The Graphic Novel Jan Baetens,2001 The essays collected in this volume were first presented at the international and interdisciplinary conference on the Graphic Novel hosted by the Institute for Cultural Studies University of Leuven in 2000

The issues discussed by the conference are twofold. Firstly, that of trauma representation, an issue escaping by definition from any imaginable specific field. Secondly, that of a wide range of topics concerning the concept of visual narrative, an issue which can only be studied by comparing as many media and practices as possible. The essays of this volume are grouped here in two major parts, their focus depending on either a more general topic or on a very specific graphic author. The first part of the book, Violence and trauma in the Graphic Novel, opens with a certain number of reflections on the representation of violence in literary and visual graphic novels and continues with a whole set of close readings of graphic novels by Art Spiegelman's Maus I and II and Jacques Tardi whose masterwork C'est la guerre des tranchées is still waiting for its complete English translation. The second part of the book presents in the first place a survey of the current graphic novel production and insists sharply on the great diversity of the range in the various continental traditions, for instance underground comix and feminist comics, high art graphic novels, critical superheroes fiction, whose separation is nowadays increasingly difficult to maintain. It continues and ends with a set of theoretical interventions where not only the reciprocal influences of national and international traditions but also those between genres and media are strongly forwarded, the emphasis being here mainly on problems concerning ways of looking and positions of spectatorship.
