Natural Resource-Based Development in Africa Nathan Andrews, J. Andrew Grant, Jesse Salah Ovidia, 2022-03-01 There is no question that Africa is endowed with abundant natural resources of different magnitudes However more than a decade of high commodity prices and new hydrocarbon discoveries across the continent has led countless international organizations donor agencies and non governmental organizations to devote considerable attention to the potential of natural resource based development Natural Resource Based Development in Africa places a particular emphasis on the actors that help us understand the extent to which resources could be transformed into broader developmental outcomes Based on a wide variety of primary sources and fieldwork including in person interviews and participant observations this collection contributes to both scholarly and policy discussions around the governance and economic development roles of local entrepreneurs transnational firms civil society groups local communities and government agencies in Africa's natural resource sectors Natural Resource Based Development in Africa explores the impact that these actors have on regional trends such as resource nationalism and local procurement policies as well as grassroots related issues such as poverty livelihoods gender equity development and human security

The Distributional Impacts of Trade Jakob Engel, Deeksha Kokas, Gladys Lopez-Acevedo, Maryla Maliszewska, 2021-06-09 Trade is a well established driver of growth and poverty reduction But changes in trade policy also have distributional impacts that create winners and losers It is vital to understand and clearly communicate how trade affects economic well being across all segments of the population as well as how policies can more effectively ensure that the gains from trade are distributed more widely The Distributional Impacts of Trade Empirical Innovations Analytical Tools and Policy Responses provides a deeper understanding of the distributional effects of trade across regions industries and demographic groups within countries over time It includes an overview chapter 1 a review of innovations in empirical and theoretical work covering the impacts of trade at the subnational level chapter 2 highlights from empirical case studies on Bangladesh Brazil Mexico South Africa and Sri Lanka chapter 3 and a policy agenda to improve distributional outcomes from trade chapter 4 This book comes at a time when the shock from COVID 19 coronavirus adds to an already uncertain trade policy environment in which the value of the multilateral trading system has been under increased scrutiny A better understanding of how trade affects distributional outcomes can lead to more inclusive policies and support the ability of countries to maximize broad based benefits from trade

Trade and Competitiveness Global Practice Anabel Gonzalez, For the past three decades economic growth with strong contributions from the private sector has been the main driver of poverty reduction around the world The experience of China Vietnam and other high growth countries dramatically demonstrates how integration with global markets and enhanced competitiveness can develop dynamic and resilient economies These economies improve the earnings of the less well off by creating more better paying jobs They also converge with advanced economies by achieving productivity gains Achieving the World Bank Group's Twin Goals of ending extreme poverty and boosting shared prosperity requires unprecedented efforts by developing countries to unleash private sector led growth and job creation Governments and the private sector around the world are actively seeking more effective ways of boosting the volume and value of trade enhancing the investment climate improving competitiveness in sectors and fostering innovation and entrepreneurship all elements of successful growth strategies The establishment of the Trade and Competitiveness Global Practice signals the World Bank Group's commitment to systematically strengthen its engagement on these issues

Central Asia Regional Economic Cooperation Corridor Performance Measurement and Monitoring Asian Development Bank, 2014-11-01 This report describes how Central Asia Regional Economic Cooperation CAREC corridor performance measurement and monitoring CPMM helps to achieve the objectives of the CAREC Transport and Trade Facilitation Strategy and its Implementation Action Plan It presents the CPMM methodology and discusses the roles and responsibilities of key stakeholders especially the private sector It highlights ongoing efforts to provide accurate and reliable indicators despite the challenges of measuring corridor performance in the CAREC context The extensive depth of data collected and the richness of information that CPMM has been providing since 2009 supports detailed policy analysis and formulation Trade facilitation indicators have been developed to inform CAREC's Development Effectiveness Review These indicators provide a basis of comparison or benchmarking of one location border crossing point or corridor segment against another in terms of i the efficiency of border management agency policies and procedures in regulating trade ii infrastructure quality and in due course iii the quality and performance of trade logistics service providers The four indicators include the standard measures of time and cost as the main components Selected corridor performance data are then analyzed to identify the physical and non physical barriers to trade and transit traffic encountered at specific locations helping to pinpoint the causes of excessive delays and costs With this study ADB underscores the value of CPMM for CAREC countries and for countries participating in other subregional programs as they craft policies and consider investments to facilitate trade

International Economic Law and the Challenges of the Free Zones Julien Chaisse, Jiaxiang Hu, 2019-05-02 Special economic zones SEZs have become a permanent feature of the world trade scene This book the first to provide a critical and comprehensive analysis of SEZs covering a wide spectrum of countries and regions shows how SEZs albeit established at the domestic level by different countries raise multiple legal issues under international economic law This first rate book is the product of the Asia FDI Forum IV held in Hong Kong in 2018 Thoroughly exploring the development of the SEZ phenomenon and its players the contributing authors all leading economic law experts review the issues raised by SEZs in the context of international trade law international investment law and investment arbitration They identify the extent to which SEZs have been coherent in their design and policymaking in particular with regard to domestic law reforms They address such aspects both core themes and specific examples as the following investment protection in China s SEZs state owned enterprises regulation dispute settlement under what circumstances incentives available in SEZs count as export subsidies prohibited under World Trade Organization WTO rules compliance with internal market rules in European Union EU free zones local populations as victims of land expropriation Brazil s Manaus Free Trade Zone India s experience with multiple SEZs the administrative approval system in the Shanghai Free Trade Zone economic corridors and transit routes as SEZs refugee cities SEZs for migrants how China s Supreme People s Court serves national strategy how foreign investors challenge free zone regimes impacts of the establishment of SEZs on tax revenues SEZs and labour migration and management models The chapters also include insights into the new emerging generation of international investment agreements WTO accession transparency and case law materials clarifying specific trade issues associated with SEZs and new rules to protect the environment and labour rights as well as analysis of crucially significant cases such as Goetz v The Republic of Burundi Lee Jong Baek v Kyrgyzstan and Ampal American and Others v Egypt With its critical and comprehensive analysis of the dynamic SEZ phenomenon across legal economic investment regulatory and policy matrices including a thorough analysis of the success factors and required policies for SEZs this book takes a giant step towards answering the question whether SEZs fundamentally contradict norms of international law or whether SEZs have to be considered as laboratories which facilitate the implementation of international economic policies Its careful examination of theory and practice and its approach to lessons learned from case studies will reward trade and investment officials policymakers diplomats economists lawyers think tanks business leaders and others interested in this ever more important area of law and economics

Land, Investment & Politics Jeremy Lind, Doris Okenwa, Ian Scoones, 2020 More than ever before the gaze of global investment has been directed to the drylands of Africa but what does this mean for these regions pastoralists and other livestock keepers and their livelihoods Will those who have occupied drylands over generations benefit from the developments as claimed or is this a new type of territorialisation exacerbating social inequality This book s detailed local studies of investments at various stages of development from Kenya Tanzania Somaliland Ethiopia explore for the first time how large land resource and infrastructure projects shape local politics and livelihoods Land and resources use based on ancestral precedence and communal practices and embedded regional systems of trade are unique to these areas yet these lands are now seen as the new frontier for development of national wealth By examining the ways in which large scale investments enmesh with local political and social relations the chapters show how even the most elaborate plans of financiers contractors and national governments come unstuck and are re made in the guise of not only states grand modernist visions but also those of herders and small town entrepreneurs in the pastoral drylands The contributors also demonstrate how and why large scale investments have advanced in a more piecemeal way as the challenges of implementation have mounted

India's Economic Corridor Initiatives Kashif Hasan Khan, 2024-03-04 India s Economic Corridor Initiatives highlights key aspects of current discourses on India s initiative of the International North South Transport Corridor INSTC and Chabahar and their geo economic significance INSTC was founded by India Russia and Iran and the Chabahar port in Iran provides a major prospective conduit for India s interchange and commerce with West Central Asia while maintaining a strategic distance from Pakistan s entry route This book analyses the drastic changes in the equation of international relations in general and more particularly between India and Eurasian countries Contributors from Iran Central Asia Russia Armenia and Europe provide a wide spectrum of opinion and analysis on the subject The chapters claim that these corridors provide an alternative to the BRI and can play a pivotal role in de escalating tensions through negotiations A new addition to the debate on contemporary dynamics in Eurasia and India this book will be of interest to researchers studying economic corridors transnational and trans regional economic relationships security studies regional and area studies international relations and Indo Iran Russia relations
