Digital Femininities Frankie Rogan,2022-07-01 Digital Femininities The Gendered Construction of Cultural and Political Identities Online examines the role of new media technologies in the production of girls cultural and political identities The book argues that the varied and complex spaces which make up our social media should be conceptualised as important terrains upon which neoliberal and postfeminist subjectivities can be both reproduced and subverted In doing so the book explores many key issues underpinning current debates around gender politics and digital media including gendered spatial politics visibility surveillance and regulation beauty politics and civic and political engagement and activism Over the last decade the position of girls and young women within the digital landscape of social media has been a topic of much debate On the one hand girls social media practices are presented as a key site of concern wherein new digital technologies are said to have produced an intensification of individualised neoliberal and postfeminist identities Conversely others have championed access to social media for young people as a potentially useful political tool enabling previously marginalised political subjects such as girls to access and participate within new and exciting political cultures Locating itself at the intersection of these two approaches this book offers a fresh contribution to these debates Based upon the findings from focus groups with girls and young women aged between 12 and 18 in England the book offers an in depth analysis of the digital cultures that emerged from the study This timely book will be essential reading for anyone interested in contemporary femininity and feminism and the role of digital media in the production of cultural political and gendered identities

11th European Conference on Social Media Dr Panagiotis Fotaris,2024-05-30 These proceedings represent the work of contributors to the 11th European Conference on Social Media ECSM 2024 hosted by the University of Brighton UK on 30 31 May 2024 The Conference and Programme Chair is Dr Panagiotis Fotaris from the University of Brighton ECSM is now a well established event on the academic research calendar and now in its 11th year the key aim remains the opportunity for participants to share ideas and meet the people who hold them The scope of papers will ensure an interesting two days The subjects covered illustrate the wide range of topics that fall into this important and ever growing area of research The Postemotional Bully Stjepan

Mestrovic, 2014-12-15 The topics of bullying and hazing have sparked interest and discussion in recent years Hazing is a crime in the United States and Western nations have made efforts to stamp out bullying in schools the workplace and institutions However for the most part bullying and hazing are ill defined and lack theoretical perspective Mestrovic brings classical as well as contemporary social theory to bear on this discussion Thorstein Veblen defined the predatory barbarian as the social type enshrined by modernity who prefers to use force over peaceable means to achieve ends On the other extreme Marcel Mauss wrote about the spirit of the gift and its obligations to give to receive and to reciprocate as the fundamental basis of social life Yet he argued that the spirit of modernity was disappearing with the progress of modernity Mestrovic traces this fundamental opposition between barbaric force or bullying versus benign obligation that is the spirit of the gift through a host of modernist and postmodernist thinkers and theories He introduces the concept of the postemotional bully as an alternative to both of these major bodies of social theory The postemotional bully as a social type is fungible beset by screen images on media and social media that are isolating and is at the mercy of the peer group Case studies focus on bullying and hazing specifically the cases of an American soldier who committed suicide in Afghanistan instances of torture at Abu Ghraib and the murder of a 23 year old African American inmate in a Southern state prison in the US
