Training Guide For Deaconesses:

Women Deacons and Deaconesses Charles W. Deweese, 2005 Divided opinion on the topic of this book has caused controversy in Baptist history and life Most Baptist individuals and churches have strongly opposed women deacons Some Baptist associations have even disfellowshipped churches that have approved women deacons And women in general have been suppressed by many recent actions of the Southern Baptist Convention thereby affecting women deacons However thousands of Baptist churches include women in their deacon bodies and find that they make invaluable contributions The book presents arguments on both sides of the topic but lands squarely in support of women deacons Deaconess

Meadows, 2020-11-24 While her husband pursued a four year Master of Divinity degree from Concordia Seminary in St Louis Kate Meadows wondered how she fit into the process of her husband becoming a pastor In the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod only men can be ordained as pastors The men who come to the seminary have a well paved road ahead of them The women who come with those men don't As women we ask ourselves Who am I in this process and Where do I fit Kate never envisioned herself as a pastor's wife in fact she wasn't sure she wanted to be one Yet if God was leading her husband into the ministry who was she to say No And what was it about that term pastor's wife that made her uneasy anyway What did it even mean to be a pastor's wife in the modern day At the seminary Kate started talking to other women who had faithfully followed their husbands on the path to ministry Through a series of more than fifty interviews she learned that the journey of becoming a pastor's wife is rich with questions discovery and joy Faith to Follow chronicles the woman's experience of preparing to become a pastor's wife It also may be a springboard for dialogue within churches across America about the importance of encouraging and cultivating future church leaders and raising up strong families in the Christian faith

Deeper Joy, 2005 Silenced Christy Mesaros-Winckles, 2023-09-25 In Silenced The Forgotten Story of Progressive Era Free Methodist Women Christy Mesaros Winckles delves into the gender debates within the Free Methodist Church of North America during the Progressive Era 1890 1920 This interdisciplinary work draws on narrative research and gender studies to reconstruct the lives of forgotten women who served as Free Methodist evangelists and deacons examining their writings and speeches to illustrate how they promoted and defended their ministries Mesaros Winckles argues that the history of Free Methodist women is a microcosm of the struggle for recognition and acceptance faced by women across numerous evangelical traditions especially amidst rising fundamentalism at the turn of the twentieth century This book provides an important contribution to the fields of American history theology media studies and gender studies and will also be of interest to rhetorical history and communication theory scholars No Man's Land Priscilla Pope-Levison, 2025-10-28 No Man's Land by Priscilla Pope Levison award winning author and former president of the Historical Society of the United Methodist Church and the Wesleyan Theological Society is a groundbreaking study of the international characteristics of a remarkable but largely forgotten women's movement of Methodist deaconesses Pope Levison has carefully curated archival resources vivid vignettes striking photos and intimate personal diaries to offer us not just a historical overview but an encounter with the women who left their homes in Australia Great Britain Canada continental Europe New Zealand the Philippines and the United States to don the black dresses distinctive bonnets and sturdy shoes of a burgeoning movement dedicated to serving those ground down by suffering sickness poverty and addiction This is not just any book It is an experience that captures the lost lives of women who visited in tenements waited on train platforms to welcome young boys and girls arriving alone who nursed and preached and taught and fed Deaconesses carved out a precarious existence in no man's land neither fully clergy nor fully laity that nonetheless galvanized an international network of Methodist women

Annual Report of the Church Training and Deaconess House of the Diocese of Pennsylvania, 1902 Authority Vested Mary Todd, 2000 Like other major Protestant denominations in the United States the 2.6 million member Luther Church Missouri Synod LCMS founded in 1847 has struggled with issues of relevance and identity in society at large In this book Mary Todd chronicles the history of this struggle for identity in the LCMS critically examining the central often contentious issue of authority in relation to Scripture ministry and the role of women in the church In recounting the history of the denomination Todd uses the ministry of women as a case study to show how the LCMS has continually redefined its concept of authority in order to maintain its own historic identity Based on oral histories and solid archival research Authority Vested not only explores the internal life of a significant denomination but also offers critical insights for other churches seeking to maintain their Christian distinctives in religiously pluralistic America The Methodist Experience in America Volume I Kenneth E.
