The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1882 Academy; a Weekly Review of Literature, Learning, Science and Art, 1889. The Poetical Gazette, the official organ of the Poetry Society and a review of poetical affairs, nos. 4-7 issued as supplements to the Academy, v. 79, Oct. 15, Nov. 5, Dec. 3 and 31, 1910. Educating the Romantic Poets, Catherine E. Ross, 2023-10-15.

Educating the Romantic Poets: Life and Learning in the Anglo Classical Academy 1770-1850 explores how the public and endowed grammar schools and the colleges of Oxford and Cambridge trained some of the most important writers, critics, and public figures of the Romantic period. These institutions are recognized here as intentional partners and are discussed collectively as the Anglo classical academy. The book shows how they not only schooled students in classics, maths, and divinity but also in accepted social behaviours, cultural values, political beliefs, and literary tastes. In so doing, this academy gave shape to the literature and spirit of the age. By discussing the schools and the universities together and by focusing upon pedagogies and daily life as well as the texts and topics studied, this book shows as no other has done how writers and readers of the late eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries became such fluent linguists, skilled prosodists, and perceptive critics. As each chapter explores and comments upon the relational intellectual and cultural aspects of the Anglo classical educational experience, it directs readers' attention to the ways in which this information can be used to reread texts, reassess certain Romantics' literary careers, and launch new lines of research.

Beyond the Tragic Vision, Morse Peckham, 1981-03-12. An attempt to understand the nineteenth century's need to derive order from the individual rather than the objective world. The School Board Chronicle, 1960. Responses to Modernity, Joseph Frank, 2012.

This book consists of essays and reviews that address social, political, and cultural issues which arose in connection with literature broadly conceived in the wake of the First World War and extending throughout the twentieth century. The first portion of the volume concerns France with both essays on individual writers such as Paul Valéry, Jacques Maritain, Albert Camus, André Malraux, Jean Paul Sartre, and Yves Bonnefoy and a piece on French intellectuals between the wars. The second part concerns Germany and Romania with essays on Ernst Juenger, Gottfried Benn, Erich Kahler, E. M. Cioran, and others. The volume concludes with essays on problems of literary criticism in dialogue with such critics as Gary Saul Morson, Ian Watt, T. S. Eliot, and R. P. Blackmur. These essays also discuss the history of the novel and the question of realism.
