Viorst, 2010-05-11 From grief and mourning to aging and relationships poet and Redbook contributor Judith Viorst presents a thoughtful and researched study in this examination of love loss and letting go Drawing on psychoanalysis literature and personal experience Necessary Losses is a philosophy for understanding and accepting life s inevitabilities In Necessary

Losses Judith Viorst turns her considerable talents to a serious and far reaching subject how we grow and change through the losses that are a certain and necessary part of life She argues persuasively that through the loss of our mothers protection the loss of the impossible expectations we bring to relationships the loss of our younger selves and the loss of our loved ones through separation and death we gain deeper perspective true maturity and fuller wisdom about life She has written a book that is both life affirming and life changing It's Hard to Be Hip Over Thirty Judith Viorst,2019-04-02

Bringing together some of the best of Judith Viorst's witty and perceptive poetry and featuring the illustrations from the original edition by John Alcorn Viorst explores the all too true ironies and absurdities of being a woman in the modern world Whether she's finding herself or finding a sitter contemplating her sex life as she rubs hormone night cream on her face or wrestling with the contradiction of falling in love with a man her parents would actually approve of Viorst transforms the familiar events of daily life into poems that make you laugh with recognition Here is the young single girl leaving her parents home for life in the big city No I do not believe in free love And yes I will be home for Sunday dinners Here is the aspiring bohemian with an expensive liberal arts education getting coffee and taking dictation Hoping that someday someone will be impressed With all I know Here is that married woman coping with motherhood The tricycles are cluttering my foyer The Pop Tart crumbs are sprinkled on my soul and fantasy affairs I could imagine cryptic conversations clandestine martinis and me explaining that long kisses clog my sinuses and all too real family reunions Four aunts in pain taking pills One cousin in analysis taking notes And here she is at mid life wondering whether a woman who used to wear a Ban the Bomb button can find happiness being a person with a set of fondue forks a fish poacher and a wok Every step of the way It's Hard to be Hip Over Thirty and Other Tragedies of Married Life demonstrates once and for all that no one understands American women coming of age like Judith Viorst It's Hard to be Hip Over Thirty and Other Tragedies of Married Life is a reissue of the previous collection originally titled When Did I Stop Being Twenty and Other Injustices Making the Best of What's Left Judith Viorst,2025-04

Throughout her career Judith Viorst has written numerous books reflecting on life as she ages Now in her nineties she shares her experiences in life's final fifth in this collection of poetry and essays On her retirement community she notes that it is wonderful marvelous swell good as gold Except for this one little problem everyone's old On her late husband who died of COVID 19 in 2022 she pleads I need you fixing our damn circuit breakers I need you Could you please stop being dead With humor and vulnerability Viorst invites readers to dance with her between grief and levity and to enjoy the time we have left to share How Did I Get to Be Forty Judith Viorst,2014-10-21

And so you've reached that time in life when you're stating to pick investments over adventure clean over scenic comfortable over intense when even though in your heart of hearts you're only seventeen the rest of you is how did it happen forty The wise and witty lady of It's Hard to Be Hip Over Thirty is here to get you through these forty-ish years with poems that reflect our common shared experience So let her help you take a look at that decade of sagging kneecaps and college reunions and fantasies of love in
