking about gender and feminist activism in a decolonial register. Irons and Martin introduce the term Andinx as a critical reevaluation of andeanism, pushing the boundaries of academic discourse to encompass the rich, multifaceted experiences of those living in the Andes today. Julieta Chaparro Buitrago, University of Cambridge. This is a timely and inspirational collection that captures the power and potential of intersectional feminist activism in the Andes Breaking new ground conceptually through the term Andinx it also provides fascinating decolonial insights into gender sexualities indigeneity and feminism Cathy McIlwaine King s College London The Popular Economy in Urban Latin America Eveline Dürr,Juliane Müller,2019-05-14 The Popular Economy in Urban Latin America Informality Materiality and Gender in Commerce advances comparative knowledge and theoretical reflections on urban popular economies in Latin America by going beyond the lenses of so called informal and street economies Contributors address case studies in Brazil Bolivia Cuba Ecuador Mexico and Peru to provide new insights in key concepts such as informality materiality and gender These case studies work to understand which actors and with what agencies are forming and transforming street markets and other place based economies and to what effects Remaining sensitive to history power and urban politics this book offers an ethnographically informed cultural and socio material perspective on how popular economies and commerce thrive transform and persist in Latin American cities today Scholars of anthropology economics Latin American studies urban studies and sociology will find this book particularly useful STRUKTURAL 2020 Nina Setyaningsih,Sri Mulatsih,Neni Kurniawati,2021-09-10 We proudly present the proceedings of 2nd International Seminar on Translation Studies Applied Linguistics Literature and Cultural Studies 2020 STRUKTURAL 2020 It focuses on how disruptive era influences participants field of researches especially in Humanities and Social Studies As we know the world today is changing and the world we are facing now is the one where everything is connected Not only are our PCs our tablets our hand phones and other devices connected but everything that happens in societies is also now connected Today even a robbery incident in a small village has a possibility to make a city in another part of the world collapse This butterfly effect of social change may also give a big impact in our understanding and our field of study of social sciences and humanities More than 70 manuscripts were presented at this conference with around 41 of them selected to be published in proceedings We hope by this conference discussions on how research on humanities and social studies is possible in a disruptive era will give a perspective for the social and humanities studies development Desired States Lessie Jo Frazier,2020-06-12 Desired States challenges the notion that in some cultures sex and sexuality have become privatized and located in individual subjectivity rather than in public political practices and institutions Instead the book contends that desire is a central aspect of political culture Based on fieldwork and archival research Frazier explores the gendered and sexualized dynamics of political culture in Chile an imperialist context asking how people connect with and become mobilized in political projects in some cases or in others become disaffected or are excluded to varying degrees The book situates the state in a rich and changing context of transnational and localized movements imperialist interests geo political conflicts and market forces to explore the broader struggles of desiring subjects especially in those dimensions of life that are explicitly sexual and amorous free love movements marriage the sixties sexual revolution in Cold War contexts prostitution policies ideas about men s gratification the charisma of leaders and sexual domestic violence against women New Books on Women, Gender and
