Christianity struggles to show how living on earth matters for living with God While people of faith increasingly seek practical ways to respond to the environmental crisis theology has had difficulty contextualizing the crisis and interpreting the responses In Ecologies of Grace Willis Jenkins presents a field shaping introduction to Christian environmental ethics that offers resources for renewing theology Observing how religious environmental practices often draw on concepts of grace Jenkins maps the way Christian environmental strategies draw from traditions of salvation as they engage the problems of environmental ethics He then uses this new map to explore afresh the ecological dimensions of Christian theology Jenkins first shows how Christian ethics uniquely frames environmental issues and then how those approaches both challenge and reinhabit theological traditions He identifies three major strategies for making environmental problems intelligible to Christian moral experience Each one draws on a distinct pattern of grace as it adapts a secular approach to environmental ethics The strategies of ecojustice stewardship and ecological spirituality make environments matter for Christian experience by drawing on patterns of sanctification redemption and deification He then confronts the problems of each of these strategies through critical reappraisals of Thomas Aquinas Karl Barth and Sergei Bulgakov Each represents a soteriological tradition which Jenkins explores as an ecology of grace letting environmental questions guide investigation into how nature becomes significant for Christian experience By being particularly sensitive to the ways in which environmental problems are made intelligible to Christian moral experience Jenkins guides his readers toward a fuller understanding of Christianity and ecology He not only makes sense of the variety of Christian environmental ethics but by showing how environmental issues come to the heart of Christian experience prepares fertile ground for theological renewal Ecotherapy Howard Sustainable Diplomacy D. Wellman, 2004-05-06 Drawing on a variety of disciplines Sustainable Diplomacy is a highly constructive work Set in the context of modern Moroccan Spanish relations this text is a direct critique of realism as it is practiced in modern diplomacy Proposing a new eco-centric approach to relations between nation states and bioregions Wellman presents the case for Ecological Realism an undergirding philosophy for conducting a diplomacy which values the role of popular religions ecological histories and the consumption and waste patterns of national populations Sustainable Diplomacy is thus a means of building relations not only between elites but also between people on the ground as they together face the real possibility of global ecological destruction

Church, Capitalism, and Democracy in Post-Ecological Societies Cheng-tian Kuo, 2018-10-24 Most ecotheologies build their arguments on the Bible's creation story and resurrection narrative in the hope to save the ecology through spiritual meditation reforming capitalism and/or deliberative democracy However based on a Chinese Christian social scientist's perspective this book argues that few of these ecotheologies are theologically and empirically valid Instead it proposes a neuro-institutional post-ecology theology that builds on the major themes of the Last Judgment to refocus ecotheology toward evangelism and to adapt ecotheology to capitalism and democracy in order to embrace the already but not yet impacts of the inevitable total destruction of the ecology in the near future The vanities in current ecotheologies are divided into religious economic and political categories Among the major ones discussed in this book are the vanities of ecological meditation theology leftist and rightist economic theologies as well as ecotheologies of green authoritarianism and deliberative democracy Even if these ecotheologies work perfectly as they were intended to global ecological crises have passed the point of no return i e post ecology and rendering all of them a global vanity Based on a Chinese Christian social scientist s perspective this book proposes a moderate course of ecological spirituality economic behaviors and democratic actions but with a radical devotion to crisis management and evangelism in preparation for the Domsdays This book is unique in its balanced interdisciplinary composition employing theories from cognitive science Christian theology economics and political science Burning Center, Porous Borders Eleazar S. Fernandez, 2011-10-17 Burning Center Porous Borders articulates what the church is and is called to be about in the world a world now globalized to the point that the local is lived globally and the global is lived locally The church must respond creatively and prophetically to the challenges economic disparity war and terrorism diaspora ecological threat health crisis religious diversity and so on posed by our highly globalized world It can do so only if the church s spiritual center burns mightily Conversely it can burn mightily in the spirit of Christ only if its borders are porous and allows the fresh air spirit of change to blow in and out While there is much rhetoric about change the most common response to change is to continue doing business as usual This is particularly the case in the face of perceived global threats In spite of the hoopla and euphoria of the global village walls of division and exclusion are rising hearts are constricting and moral imagination shrinking In response to this context Burning Center Porous Borders proposes alternative ways or images of being a church burning center and porous borders wall buster and bridge builder translocal glocal mending healer radical hospitality community of the earth spirit household of life abundant dialogians of life and community of hope In Burning Center Porous Borders congregational vitality and progressive praxis kiss and embrace Tongues and Trees Aaron Jason Swoboda, 2019-05-21 This book develops a Pentecostal ecological theology ecotheology by utilizing key pneumatological themes that emerge from the Pentecostal tradition It examines the salient Pentecostal and Charismatic voices that have stimulated ecotheology in the Pentecostal tradition and situates them within the broader context of Christian ecumenical ecotheologies Roman Catholic Orthodox Protestant and Ecofeminist The author advances a novel approach to Pentecostal ecotheology through a pneumatology of the Spirit baptized creation the charismatic creational community the holistic ecological Spirit and the eschatological Spirit of ecological mission Significantly this book is the first substantive contribution to a Pentecostal pneumatological theology of creation with a particular focus on the Pentecostal community and its significance for the broader ecumenical community Furthermore it offers a fresh theological approach to imagining and sustaining earth friendly practice in the twenty first century Pentecostal church Place, Spirituality, and Well-Being Victor

Counted, Haywantee Ramkissoon, Laura E. Captari, Richard G. Cowden, 2023-09-29 This book synthesizes perspectives on how place is deeply intertwined with our spirituality and well being Split into three sections this book brings together contributions from global scholars across a range of disciplines to unravel how the personal social and cultural spheres of place shape our spiritual experiences and overall well being It is an essential read for those interested in enriching their knowledge of the linkages between place spirituality and well being while also providing a foundation for future research on place and its intersections with both spirituality and well being The Community of the Weak Hans-Peter

Geiser, 2013-03-28 Social postmodernism and systematic theology can be considered the new pair in some of the most creative discussions on the future of theological method on a global scale Both in the academy and in the public square as well as in the manifold local and pastoral moments of ministry and community social activism the social the postmodern and the theological intermingle in engaging and border crossing ways The Community of the Weak presents a new kind of jazzy fundamental theology with a postmodern touch using jazz as a metaphor writing ethnographically messy texts out of the personal windows of lived experiences combining fragments of autobiography with theological reconstruction A comparative perspective on North American and European developments in contemporary systematic theology serves as a hermeneutical horizon to juxtapose two continents in their very different contexts The author proposes a systematic and fundamental theology that is more jazzy global and narrative deeply embedded in pastoral ministry to tell its postmodern story Cry of the Earth, Cry of the Poor Leonardo Boff, 1997 Focusing on the threatened Amazon of his native Brazil Boff traces the economic and metaphysical ties that bind the fate of the rain forests with the fate of the indigenous peoples and the poor of the land He shows how liberation theology must join with ecology in reclaiming the dignity of the earth and our sense of a common community part of God's creation To illustrate the possibilities Boff turns to resources in Christian spirituality both ancient and modern from the vision of St Francis of Assisi to cosmic christology Process Theology: A Guide for the
