

Section B: Guidelines on specific questions

The following is a guideline to issues candidates may raise in their answers. It is not intended to be prescriptive.

Questions 9 and 10

- An understanding of the rapid development of micro features of film language during the period, especially in relationship to spectator positioning and response.
- An understanding of the rapid development in the story-telling capacity of early cinema with particular reference to narrative and spectatorship.
- An appreciation of cinematic contexts – including developments in technology and exhibition.

Questions 11 and 12

- An awareness of different kinds of documentary practice and the distinctive features of each in relation to spectatorship.
- An appreciation of cinematic contexts – including developments in technology and exhibition as they relate to spectatorship.

Questions 13 and 14

- An understanding that experimental film/video demands a different and more challenging spectatorship experience.
- An awareness of different kinds of experimental practice and the distinctive features of each in relation to spectatorship.
- An appreciation of cinematic contexts – including developments in technology and exhibition as they relate to spectatorship.

Questions 15 and 16

- An understanding of how cinema produces a range of emotional responses in the spectator, using both macro and micro features.
- An appreciation of how spectators seek a range of different experiences when watching films, including experiences that may challenge and disturb.
- An appreciation of cinematic contexts – including the significance of audience viewing situations, fandom and ‘cultism’ – in contributing to spectator response.

General Performance Descriptors: Section C

AO1: Demonstrate knowledge and understanding of film as an audio-visual form of creative expression, together with its contexts of production and reception and of the diversity in filmmaking across different historical periods and geographical locations.

AO2: Apply knowledge and understanding, including some of the common critical approaches that characterise the subject, when exploring and analysing films and when evaluating their own film creative projects, to show how meanings and responses are generated.

The ability to demonstrate knowledge and understanding (AO1) will be weighted equally with the ability to apply that through exploration and analysis (AO2) at all levels.
