Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2003-04      The Tastes of Ayurveda Amrita Sondhi, 2012-07-03 Ayurveda, the five thousand year old healing tradition from India linked to the development of yoga, is based on the concept that one's physical, mental, and spiritual well-being comes from a number of sources, including a healthful diet based on one's individual constitution. In this vegetarian cookbook, Amrita Sondhi, author of The Modern Ayurvedic Cookbook, now in its fourth printing, provides new twists on traditional Ayurvedic recipes that are also inspired by the growing popularity of whole grains, quinoa, bulgur, and barley, and raw foods. The Ayurvedic diet is based on the concept of three doshas: vata (air), pitta (fire), and kapha (earth). Each of us has a primary dosha that we can strive to maintain at a healthy balance, but which can cause problems if excessive. The book includes a questionnaire so readers can determine their own primary dosha and then look for recipes that will help them to maintain or reduce it for optimal health. Recipes include modern interpretations of Indian cuisine: spinach feta and green chili samosas, and mango and coconut kulfi, and Ayurvedic spins on vegetarian fare: sprouted barley rainbow pilaf and raw zucchini hummus. The book also includes yoga and breathing exercises that one can easily do at home or at work, full-color recipe photos, and information on sprouting, fermenting, techniques, and backyard gardening. The Tastes of Ayurveda offers simple and delicious ways to achieve a more healthful and serene life. Amrita Sondhi is a yoga instructor, Ayurvedic cooking teacher, and the owner of Movement, a sustainable fiber clothing line.      All Consuming Ruby Tandoh, 2025-09-09 Food dominates our every waking minute. Mediating Cultures Alberto González, Tina M. Harris, 2013 This book explores the communication challenges faced by parents as they raise children who are bi-cultural, multi-cultural, or are adopted from a heritage other than the parents. Each contributor views the family as a site of intercultural dialogue and mediation and uses compelling studies throughout to examine the parents who creatively balance cultural influences within their families. Using television depictions of parents on Modern Family and All American Muslim to the everyday activities of mixed ethnicity and international families, Mediating Cultures reports the communication strategies employed by the parents as they strive to create affirming relationships between children and their heritages. This collection brings together two largely separate literatures of family communication and intercultural communication studies with accessible yet context-driven studies to explain how families integrate multiple cultural heritages and perspectives.
