The Prose Brut and Other Late Medieval Chronicles Jaclyn Rajsic, Erik Kooper, Dominique T. Hoche, 2016 Essays on the medieval chronicle tradition shedding light on history writing manuscript studies and the history of the book and the post medieval reception of such texts The histories of chronicles composed in England during the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries and onwards with a focus on texts belonging to or engaging with the Prose Brut tradition are the focus of this volume The contributors examine the composition dissemination and reception of historical texts written in Anglo Norman Latin and English including the Prose Brut chronicle c 1300 and later Castleford's Chronicle c 1327 and Nicholas Trevet's Les Cronicles c 1334 looking at questions of the processes of writing rewriting printing and editing history They cross traditional boundaries of subject and period taking multi disciplinary approaches to their studies in order to underscore the shifting historical social and political contexts in which medieval English chronicles were used and read from the fourteenth century through to the present day As such the volume honours the pioneering work of the late Professor Lister M Matheson whose research in this area demonstrated that a full understanding of medieval historical literature demands attention to both the content of the works in question and to the material circumstances of producing those works JACLYN RAJSIC is a Lecturer in Medieval Literature in the School of English and Drama at Queen Mary University of London ERIK KOOPER taught Old and Middle English at Utrecht University until his retirement in 2007 DOMINIQUE HOCHÉ Is an Associate Professor at West Liberty University in West Virginia

Liberating Histories Claire Norton, Mark Donnelly, 2018-07-11 Liberating Histories makes an original scholarly contribution to contemporary debates surrounding the cultural and political relevance of historical practices Arguing against the idea that specifically historical readings of the past are necessary or are compelled by the force of past events themselves this book instead focuses on other forms of past talk and how they function in politically empowering ways against social injustices Challenging the authority and constraints of academic history over the past this book explores various forms of past talk including art films activism memory nostalgia and archives Across seven clear chapters Claire Norton and Mark Donnelly show how activists and campaigners have used forms of past talk to unsettle common sense thinking about political and social problems how journalists artists curators filmmakers and performers have referenced the past in their practices of advocacy and how grassroots archivists help to circulate materials that challenge the power of authorised institutional archives to determine what gets to count as a demonstrable feature of the past and whose voices are part of the historical record Written in a lucid accessible manner and combining insightful critical analysis and philosophical argument with clear consideration of how different forms of past talk influence the narration of pasts in a variety of socio political contexts Liberating Histories is essential reading for students and scholars with an interest in historiography and the ethical and political dimensions of the historical discipline

Dismissed as elegant fossils Lee Bruschke-Johnson, 2021-11-22. Konoe Nobutada 1565-1614 was a famous calligrapher and head of a high-ranking aristocratic family. Nobutada's contributions to the art and culture have frequently been overlooked largely because of the common misperception that aristocrats were too outdated, impoverished, and powerless to be worthy of discussion. Dismissed as Elegant Fossils seeks to reinstate aristocrats as key players in the competition for political and artistic supremacy by examining Nobutada's calligraphy and painting his turbulent relationship with Tokugawa Ieyasu and his family's role in marital politics. Communicating Differences Sudeshna Roy, Ibrahim Seaga

A copious appendix contains filmographies of prominent directors, actors, and writers. Tom Murtagh OBE, 2018-02-20. The Maze Prison shows how an establishment built to hold those involved in terrorism atrocities, murder, and allied crimes became a pawn in the partisan conflict that was Northern Ireland. There followed a breakdown of norms, values, and control as the last of these shifted from Governors to Ministers, outside officials, and even prisoners. This led to the often random killing of prison officers and countless allegations, denials, and obfuscations as Prison
